Redefining Student Learning Roots Of Educational Change:

Redefining Student Learning Hermine H. Marshall, 1992 Presenting an alternative view of where educational reform must begin the contributors contend that we must begin with rethinking the nature of learning and with newer knowledge about how students learn Only then can the conditions that support the type of learning that will create productive citizens for the 21st century be considered The book begins with the need to redefine learning by increasing awareness of the relationship between how students learn and efforts to improve schools The next seven chapters present examples of classroom research to provide a glimpse of what happens when teachers implement newer views of learning based on how students actively construct knowledge in meaningful and multi connected networks These examples serve to provide clues about what learning may look like in classrooms with these goals and to raise questions about factors that support and or constrain teachers in providing opportunities for students to extend understanding to solve complex problems Writing Portfolios in the Classroom Robert Calfee, Pamela Perfumo, 2012-10-12 This volume presents chapters by researchers practitioners and policymakers who study the impact of classroom portfolios in the assessment of writing achievement by elementary and middle grade students The focus throughout the volume is on the tension between classroom assessment and externally mandated testing It presents the efforts of researchers practitioners and policymakers to understand the impact of classroom portfolios for the assessment of writing achievement by elementary and middle grade students Under the auspices of the Center for the Study of Writing the editors conducted a national survey of exemplary portfolio projects arranged for a series of video visits and held several working conferences The result of this work is a broad ranging tale the aspirations of teachers and administrators to move the machinery of schooling in the direction of more authentic and engaging tasks the puzzlement of students when they realize that the assignments are real and that the teacher may not have a right answer in mind and the tensions between ivory tower ideas and everyday classroom practice Divided into four sections this research volume provides a historical perspective develops the conceptual framework that serves as a background for many activities described throughout and discusses numerous practical issues that confront today s researchers and practitioners views the phenomenon of writing portfolios through a variety of broadview lenses such as teacher enthusiasm student reflection assessment tension the portfolio as metaphor and the locus of control conveys important conceptual issues with a balance toward pragmatics and offers unique insights from the perspective of one individual who serves as scholar researcher and teacher Discourse Analysis of Language and Literacy Events in Educational Settings David Bloome, Stephanie Power-Carter, W. Douglas Baker, Maria Lucia Castanheira, Minjeong Kim, Lindsey W. Rowe, 2022-03-30 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to the use of microethnographic discourse analysis for researching theorizing and reconceptualizing the uses of language and literacy in educational settings The authors apply an ethnographic perspective to discourse analysis to emphasize how teachers and students use spoken and written language to construct knowledge opportunities for learning and social relationships The authors demonstrate how microethnographic discourse analysis at different levels of scale can provide deeper understandings into the nuanced complex social interactions and relationships that exist in and across educational contexts including meaning making literacy practices power relations and the social construction of personhood Each chapter offers philosophically and theoretically grounded principles for using microethnographic discourse analysis and example cases that reflect the principles presented Ideal for researchers teacher educators and teachers this essential text on discourse analysis languaging and literacy provides a grounding to further examine critical questions challenging educators

Interactional Ethnography Audra Skukauskaitė, Judith L. Green, 2022-08-12 Focusing specifically on Interactional Ethnography IE as a distinct discourse based form of ethnography this book introduces readers to the logic and practice behind IE and exemplifies the logic of ethnographic inquiry through a range of example based chapters Edited by two of the foremost scholars in the field of IE this book brings together a body of work that has until now been largely dispersed Illustrating how IE intersects with ethnographic methods including observation interviews and fieldwork the book highlights considerations relating to data analysis researcher positionality and the ethics of engaging participants in research Offering examples of IE in international contexts and across a range of social science and educational settings the book provides foundational principles and key examples of IE to guide readers work This book offers researchers scholars and teacher educators a definitive novel contribution to current methodological literature on IE broadly and will be of particular use to ethnographers starting out in their career Due to the interdisciplinary nature of the volume in illustrating the use of IE in a range of educational sub disciplines the book s relevance extends to the fields of medical education teacher education arts and literacy research as well as providing situated examples of IE in settings with relevance to the social sciences anthropology and cultural studies

The SAGE Handbook of Writing Development Roger Beard, Jeni Riley, Debra Myhill, Martin Nystrand, 2009-07-23 By drawing on international cross phase and cross disciplinary research perspectives this book offers a comprehensive review of writing development invaluable for researchers and practitioners alike Handbook of Research on Teaching Drew Gitomer, Courtney Bell, 2016-05-19 The Fifth Edition of the Handbook of Research on Teaching is an essential resource for students and scholars dedicated to the study of teaching and learning This volume offers a vast array of topics ranging from the history of teaching to technological and literacy issues In each authoritative chapter the authors summarize the state of the field while providing conceptual overviews of critical topics related to research on teaching Each of the volume's 23 chapters is a canonical piece that will serve as a reference tool for the field The Handbook provides readers with an unparalleled view of the current state of research on teaching across its multiple facets and related fields Teach, Reflect, Learn Pete Hall, Alisa Simeral, 2015-04-15 It's not the doing that matters it's the thinking about the doing said John Dewey As a teacher you work hard to make a positive difference in the lives of your students But this kind of progress doesn't happen overnight and it doesn't happen accidentally. It's the result of intentionality, planning, effort, and thought. The difference between learning a skill and being able to implement it effectively resides in your capacity to engage in deep, continuous thought about that skill. In other words, recognizing why you do something is often more important than knowing how to do it. To help you deepen your thinking and reflect on your capacity as an educator, Pete Hall and Alisa Simeral return to the Continuum of Self Reflection which they introduced to coaches and administrators in their best-selling Building Teachers' Capacity for Success and redesign its implementation so you can take charge of your own professional growth. In these pages, you'll find tools specifically made to enhance self-reflection on professional practice, including the Continuum of Self Reflection and the Reflective Cycle. You'll be able to assess your current self-reflective tendencies, identify opportunities to reflect on your instruction, and begin to forge a path toward continuous growth and educational excellence.

Development of Achievement Motivation Allan Wigfield, Jacquelynne S. Eccles, 2002-02 This book discusses research and theory on how motivation changes as children progress through school, gender differences in motivation and motivational differences as an aspect of ethnicity. Motivation is discussed within the context of school achievement as well as athletic and musical performance. Key Features: Coverage of the major theories and constructs in the motivation field. Focus on developmental issues across the elementary and secondary school period. Discussion of instructional and theoretical issues regarding motivation. Consideration of gender and ethnic differences in motivation. Identity, Community, and Learning Lives in the Digital Age Ola Erstad, Julian Sefton-Green, 2013 This book analyzes research on education, identity, and community, exploring the ways in which learning can be characterized across whole life experiences. Motivation Science Mimi Bong, John Marshall Reeve, Sung-il Kim, 2023 Motivational science has advanced tremendously in the last decade. However, it is now clear that future progress is going to be stalled by the extent of disagreement among motivation scientists to some basic yet controversial questions. To help move motivation science toward greater coherence, we decided to recruit prominent scholars to voice their contrasting perspectives. Such debate is not only interesting but it also makes future research discoveries, collaborations, and applications more fruitful. It is in this spirit that we put together a volume to address those controversies that are most likely to provide insight.
