Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification Corneliu C. Simut,2019-10-01 Richard Hooker and his Early Doctrine of Justification explores the doctrine of justification the doctrine of faith and grace and the doctrine of Scripture and use of reason in the early theology of Richard Hooker In order to prove that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu concentrates on Hooker's doctrine of justification as reflected in his Learned Discourse of Justification which is the most important work of his early theology Unlike previous books on Hooker which use primarily the theology of Luther and Calvin to draw conclusions this book brings together quotations and ideas from the works of Luther Melancthon Zwingli Bucer Calvin and Beza to show that Hooker was a Protestant Reformed theologian Simu also discusses the theological context of Hooker's career by offering an analysis of the doctrine of justification in the theology of John Jewel John Whitgift Hooker's patrons and Thomas Cartwright and Walter Travers Hooker's Puritan opponents

Divine Freedom and the Doctrine of the Immanent Trinity Paul D. Molnar,2017-02-23 Divine Freedom and the Doctrine of the Immanent Trinity is widely acclaimed by scholars in the field of Christian systematic theology Molnar's quest to place the doctrine of the immanent Trinity on the agenda of the Christian doctrine of God has proven to be a signal contribution to the debate in contemporary Christian theology The material in this second edition has been thoroughly updated it contains a new preface and a new introduction as well as a revised bibliography The book includes a brand new chapter titled Divine Freedom Revisited which addresses those questions that have arisen in connection with Molnar's original presentation of the divine freedom Molnar revisits here his discussion of the Logos Asarkos the theologies of Karl Rahner and Wolfhart Pannenberg He sheds new light on Rahner's and Torrance's discussions of the Resurrection and incorporates modern discussions by contemporary theologians to offer new insights into Eberhard Jüngel's thinking

The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell,2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jurgen Moltmann's model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time For

Jürgen Moltmann's Hell is the Nemesis of Hope The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zuzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature-grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in-depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself

History of Chester, New Hampshire, Including Auburn, 1926 Manusya, 2016 On Tragedy and Transcendence Khégan M. Delport, 2021-10-08 From the time of Plato's proposed expulsion of the poets tragedy has repeatedly proposed a challenge to philosophical and theological certainties This is apparent already in early Christianity amongst leading figures during the patristic age But this raises the question Why was the theme of tragedy still accepted and deployed throughout the history of Christianity nevertheless Is this merely an accident or is there something more substantial at play Can Christian theology take the tragic seriously Must Christianity ultimately deny the tragic to be coherent or might it be able to sustain its negativity Some like George Steiner David Bentley Hart and John Milbank have doubts about such a coherency but others think differently This book aims to examine this debate laying out the lines of disagreement and continuing tensions Through a critical examination of the work of Donald MacKinnon and the eminent Christian thinker Rowan Williams the book aims to show that there is a path for reconciling the claims of Christian orthodoxy and the experience of tragedy one that is able to maintain a metaphysical foundation for both real transcendence and unfolding historicity without denying either Protestant Virtue and Stoic Ethics Elizabeth Agnew Cochran,2017-12-28 The Stoics are known to have been a decisive influence on early Christian moral thought but the import of this influence for contemporary Christian ethics has been underexplored Elizabeth Agnew Cochran argues that attention to the Stoics enriches a Christian understanding of the virtues illuminating precisely how historical Protestant theology gives rise to a distinctive virtue ethic Through examining the dialogue between Roman Stoic ethics and the work of Martin Luther John Calvin and Jonathan Edwards Cochran illuminates key theological convictions that provide a foundation for a contemporary Protestant virtue ethic consistent with theological beliefs characteristic of the historical Reformed tradition The Doctrine of Salvation in the Sermons of Richard Hooker Corneliu C. Simut,2012-02-14 This specialist work in historical theology deals with the doctrine of salvation in the early theology of Richard Hooker 1554 1600 from the perspective of the concept of faith and with Hooker's connections to the early English Reformers W Tyndale J Frith R Barnes T Cranmer J Bradford and J Foxe in crucial teachings such as justification sanctification glorification election reprobation the sovereignty of God and salvation of Catholics The study proves that Hooker's theology is firstly Protestant to counter the views which picture it as Catholic and secondly Calvinist Wesley Speaks on Christian Vocation Paul W. Chilcote,2001-11-26 When Wesley spoke ordinary people were inspired to pursue their Christian vocation in extraordinary ways with fervor and obedience to the mission of the gospel The subject of Christian vocation appeared often in the letters journals hymns sermons and books of John and Charles Wesley At the Methodist Conference of 1744 John Wesley posed three crucial questions for Christian vocation What do we teach How do we teach What do we do For the theme of Christian vocation Paul Wesley Chilcote has assembled nuggets and selections from the literature by the Wesleys Each of the three questions is helpfully introduced and set in perspective We are astonished by Wesley's ability to speak clearly to our turbulent times about doctrine liturgy worship hunger oppression peace and service in the world Chilcote follows up each chapter with reflection questions that ask the reader to apply Wesley's teachings to personal situations in the home and in the community The resource has been tested in various settings and is recommended for Covenant Discipleship groups It is ideal for personal retreats or for a group study that helps us to clarify what and how to teach then what to do Gratitude Works! Robert A. Emmons,2013-02-14 A purposeful guide for cultivating gratitude as a way of life Recent dramatic advances in our understanding of gratitude have changed the question from does gratitude work to how do we get more of it This book explores evidence based practices in a

Callaway,2002-06-18 Hildegard Peplau s 50 year career in nursing left an indelible stamp on the profession of nursing and on the lives of the mentally ill in this country She wore many hats founder of modern psychiatric nursing innovative educator advocate for the mentally ill proponent of advanced education for nurses Executive Director and then President of the American Nurses Association and prolific author She raised her daughter as a single parent while pursuing an ambitious professional path Her determined manner often aroused controversy which never deterred her commitment to advancing the nursing profession The Geography of God's Incarnation Ann Pederson,2013-07-25 What does geography have to do with the incarnation of God and with our spiritual lives as Christians We will embark on a theological road trip that explores how geographies are at the heart of understanding of God s incarnation in the world It is no surprise to Christians that the center of the incarnation is the person of Jesus Christ God in flesh made manifest However it might be a stretch for some Christians to imagine that the promise that God has become flesh is not only in a person but also in a place in the creation Christians need to expand what incarnation means and what it means to be created in the image of God so that the scope of God s creative and redemptive action and work indeed reaches to the scope of all things from the outer reaches of space to the inner reaches of our hearts To be the creatures of God that God calls us to be requires a kind of dual citizenship within the details of our daily life attending to the needs of our neighbors simultaneously knowing we are part of a greater cosmos whose future is still unfolding
