Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 1, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems. Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems. Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning. Most were not. Whether prepared or not, educators rose to the challenge. The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face-to-face environment. In fact, some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face-to-face model. As with all transitions, some things were lost while others were gained. This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century. The book is organized into four sections: The Perspectives of Higher Education, COVID as a Catalyst for Change, Embracing Online Learning as a Response to COVID, and Post-Covid: The Way Forward. It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process. These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post-COVID. Higher education has been forever changed, and higher education as it once was may never return. While many questions arise, the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic.

Copper King in Central Africa Hyden Munene, 2022-01-31 Copper King in Central Africa offers a detailed account of the corporate history of the Rhokana Rokana Corporation and its Nkana mine. Thematically and chronologically organised, it explores the discovery of viable ores on the Northern Rhodesian/Zambian Copperbelt in the late 1920s which attracted foreign capital from South Africa, Britain, and the USA, prompting the development of the Nkana mine and the formation of the Rhokana Corporation in the early 1930s. It follows through the evolution of the copper mining industry up to the re-privatisation of the Zambian mining sector in 1991. The book ties into a single narrative the disparate themes of corporate organisation, labour relations, and profitability of Rhokana, demonstrating how the firm was for a time the most important mining entity in the Northern Rhodesian/Zambian mining industry. Rhokana was both an investment firm on the Copperbelt and a mining company through Nkana mine. Thus, the Corporation was central to the development and profitability of the copper industry in Zambia. Its corporate and labour policies influenced the Copperbelt as a whole. Employing the largest labour force in the mining sector, Rhokana spearheaded the labour movement on the Copperbelt. Its Nkana mine was also the largest producer of copper in the Northern Rhodesian mining industry between 1940 and 1953 and contributed hugely to the war economies of Britain and the USA. Throughout its history Nkana was also a major source of cobalt After nationalisation of the mining sector in 1970 Rhokana surrendered its investments in the wider copper industry but remained central to the Copperbelt's smelting and refining operations owning the biggest metallurgical facilities in the industry Photo-era, 1917 Storytelling: Global Reflections on Narrative Tracy Ann Hayes, Theresa Edlmann, Laurinda Brown, 2019-05-15 This book is a collection of papers from an international interdisciplinary conference focusing on storytelling and human life The chapters in this volume provide unique accounts of how stories shape the narratives and discourses of people's lives and work and those of their families and broader social networks From making sense of history to documenting biographies and current pedagogical approaches to exploring current and emerging spatial and media trends this book explores the possibilities of narrative approaches as a theoretical scaffold across numerous disciplines and in diverse contexts Central to all the chapters is the idea of stories being a creative and reflexive means to make sense of people's past current realities and future possibilities Contributors are Prue Bramwell Davis Brendon Briggs Laurinda Brown Rachel Chung Elizabeth Cummings Szymon Czerkawski Denise Dantas Joanna Davidson Nina Dvorko Sarah Eagle Theresa Edlmann Gavin Fairbairn Keven Fletcher Sarah Garvey Phyllis Hastings Tracy Ann Hayes Welby Ings Stephanie Jacobs Dean Jobb Caroline M Kisiel Maria Dolores Lozano M d lina Moraru Michael R Ogden Nancy Peled Valerie Perry Melissa Lee Price Rasa Ra i nait Pau uolien Irena Ragai ien Remko Smid Paulette Stevens Cheryl Svensson Mary O Brien Tyrrell Shunichi Ueno Leona Ungerer Sarah White Wai ling Wong and Bridget Anthonia Makwemoisa Yakubu

Moving Reflections Jo Evans, 1996 Volume exploring the important but neglected Spanish female poet Angela Figuera Aymerich Angela Figuera Aymerich 1902-84 remains an obscure figure among the Spanish social poets of the Franco regime her work almost entirely eclipsed by male contemporaries This book attempts both to bring her poetry to the attention of a wider audience and to show how her work anticipates the generation of women writers and poets who have emerged since the coming of democracy Focusing primarily on a selection of poems published between 1948 and 1962 Dr Evans shows how her work has been mistakenly ignored as maternal in essence and so of little interest to the poetry of social protest in general Using feminist and psychoanalytical theories of language to suggest that identity and poetic identity in particular is constructed as the effect of mirror images the author argues that the moving reflections of gender faith and aesthetics mirror Figuera's struggle with a fragmented poetic identity through these concepts her work can be read not only as a moving reflection of maternal femininity and social injustice but as an active attempt to retrace the boundaries of female identity JO EVANS teaches in the Department of Hispanic Studies Edinburgh University Reflections Dr. Renuka.KP, Dr Renuka K P's Reflections is a profound ten article collection that seamlessly blends insightful societal commentary with deep spiritual exploration The book opens with a focus on individual well being as seen in Beyond Impulse How Intelligence Shapes Our Emotional Diet for a Balanced Life setting a tone of introspection and self mastery The collection then broadens its scope to critically examine modern society Articles like The Paradox of Progress A Critical Look at Our Developed World Dress Code

Civilization has many faces One of its looks is the presence of Sophia in our midst It is a smart robot armed with artificial intelligence Its job is to help humans with the technological sophistication they have Furthermore civilization does not only present Sophia There is another thing that civilization shows Syria In Syria there is an endless civil war that has cost thousands of lives Of course there is a lot more to civilization During the last 17 Years 2002 2019 I ve crossed five continents from Australia to North Korea from Beijing to Prague then from Russia to Denmark I witnessed various civilizations ranging from the most ancient civilizations in Egypt to the most advanced civilizations in the United States France Norway and Great Britain starting from Mecca to Venice So many things that I saw So many encounters I had with the geniuses and the dead giants So deep and high are the achievements of art economics science and human s spirituality that I have observed There is also a great example the warriors advised me through their sacrifices Now I have put those entire encounters in this little book Civilizations are indeed very varied There s Sophia on the left and there s Syria On the right Hopefully Indonesia will not choose the wrong choice Reflections of an Era ,1964*
