Reflections On Christians Song:

Reflections on Issues in Music and Worship Michael G. Coleman, 2019-03-19 Lest you think that Dr Coleman has quit preachin and gone to meddlin in this sensitive topic of music and especially church appropriate music please give this book a chance Coleman draws from many sources both Seventh day Adventist and non Adventist to explain just how the type of music we use in church worship services affects our worship experience and our Christian experience When addressing the current trend of Contemporary Christian Music CCM he assures the reader that he is not against all CCM but cautions against using a song just because it may be popular or may draw a certain crowd into the church He shows how merely the use of contemporary music may attract people to attend church but it doesn't necessarily lead to a true conversion or the intentional discipling of those people Dr Coleman states The seeker sensitive model involved a de emphasis of traditional methods of evangelism and discipleship such as doctrinal preaching calling for repentance from sin and committing oneself to give Bible studies rather it focused on innovation and meeting the wants of people often dubbed felt needs The seeker sensitive model also caused people to view Christianity as something cool and made them feel comfortable in dressing down to attend church worship service sometimes in jeans and a t shirt However it resulted in producing spiritually weak Christians who were pastor dependent and not committed to making disciples for Christ Music ministry leaders and anyone who enjoys music in church will learn to be a little more discriminating in the choice of music after gaining the insights provided in this book

Foreword Exploring Christian Song M. Jennifer Bloxam, Andrew Shenton, 2017-06-12

This essay collection celebrates the richness of Christian musical tradition across its two thousand year history and across the globe. Opening with a consideration of the fourth century lamp lighting hymn Phos hilaron and closing with reflections on contemporary efforts of Ghanaian composers to create Christian worship music in African idioms, the ten contributors engage with a broad ecumenical array of sacred music. Topics encompass Roman Catholic sacred music in medieval and Renaissance Europe, German Lutheran song in the eighteenth century, English hymnody in colonial America, Methodist hymnody adopted by Southern Baptists in the nineteenth century, and Genevan psalmody adapted to respond to the post war tribulations of the Hungarian Reformed Church. The scope of the volume is further diversified by the inclusion of contemporary Christian topics that address the evangelical methods of a unique Orthodox Christian composer's language, the shared aims and methods of African American preaching and gospel music, and the affective didactic power of American evangelical praise and worship music. New material on several key composers including Jacob Obrecht, J. S. Bach, George Philipp Telemann, C. P. E. Bach, Zoltan Kodály, and Arvo Pärt appears within the book. Taken together, these essays embrace a stimulating variety of interdisciplinary analytical and methodological approaches drawing on cultural, literary, critical theological, ritual, ethnographical, and media studies. The collection contributes to discussions of spirituality in music and in particular to the unifying aspects of Christian sacred music across time, space, and faith traditions. This collection celebrates the fifteenth anniversary of the Society for Christian Scholarship in Music.

Reflections from Jackie's World Jacqueline K. Boog, 2021-04-07

I didn't realize I had any talent for writing until I began posting my little stories on Facebook. Friends began to suggest they belonged in a book to be used as a devotional. And so here it is, my second book. As you read, you will meet my family, my church, and my friends, and will grow to love them as I do. You will also see how they inspire me daily to write. God has given me a special ability to pull from the ordinary and watch Him make it extraordinary. He shows me how to take the little things and use them to challenge us all to live a life more pleasing to Him. He has also given me a unique sense of humor, and if you add that to the mix, you get what my husband refers to as Jackieisms. My hope is that my musings will encourage you, make you smile, or even laugh out loud, and remind you that you are a beloved child of the most high King. Enjoy a story one day at a time, or read through several as you relax for the evening. However you decide, just enjoy the ride through Jackie's World.
