Puri Ph.D., 2022-12-06 When war crimes and calamities occur the belief in God is shaken The idea comes to mind Does God Exist If there is a God then why is he not preventing deadly events comprising genocides assassinations crimes and atrocities On the contrary He does not interfere That means there is no God Are people worshipping at various religious places Churches Mosques and Temples for various reasons wasting their time If God does not exist all these religious places should be closed and turned into cinemas entertainment clubs and sports stadiums God is not any object that His existence can be proved It can be felt by seeing His splendid creation The act of creation reveals the creator To know His existence is to know his magnificent creation and redemption He is the transcendent designer and has not revealed Himself so far to anyone No God His prophet deputy or beloved can interfere with any life on any planet Each soul has its journey and is responsible for its actions God is apathetic to the creation of the universe or any happening in the universe The universe goes on as per its natural laws So let us not blame God for any catastrophe occurring in the world

Ibuanyidanda (complementary Reflection) and Some Basic Philosophical Problems in Africa Today Innocent Asouzu, 2013 This book gives an insightful account of how some fundamental phenomena and mechanisms control human consciousness impacting the way we think will and act The book identifies these phenomena and mechanisms as the mkpuchi anya the super maxim and the inherently tension laden ambivalent character of our experience of reality It re examines fundamental problems of philosophy from the perspective of ibuanyidanda complementary reflection and how the problems reappear in the way philosophy is conducted in Africa today Series Studies in African Philosophy Vol 8      The Christian Science Journal ,1917      Reflection on 50 Years of Social Science Education in Nigeria Social Science Academy of Nigeria. General Assembly,1999      Marx, Engels and the Philosophy of Science David Bedford,Thomas Workman,2022-12-31 This book expounds the dialectical conception of science largely implicit in the writings of Marx and Engels offering a sympathetic reconstruction of a philosophy of science commensurate with Marx s thought Drawing on a reading of dialectics found in Plato and Hegel it recasts Marx s implicit ontology in terms of dialectical conceptions of the world as these conceptions have responded to the growing sophistication of modern science It thus deepens our understanding of materialist philosophy as it relates to science and draws out Marx s logic of science in light of continuing discussions As such it will appeal to philosophers with interests in the nature and development of science and Marxist thought      A Mirror Is for Reflection Jake H. Davis,2017-07-13 This volume offers a rich and accessible introduction to contemporary research on Buddhist ethical thought for interested students and scholars yet also offers chapters taking up more technical philosophical and textual topics A Mirror is For Reflection offers a snapshot of the present state of academic investigation into the nature of Buddhist Ethics including contributions from many of the leading figures in the academic study of Buddhist philosophy Over the past decade many scholars have come to think that the project of fitting Buddhist ethical thought into Western philosophical categories may be of limited utility and the focus of investigation has shifted in a number of new directions This volume includes contemporary perspectives on topics including the nature of Buddhist ethics as a whole karma and rebirth mindfulness narrative intention free will politics anger and equanimity      The New York Times Book Review ,1963      A Theory of Full Employment Nancy Brenner-Golomb,2017-11-30 In A Theory of Full Employment Y S Brenner reviews the current drift toward a society he finds neither economically expedient nor morally attractive and N Brenner Golomb discusses the risks involved for science and society in the newfangled sophism hiding behind post modern ideas and political correctness Both authors emphasize the need to revive the public s political engagement and revise economic theory to restore to society the humane perspective that inspired the welfare state They contend that if people will abandon outworn habits of thought consider alternatives and renew their political engagement they may find useful employment for all who are able and willing to work and end the fear of destitution Although scientists philosophical backgrounds seldom influence their answers they do determine their questions and the final outcome can depend on this Neoclassical economists are ill equipped to ask questions about the long term dynamic processes of our complex economic reality They leave out of their models variables not easily quantified and prefer mathematical precision to the study of the intricacy of life Paul Samuelson Robert Solow and others have tried to overcome this by grouping self adjusting elements into proxy variables thus synthesizing neoclassical and Keynesian ideas But most of today s critics of the ruling dogma go largely unheard This volume is intended to convince professional economists who study the economic system as a whole to reexamine some of the assumptions behind reigning economic theories A second objective is to explain to the general public why currently fashionable policies cannot solve massive long term unemployment Finally it shows that if political engagement is revived we may escape the economic morass and moral wasteland into which the fashionable policies have been leading us since the 1970s This book will appeal to economists politicians sociologists and a wider public concerned about today s economic malaise The Nature of the process of reflection and revision and serving as a guide to develop effective practice in varied curricular contexts This text contributes to the body of literature on service learning in a unique and practical manner Faculty teaching or interested in teaching service learning classes would benefit from this text as well as university administrators and community service directors involved in service learning at a programmatic and institutional level This book should be marketed to faculty teaching disciplinary service learning classes and service learning pedagogy classes and administrative offices involved in service learning This could be a supplementary text for graduate level pedagogy courses Higher education institutional libraries would benefit from this text as well as the national and state campus compact offices
