of the world's leading staff developers in open and flexible learning      Turning Points Richard Jochum, Judith M. Burton, Jason Watson, 2023 Turning Points invites readers to join in a dialogue about creating more responsive studio art pedagogies for all following a global pandemic that forced art educators to do what many believed to be impossible: teach studio art online. Amidst this sudden shift, long simmering social and political challenges pushed to the forefront such as racial injustice, access to educational resources, economic inequality, and environmental degradation. As these issues compounded, art educators and art students navigated a radical shift in priorities, rethinking the materials, spaces, and relationships that form the foundation of the discipline. This collection of essays brings together international voices from across the field to share the lived experience of responsive teaching during the pandemic and how we might rebuild a better educational ecosystem. Chapters address how new technologies, more inclusive spaces, and a heightened focus on relationships will reshape the studio art programs of the future. Book Features: Synthesizes diverse cultural viewpoints from both leaders and practitioners in the field of art education; Focuses on the impact of the pandemic and its aftermath on studio art teaching and learning; Connects art education to sociocultural world issues: student wellness, mentorship, equity, and racial inequality; Offers suggestions for how to move the field forward to meet the challenges of the 21st century. Contributors include David Bogen, Bill Gaskins, Michelle Grabner, Samuel Hoi, Steven Henry Madoff, Ernesto Pujol, Seph Rodney Stacey, Salazar, Kimberly Sheridan, Paul A. C. Sproll, Jessica Stockholder, Robert Storr, and Mick Wilson.      Reflections of a Whale-watcher Michelle A. Gilders, 1995 A biologist describes her voyages and experiences through the Sea of Cortez and the Pacific Ocean in search of whales.      'MI' Skills for My Life Arti Chopra, 2019-07-12 No education is complete without skills. Respecting differences among children, which is a concern of equity in education, is as important as equality in terms of opportunities. Engaging and motivating the minds of students in a bid to accommodate their diverse learning styles, the book provides ample scope for the development of personality, inculcating leadership, and the capacity for independent moral decision. It is the first of its kind, an attempt to make a difference to the lives of students. A trailblazer for the educationists who wish to enhance the performance of students by better understanding their multiple intelligences, a savior for the parents whose children find it difficult to learn the conventional way yet must learn to become a part of the society. Be engaged, enthused, and empowered by this endeavor.      The Economics of Alfred Marshall Richard Arena, 2016-01-18 The Economics of Alfred Marshall brings together a number of leading international scholars for a timely reappraisal of Marshall's contribution to the development of economics. The aims of the contributors are firstly to revisit the work of Alfred Marshall and to investigate the unity of his projects, which contemporary authors often tend to underestimate, and secondly to show how Marshall's approach is not only a subject for historians of economic thought but may also provide a message that is relevant for the progress of economics.      Asian Review, 1901 Beginning in 1895 includes the Proceedings of the East India Association.      Catalogue of the Public Library, 1892, 1892      Catalogue of the Public Library, Winchester, Mass. 1892

The Architecture of the Bight of Biafra Joseph Godlewski,2024-03-06 The Architecture of the Bight of Biafra challenges linear assumptions about agency progress and domination in colonial and postcolonial cities adding an important sub Saharan case study to existing scholarship on globalization and modernity Intersected by small creeks rivulets and dotted with mangrove swamps the Bight of Biafra has a long history of decentralized political arrangements and intricate trading networks predating the emergence of the Atlantic world While indigenous merchants in the region were active participants in the transatlantic slave trading system they creatively resisted European settlement and maintained indigenous sovereignty until the middle of the nineteenth century Since few built artifacts still exist this study draws from a close reading of written sources travelers accounts slave traders diaries missionary memoirs colonial records and oral histories as well as contemporary fieldwork to trace transformations in the region s built environment from the sixteenth century to today With each chapter focusing on a particular spatial paradigm in this dynamic process this book uncovers the manifold and inventive ways in which actors strategically adapted the built environment to adjust to changing cultural and economic circumstances In parallel it highlights the ways that these spaces were rhetorically constructed and exploited by foreign observers and local agents Enmeshed in the history of slavery colonialism and the modern construction of race the spatial dynamics of the Biafran region have not been geographically delimited The central thesis of this volume is that these spaces of entanglement have been productive sites of Black identity formation involving competing and overlapping interests occupying multiple positions and temporalities and ensnaring real imagined and sometimes contradictory aims This book will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural history urban geography African studies and Atlantic studies

What Makes My Heart Sing Joseph Lum, 2018-11-01 Based on the real life experiences of Joseph this book is a heartwarming collection of stories showing how he sees each situation positively and as an opportunity to do something good Narrating in a personal and simple way though wide ranging as the scope may seem to be the book offers down to earth examples of cherishing life and living to the fullest come what may Spicing up with humor here and there the stories are shared in good faith seeking to provide a delightful read for young and old alike
