O'Gorman, 2012-02-08 Gervase Wheeler was an English born architect who designed such important American works as the Henry Boody House in Brunswick Maine the Patrick Barry House in Rochester New York and the chapels at Bowdoin and Williams colleges But he was perhaps best known as the author of two influential architecture books Rural Homes 1851 and Homes for the People 1855 Yet Wheeler has remained a little known enigmatic figure Renée Tribert and James F O'Gorman's study sheds new light on the course of Wheeler's career in the states and brings crucial issues to the fore the international movement of ideas the development of the American architectural profession the influence of architectural publications on popular taste and social history as expressed in the changing nature of the American house Wheeler's career is traced chronologically and geographically and the book is lavishly illustrated with over fifty images including building plans and historical photographs Reflecting on the 1960s at 50 Alexander Riley, 2020-11-16 Reflecting on the 1960s at 50 A Concise Account of How the 1960s Changed America for Better and for Worse is a punchy conversational look at some of the most interesting pieces of cultural and social conflict from the 60s reflected through the lens of our own vantage point today This approachable informative volume uses transcripts of public interviews to provide the viewpoints of half a dozen nationally known scholars with long records of writing in scholarly and popular realms They represent a range of disciplinary and political perspectives from the humanities to the social sciences and from the progressive left to the conservative right These scholars offer their thoughts on the place of youth in American society that emerged from the 60s the lingering contributions the counterculture made to American institutions and social life the legacy in contemporary America of the struggles over racial disparities in the 60s the ways in which the revolution of sexual mores and relations of that decade have affected marriage and family today the war in Vietnam and its effects on contemporary views of America's military power and responsibility in the world the evolution of American state power and administration that was energized by Lyndon Johnson's Great Society This book will be of interest to students of American history and the history and politics of the 1960s as well as sociologists It searches for meaning in a period that made major contributions to the shape of America as a country Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians,1993 Includes special issues The Architecture of the British Library at St. Pancras Roger Stonehouse, Gerhard Stromberg,2004-08-02 In a series of interrelated essays this book describes the British Library and the issues surrounding its design construction purpose and place in the architectural canon Examining the experience of the building together with its form these essays explore the ideas and aspirations behind its conception and its construction offering insight into this striking controversial and stimulating building For artists architects and building professionals interested in the current debates concerning architecture and our culture The Architecture of the British Library at St Pancras is a stimulating read

Catalogue of the Library of Williams College, Williamstown, Mass Williams College. Library,1875 Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce,2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author's professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry Architecture from the Outside Elizabeth Grosz,2001-06-22 Essays at the intersection of philosophy and architecture explore how we understand and inhabit space To be outside allows one a fresh perspective on the inside In these essays philosopher Elizabeth Grosz explores the ways in which two disciplines that are fundamentally outside each other architecture and philosophy can meet in a third space to interact free of their internal constraints Outside also refers to those whose voices are not usually heard in architectural discourse but who inhabit its space the destitute the homeless the sick and the dying as well as women and minorities Grosz asks how we can understand space differently in order to structure and inhabit our living arrangements accordingly Two themes run throughout the book temporal flow and sexual specificity Grosz argues that time change and emergence traditionally viewed as outside the concerns of space must become more integral to the processes of design and construction She also argues against architecture's historical indifference to sexual specificity asking what the existence of at least two sexes has to do with how we understand and experience space Drawing on the work of such philosophers as Henri Bergson Roger Caillois Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida Luce Irigaray and Jacques Lacan Grosz raises abstract but nonformalistic questions about space inhabitation and building All of the essays propose philosophical experiments to render space and building more mobile and dynamic scholars review the history of Texas A M campus architecture and provide in depth coverage of Vosper and his legacy Illustrated by the sumptuous photography of Carolyn Brown Architecture That Speaks concludes with observations on recent approaches toward the reuse and rehabilitation of campus heritage architecture and a view to the future as plans evolve for further development of the campus that maintains a respect for both strategic vision and historical heritage Roman Amphora Contents: Reflecting on the Maritime Trade of Foodstuffs in Antiquity (In honour of Miguel Beltrán Lloris) Darío Bernal-Casasola, Michel Bonifay, Alessandra Pecci, Victoria Leitch, 2021-11-04 Presents the results of the RACIIC International Congress Roman Amphora Contents International Interactive Conference C diz 2015 dedicated to the distinguished Spanish amphorologist Miguel Beltrán Lloris This volume aims to reflect on the current state of knowledge about the palaeocontents of Roman amphorae Carlos Jimenez: Buildings Carlos Jimenez, 1996-11 This is the first monograph published in the United States on Carlos Jimenez whose work has been linked to the new wave of Spanish architects as well as to Latin American architects such as Luis Barragan Jimenez s buildings are known for their purity of form use of bold color and sophisticated ordering of spaces His simple geometries allow light to define and animate his otherwise tranquil interiors This monograph presents eight of the architect s most stunning projects including the headquarters for the Houston Fine Arts Press the new Spencer Studio Art Building at Williams College in Massachusetts the Central Administration Building of the Museum of Fine Arts Houston and Jimenez s own house and studio complex Richly illustrated throughout with photographs plans and drawings the book includes an introduction by Rafael Moneo an essay by historian Stephen Fox and a postscript by Lars Lerup as well as complete project documentation Great Thoughts from Master Minds , 1909 Proceedings of the ACSA Annual Meeting Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, 1999 Architecture, Art and Identity in Venice and its Territories, 1450-1750 Dr Nebahat Avcioglu, 2013-12-23 Inspired by Deborah Howard s leading role in fostering a historically grounded and interdisciplinary approach to the art and architecture of Venice the essays here examine the connections and rapports between art and identity through the discussion of patronage space domestic and ecclesiastical and dissemination of architectural knowledge as well as models within Venice its territories and beyond When Architecture Meets Activism Roger Guy, 2016-11-22 This social history and community study documents the events surrounding the attempt by community members activists and VISTA architects to resist the planned construction of a community college in the neighborhood of Uptown The planner and architect are seldom envisioned as advocates for the urban poor However during the 1960s New Left planners and architects began working with marginalized groups in cities to design alternatives to urban renewal projects This was part of a national advocacy planning movement that was taking shape in urban areas like Chicago Inspired by critics of the Rational comprehensive model of planning advocacy planners opposed the imposition of projects on neighborhoods often with no collaboration from residents One example of this resistance was Hank Williams Village a multi purpose housing and commercial redevelopment project modeled after a southern town The Village was an attempt to prevent the displacement of thousands of southern whites by the planned construction of a community college in Chicago's Uptown neighborhood. While the plan for the Village failed to win support of the local urban renewal board, the work performed by the young VISTA architects became instrumental in their subsequent career trajectories and thus served as formative personal and professional experience.
