Ford's The Modern Theologians Rachel Muers, Ashley Cocksworth, 2024-02-21 Captures the multiple voices of Christian theology in a diverse and interconnected world through in depth studies of representative figures and overviews of key movements Providing an unparalleled overview of the subject The Modern Theologians provides an indispensable guide to the diverse approaches and perspectives within Christian theology from the early twentieth century to the present Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and explores the development and trajectory of modern theology while presenting critical accounts of a broad range of relevant topics and representative thinkers The fourth edition of The Modern Theologians is fully updated to provide readers with a clear picture of the broad spectrum and core concerns of modern Christian theology worldwide It offers new perspectives on key twentieth century figures and movements from different geographical and ecclesial contexts There are expanded sections on theological dialogue with non Christian traditions and on Christian theology's engagement with the arts and sciences A new section explores theological responses to urgent global challenges such as nationalism racism and the environmental crisis Providing the next generation of theologians with the tools needed to take theological conversations forward The Modern Theologians Explores Christian theology's engagement with multiple ways of knowing across diverse approaches and traditions Combines introductions to key modern theologians and coverage of the major movements within contemporary theology Identifies common dynamics found across theologies to enable cross contextual comparisons Positions individual theologians in geographical regions trans local movements and ecclesial contexts Features new and revised chapters written by experts in particular movements topics and individuals Providing in depth critical evaluation and extensive references to further readings and research Ford s The Modern Theologians An Introduction to Christian Theology since 1918 Fourth Edition remains an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in Theology and Religious Studies such as Introduction to Christian Theology Systematic Theology Modern Theology and Modern Theologians It is also an invaluable resource for researchers those involved in various forms of Christian ministry teachers of religious studies and general readers engaged in independent study Out of Line R.B.J. Walker,2015-08-27 A collection of essays on the politics of boundaries this book addresses a broad range of cases some geographical some legal and some involving less tangible practices of inclusion and exclusion The book begins by exploring the boundary between modern Western forms of international relations and their constitutive outsides Beyond this the author engages with relations between subjectivity and security security and nature social movements and a world politics as well as the politics of spatiotemporal dislocation Two chapters address the work of Thomas Hobbes and Max Weber as exemplary accounts of the relationship between boundaries and the constitution of modern forms of politics Each chapter speaks not only to the politics of specific boundary practices but also to the limits within which modern politics has been shaped in relation to claims about spatiality temporality sovereignty and subjectivity In this way the book draws attention to a pervasive account of a scalar order of higher and lower that has shaped more familiar distinctions between internality and externality Offering an analysis of the relation between concepts of internationalism imperialism and exceptionalism as well as the implications of spatiotemporal dislocation for claims about democracy the book links contemporary claims about the transformation of boundaries to various ways in which political life is said to be in crisis and in need of novel forms of critique Brought up to date by a new and extensive introductory essay and an assessment of the status of political judgement after 9 11 this book is essential reading for students and scholars of politics international relations political theory and political sociology Gaia, Psyche and Deep Ecology Andrew Fellows,2019-03-04 Winner of the Scientific Medical Network Book Prize 2019 In Gaia Psyche and Deep Ecology Navigating Climate Change in the Anthropocene Andrew Fellows uniquely connects Earth systems Jungian and philosophical approaches to the existential threats that we face today He elucidates the psychological basis of our dysfunctional relationship with nature thereby offering a coherent framework for transforming this in our personal and professional lives Demonstrating the imperative for new ideas that transcend the status quo Fellows tackles unprecedented 21st century challenges such as climate change through his interdisciplinary approach Fellows proposes a worldview informed by depth psychology which radically contradicts the prevailing shibboleths of unlimited economic growth dominion over outer nature and negation of our inner nature To accommodate a broad readership he first introduces the Anthropocene and sufficient basics of systems dynamics Gaia theory and analytical psychology before exploring the mind matter conundrum He then correlates the structure dynamics contents and pathology of Gaia and of psyche critiques the Western Zeitgeist as midlife crisis and establishes parallels between deep ecology and psychological individuation This ground breaking synthesis of Gaia theory analytical psychology and deep ecology reveals synergies which show how we can and why we must relinquish anthropocentrism in order to survive sustainably as equals in and with the natural world Combining Jungian theory with other cutting edge disciplines to inform inspire and heal this book is essential reading not only for Jungian analysts students and scholars but for all including professionals in Earth systems science environmental philosophy and ecopsychology who realise that business as usual is no longer an option      Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals Federica Bueti,2022-12-07 Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals renders a vivid portrait of the intergenerational and intersectional dialogue between influential feminist writers on how to say no to the conditions of oppression exclusion and exploitation imposed by patriarchal and systemically racist capitalist societies The book provides today s readers and writers access to the powerful inventory of concepts and techniques that two generations of feminists have assembled for refusing domination and constituting fugitive forms of sociability and writing Drawing on examples from feminist thinkers Audre Lorde Carla Lonzi Hélène Cixous Hortense Spillers Alexis Pauline Gumbs Anne Boyer and Simone White the book focuses on how the power dynamics of recognition tie the uses of language to the material conditions of discrimination in everyday life      Critical Essays on E.M.
