Landes, 2018-08-06 Popular images of women were everywhere in revolutionary France Although women's political participation was curtailed female allegories of liberty justice and the republic played a crucial role in the passage from old regime to modern society In her lavishly illustrated and gracefully written book Joan B Landes explores this paradox within the workings of revolutionary visual culture and traces the interaction between pictorial and textual political arguments Landes highlights the widespread circulation of images of the female body notwithstanding the political leadership's suspicions of the dangers of feminine influence and the seductions of visual imagery The use of caricatures and allegories contributed to the destruction of the masculinized images of hierarchic absolutism and to forging new roles for men and women in both the intimate and public arenas Landes tells the fascinating story of how the depiction of the nation as a desirable female body worked to eroticize patriotism and to bind male subjects to the nation state Despite their political subordination women too were invited to identify with the project of nationalism Recent views of the French Revolution have emphasized linguistic concerns in contrast Landes stresses the role of visual cognition in fashioning ideas of nationalism and citizenship Her book demonstrates as well that the image is often a site of contestation as individual viewers may respond to it in unexpected even subversive ways Artists and Amateurs Perrin Stein, Charlotte Guichard, Rena Hoisington, Elizabeth

Rudy, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013-10-29 Catalog of an exhibition held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York October 1 2013 January 5 2014 Artists and Amateurs Perrin Stein, Charlotte Guichard, Rena M. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Printing Colour 1400-1700 , 2015-08-24 In Printing Colour 1400 1700 Ad Stijnman and Elizabeth Savage offer the first handbook of early modern colour printmaking before 1700 when most such histories begin creating a new interdisciplinary paradigm for the history of graphic art It unveils a corpus of thousands of individual colour prints from across early modern Europe proposing art historical bibliographical technical and scientific contexts for understanding them and their markets The twenty three contributions represent the state of research in this still emerging field From the first known attempts in the West until the invention of the approach we still use today blue red yellow black key now CMYK it demonstrates that colour prints were not rare outliers but essential components of many early modern book print and visual cultures Arts , 1985 Some issues include the Annual report of the Minneapolis Society of Fine Arts Female Printmakers, Printsellers and Print Publishers in the Eighteenth Century Cristina S. Martinez, Cynthia E. Roman, 2024-03-21 Integrates the vital contributions of women as printmakers printsellers and print publishers into the history of eighteenth century art

Garden at Monceau Carmontelle, 2020-12-08 Carmontelle's landmark publication Garden at Monceau beautifully reproduced to show the Parisian garden's artistic and cultural importance before the French Revolution. Originally published in 1779, Garden at Monceau is a richly illustrated presentation of the garden Louis Carrogis known as Carmontelle designed on the eve of the French Revolution for Louis Philippe Joseph d'Orléans, duc de Chartres. With its array of architectural follies intended to surprise and amaze the visitor, the garden was a setting for ancien régime social life. Carmontelle's portrayal of his work in Garden at Monceau therefore serves as an expression of a key moment in the history of European landscape design, garden architecture, and social history. This facsimile edition, with its English language text and reproductions of the original engravings, is accompanied by essays that interpret the landscape design and examine Carmontelle's larger career as a painter and theater producer.

Ordering Colours in 18th and Early 19th Century Europe Tanja C. Kleinwächter, Sarah Lowengard, Friedrich Steinle, 2023-10-04 This book describes the international effort to give order to colours and thus facilitate communication about it, two topics deemed essential to a modernising world that were also recognizably complex. Expert essays will enhance readers' understanding of the struggle to coordinate nature with art at a time when approaches to both were undergoing rapid change. Ordering Colours shows how such seemingly trivial concerns as identifying the basic colours and disseminating appropriate colour diagrams had to meet philosophical, scientific, and professional needs across Europe. Contributors detail the many schemes for colour systematization and their real world applications, questions of concern to both academic and manufacturing-focused investigators throughout the long 18th century. They bring together original research and new thinking about landmark early modern studies to address important developments as well as neglected historical contributions of European arts, sciences, and economies. This collection is an important addition to the libraries of all who are interested in public culture and manufacturing developments in the early modern period and is aimed at historians of art, technology, philosophy, and physics.

Master Prints, 1475-1825 R.S. Johnson Fine Art, 1989

Prints and Printmaking Antony Griffiths, 1996 Introductory text that touches on the basics of various printmaking techniques and briefly describes the history of each.

Visualizing the Revolution Rolf Reichardt, Hubertus Kohle, 2008 The authors explore the complex, many-faceted visual culture of the French Revolution, which took place in a period characterised by the creation of a new visual language steeped in metaphor, symbol, and allegory.

Disorienting Vision Inge E. Boer, 2004 Boer provides close readings of philosophical and literary texts, paintings, prints, and other artefacts of the French Orientalists' tradition. Her readings establish a dialogue with critical post-colonial and feminist theory as well as art historical and literary scholarship.
