The response of the faculty to the endowment was to institute two programs: a Jazz Studies Program and a program in African American Music. The Jazz Studies Program has become nationally recognized for outstanding achievements in jazz theory, history, and performance. The latter program, designed and developed by Bowie, was challenged.

'There Ain't No Black in the Union Jack' Paul Gilroy, 1991-12 Gilroy demonstrates the enormous complexity of racial politics in England today. Exploring the relationships among race, class, and nation as they have evolved over the past twenty years, he highlights racist attitudes that transcend the left-right political divide. He challenges current sociological approaches to racism, as well as the ethnocentric bias of British cultural studies. Gilroy demonstrates effectively that cultural traditions are not static but develop, grow, and indeed mutate as they influence and are influenced by the other changing traditions around them David Edgar Listener Review of Books A fascinating analysis of the discourses that have accompanied black settlement in Britain An important addition to the stock of critical works on race and culture David Okuefuna Chicago Tribune
