identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa United Nations, Volumes I and II Sam Daws, Paul Taylor, 2020-10-11 The International Library of Politics and Comparative Government is an essential reference series which compiles the most significant journal articles in comparative politics over the past 30 years It makes readily accessible to teachers researchers and students an extensive range of essays which together provide an indispensable basis for understanding both the established conceptual terrain and the new ground being broken in the rapidly changing field of comparative political analysis These two volumes include articles which examine the system the structure the function and the future of the United Nations The United Nations and the Pacific Islands Graham Hassall, 2023-09-18 This book critically examines the relationship between the United Nations Organization and the small states of the Pacific islands It provides an in depth coverage of the United Nations coupled with how Pacific Small Island Developing States interact It covers three themes the first one being the position of the UN on the Pacific Islands which examines the role of the many UN organs agencies and programs in strengthening individual countries and the region as a whole It examines the manner in which the UN s activities have benefited Pacific nations territories and peoples The second theme deals with the Pacific states in the UN and examines the participation of Pacific nations and territories in the UN s various organs agencies and programmes It analyses the contribution they have made to the effectiveness of the organization as distinct from the benefits they have sought to gain from it The third and last theme deals with small states in global public policy taking a broader look at how small states are faring within the UN system in the age of global discourse on shared public goods public policy concerns African Regional Organizations Domenico Mazzeo, 1984 Essays examine security political financial and economic organizations in Africa and discuss the problems and prospects of each group Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed, 2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism

The United Nations Human Rights Council Rosa Freedman, 2013 The United Nations Human Rights Council was created in 2006 to replace the UN Commission on Human Rights The Council's mandate and founding principles demonstrate that one of the main aims at its creation was for the Council to overcome the Commission's flaws Despite the need to avoid repeating its predecessor's failings the Council's form nature and many of its roles and functions are strikingly similar to those of the Commission This book examines the creation and formative years of the United Nations Human Rights Council and assesses the extent to which the Council has fulfilled its mandate International law and theories of international relations are used to examine the Council and its functions Council sessions procedures and mechanisms are analysed in depth with particular consideration given to whether the Council has become politicised to the same extent as the Commission Whilst remaining aware of the key differences in their functions Rosa Freedman compares the work of the Council to that of treaty based human rights bodies The author draws on observations from her attendance at Council proceedings in order to offer a unique account of how the body works in practice The United Nations Human Rights Council will be of great interest to students and scholars of human rights law and international relations as well as lawyers NGOs and relevant government agencies

Comparative Environmental Regionalism Lorraine Elliott, Shaun Breslin, 2011-04-05 This volume focuses on environmental governance as a key issue of analysis to provide an important new conceptualisation of region and regional power

Preferred Futures for the United Nations Saul Mendlovitz, Burns Weston, 2023-09-20 The authors here discern a humane impulse rising against the prevailing tendencies of market driven opportunism an impulse rapidly becoming manifest in international law With focus on the United Nations and the norms processes and institutions with which it responds to militarism and war poverty and maldevelopment ecological imbalance social justice and alienation they suggest workable initiatives and procedures through which relevant United Nations agencies might be reformed and or transformed to effectively meet the new challenges of the next century
