Edwards, 1989 Financial Market Regulatory Reform United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Telecommunications and Finance, 1989 Financial Market Regulatory Reform United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Telecommunications and Finance, 1989 Regulatory Reform of Securities and Futures Markets Franklin R. Edwards, 1989 Industry Perspectives on the Obama Administration's Financial Regulatory Reform Proposals United States. Congress. House. Committee on Financial Services, 2009 Restructuring the American Financial System George G. Kaufman, 2012-12-06 In light of the periodic malfunctions in important sectors of the financial services industry in recent years such as commercial banking thrift institutions and the securities market numerous proposals have been developed for restructuring the financial system to improve both its safety and efficiency Among the groups analyzing the performance of the financial system and recommending changes where necessary has been the Shadow Financial Regulatory Committee This Committee which is described in greater detail in Chapter 1 consists of 12 independent banking experts from the academic and practitioner worlds that meet quarterly to analyze current developments in the financial services industry and to make recommendations for improvements that would be in the public interest The purpose of the Committee its members and a listing of policy statements are included in the Appendix All but one of the chapters in this volume represent essays by individual members of the Committee on issues discussed by the Committee at recent meetings and that for the most part resulted in policy statements They basically discuss the reasons for the policy statement adopted and place the issue in perspective Where appropriate the relevant section of the respective policy statement is presented at the beginning of each chapter Each essay however reflects only the views of the individual author and not necessarily those of other members of the Committee or of the Committee as a whole Financial Market Volatility and the Implications for Market Regulation Louis O. Scott, 1990-11-01 Volatility in financial markets has forced economists to reexamine the validity of the efficient markets hypothesis and new empirical approaches have been applied to the study of this important issue in recent years Many of the recent studies have found evidence of excessive volatility In the aftermath of the stock market crash of 1987 and the perceived increase in market volatility some economists have advocated additional market regulations Are these proposed regulations necessary and would they serve to reduce market volatility This paper presents a review of recent studies on financial market volatility and examines the proposed regulations Microstructure of World Trading Markets Hans R. Stoll, 2012-12-06 This volume addresses various aspects of the microstructure of world trading markets and provides scientific evidence on the functioning of specific foreign markets The study of market microstructure has previously focused on the U S markets but with the rapid expansion in foreign markets there is a real need to understand the nature and functioning of foreign trading markets International Competitiveness in Financial Services Marvin H. Koster, A.H. Meltzer, 2012-12-06 financial markets suggests that factors such as differences in capital requirements limitations on size or on the range of financial activities in which firms can engage government guarantee arrangements for deposits or payments and reporting or disclosure requirements can have important effects on the efficiency of industrial and commercial firms and thus on the international competitive positions of major sectors of the U S economy Regulatory and tax policies must therefore take into account effects on international competitive positions in addition to domestic concerns The articles in this issue analyze differences in market organization and regulation across countries and examine how efficiency in producing financial services is influenced by these differences These articles were presented and discussed at a conference sponsored by the American Enterprise Institute in Washington D C on May 31 and June 1 1990 This conference on International Competitiveness in Financial Services brought to the attention of Washington policy officials these analyses by leading scholars in finance Publication of these studies and critiques in the Journal of Financial Services Research is intended to stimulate further interest in research on these important issues

The Evolution of Disclosure Regulation by the Securities and Exchange Commission David S. Ruder, 1988 Enhancing Investor Protection and the Regulation of Securities Markets United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, 2009 Financial Market Regulation and Reforms in Emerging Markets Masahiro Kawai, Eswar S. Prasad, 2011-05-01 The rapid spread and far reaching impact of the global financial crisis have highlighted the need for strengthening financial systems in advanced economies and emerging markets Emerging markets face particular challenges in developing their nascent financial systems and making them resilient to domestic and external shocks Financial reforms are critical to these economies as they pursue programs of high and sustainable growth In this timely volume Masahiro Kawai Eswar Prasad and their contributors offer a systematic overview of recent developments in and the latest thinking about regulatory frameworks in both advanced countries and emerging markets Their analyses and observations clearly point out the challenges to improving regulation efficiency of markets and access to the financial system Policymakers and financial managers in emerging markets are struggling to learn from the crisis and will need to grapple with some key questions as they restructure and reform their financial markets What lessons does the global financial crisis of 2007-09 offer for the establishment of efficient and flexible regulatory structures How can policymakers develop broader financial markets while managing the associated risks How or should they make the formal financial system more accessible to more people How might they best contend with multinational financial institutions This book is an important step in getting a better grasp of these issues and making progress toward solutions that strike a balance between promoting financial market development and efficiency on the one hand and ensuring financial stability on the other Securities Markets and Systemic Risks in Dynamic Asian Economies S. Ghon Rhee, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 1992 Congressional Record United States.

Congress,2000 Asian Perspectives on Financial Sector Reforms and Regulation Masahiro Kawai,Eswar S. Prasad,2011-10-10 A Brookings Institution Press and Asian Development Bank Institute Although emerging economies as a group performed well during the global recession weathering the recession better than advanced economies there were sharp differences among them and across regions The emerging economies of Asia had the most favorable outcomes surviving the ravages of the global financial crisis with relatively modest declines in growth rates in most cases China and India maintained strong growth during the crisis and played an important role in facilitating global economic recovery In this informative volume the second in a series on emerging markets editors Masahiro Kawai and Eswar Prasad and the contributors analyze the major domestic macroeconomic and financial policy issues that could limit the growth potential of Asian emerging markets such as rising inflation and surging capital inflows with the accompanying risks of asset and credit market bubbles and of rapid currency appreciation The book examines strategies to promote financial stability including reforms for financial market development and macroprudential supervision and regulation "Black Monday," the stock market crash of October 19, 1987 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs,1988 The Banking Jurisdiction Within the United States/Canada Free Trade Agreement United States. Congress. Senate.
