Martin Bormann Volker Koop, 2020-08-27 A biography of the man who served as head of the Nazi Party Chancellery Hitler s personal secretary and the monster who decided the fate of millions Born on June 17 1900 Martin Ludwig Bormann became one of the most powerful and most feared men in the Third Reich. An obsessive bureaucrat it was Bormann who helped steer Hitler's apparatus of terror so effectively that he became the clandestine ruler of Nazi Germany. After joining the Nazi Party in 1927, Bormann rose through its ranks. Indeed, by July 1933, Bormann had maneuvered himself into the position where he became the Chief of Cabinet in the Office of the Deputy Führer, Rudolf Hess. In this role, Bormann gradually consolidated his power base so that when Hess carried out his infamous flight to the United Kingdom in 1941, Bormann stepped into his shoes. As the head of the Party Chancellery, Bormann took control of the Nazi Party. By the end of 1942, he was Hitler's deputy and his closest collaborator. With the Führer increasingly preoccupied with military matters, Hitler came to rely more and more on Bormann to handle Germany's domestic affairs. On 12 April 1943, Bormann was appointed Personal Secretary to the Führer. Feared by ministers, Gauleiters, civil servants, judges, and generals alike, Bormann identified strongly with Hitler's ideas on racial politics, destruction of the Jews, and forced labor, and made himself indispensable as the Führer's executioner. Cold as ice, he decided the fate of millions of people. In January 1945, with the Third Reich collapsing, Bormann returned to the Führerbunker with Hitler. Following Hitler's suicide on 30 April, Bormann was named as Party Minister, thus officially confirming his rise to the top of the Party. Late the following day, he fled from the bunker to escape the encircling Red Army, his fate remaining a mystery for many years. In October 1946, he was found guilty in absentia by the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg and sentenced to death. Drawing heavily on recently declassified documents and files, the historian and journalist Volker Koop reveals the full story of the most faithful member of Hitler's inner circle, an individual who, whilst little known to the German people, became the second most powerful man in the Third Reich. Praise for Martin Bormann: Hitler's Executioner. An unbelievable monster, but people still need to know about him and what he did here, fulfilled by Volker Koop, who simply doesn't hold back. Legislating The Holocaust Karl Schleunes, 2018-02-23

From April 1933 to early 1943, Bernhard Loesener served as the official Jewish Expert in the German Third Reich's Ministry of the Interior, the government body responsible for the Nazi's legislative assault on German Jewry. In that role, he personally drafted much of the legislation, the Nuremberg Laws of 1935, preeminently that gradually dispossessed, disenfranchised, and dehumanized the Jews of Nazi Germany. During the first six years of Nazi rule, the seminal period of government-sponsored anti-Semitism, Loesener kept the minutes of many crucial high-level inter-ministerial conferences concerned with the Jewish Question. As observer and participant, his experiences were virtually unparalleled. In 1950, Loesener penned a memoir that sought to explain and justify his actions during the ten-year escalation of Nazi oppression that resulted in the Holocaust. Loesener's professed horror in the Final Solution. It was published in 1961 in German by the journal Vierteljahrshefte fuer Zeitgeschichte. It has never before appeared in English until now in Legislating the Holocaust: Germany and the Second World War, 1990. Volume VII of the Germany and the Second World War series looks at Germany and her Japanese ally on the defensive after the tide of war turned in 1943. An exhaustive study of the air war over the Reich and the Luftwaffe's growing impotence.

is followed by an account of the invasion of occupied France and the Allies advance to Germany's borders. A final section examines Japan's defeat and capitulation and the creation of a new order in the Far East. Everything what you wanted to know about the crisis but you were afraid of asking, The Last Days of Hitler Hugh Trevor-Roper, 1992-10-15. Late in 1945 Trevor Roper was appointed by British Intelligence in Germany to investigate conflicting evidence surrounding Hitler's final days and to produce a definitive report on his death. The author, who had access to American counterintelligence files and to German prisoners, focuses on the last ten days of Hitler's life. April 20-29, 1945, in the underground bunker in Berlin: a bizarre and gripping episode punctuated by power play and competition among Hitler's potential successors. From exhaustive research, Trevor Roper has put together a carefully documented, irrefutable and unforgettable reconstruction of the last days in April 1945. New Republic: A book sound in its scholarship, brilliant in its presentation, a delight for historians and laymen alike.
