Reine Morte:

, French Writers and the Politics of Complicity Richard J. Golsan, 2006-02 Focusing on the political commitments of three French writers who collaborated with the Vichy Regime and Nazi Germany during World War II and on those of three leading French intellectuals of the 1990s whose misplaced political idealism led them to support xenophobic authoritarian regimes and dangerous historical revisionisms Richard J Golsan reexamines the notion of political commitment or engagement in two difficult periods in modern French history Discussing the fiction essays and journalism of Henry de Montherlant Jean Giono and Alphonse de Chateaubriant Golsan explores the complexity of artistic and intellectual collaboration during the German Occupation He demonstrates that in this context complicity with political evil often derived from nonpolitical motives including sexual orientation antimodern aesthetics and dangerously skewed religious beliefs Turning to the post cold war era of the 1990s Golsan examines the philosopher Alain Finkielkraut's support for Croatian independence the mediologist Régis Debray's pro Serb stance during the bombing of Kosovo and the historian Stéphane Courtois's revisionist comparison of Nazi and Communist crimes during the 1997 debate surrounding the publication of The Black Book of Communism In these three cases laudable motives and misguided historical comparisons with Vichy Nazism and the Occupation period that marked the political and intellectual discourses of France in the 1990s resulted paradoxically in antidemocratic engagements profoundly at odds with the original motivations behind these intellectuals commitments In each of these case studies political complicity derives from a combination of passions and ideals whether positive or negative emotional or intellectual as well as a desire to make the present conform to a particular and generally skewed vision of the past The full implications of these involvements are neither fully grasped nor understood by their authors either through lack of objectivity rationality or imagination or through willful ignorance The results are always unfortunate and often disastrous Considered together these six intellectuals serve as sobering reminders that political commitments are never as simple or straightforward as they seem and that admirable motives for political involvement can have dangerous and destructive consequences in historical practice Antigüedad Y Actualidad de Luis Vélez de Guevara C. the most comprehensive book of French music in any language The great accompanist Graham Johnson a noted authority of song provides repertoire guides to the work of some 150 composers the majority of them from France but including British American German Spanish and Italian musicians who have written French vocal music There are major articles on such figures as Faur Duparc Debussy Ravel and Poulenc substantial articles on Bizet Chabrier Gounod Chausson Hahn and Satie and reassessments of such composers as Massenet Koechlin and Leguerney A host of less celebrated figures who have contributed to the genre take their place in a book which is both informative and entertaining The biographical articles are supplemented by the song translations of Richard Stokes some 700 in all and a veritable treasury of great French poetry from the fifteenth to the twentieth centuries These stand in their own right as indispensable to music lovers concert goers and professional singers and their accompanists This is a book which not only reflects the repertoire as found in today's concert halls but also encourages performers and armchair enthusiasts to explore the neglected highways and byways of an endlessly fascinating and highly civilised body of music
