Re-interpreting Curriculum Research Geoffrey Milburn, Ivor Goodson, 1989 Studying Teachers' Lives I

Goodson, 2013-02-01 To develop a mode of educational research which speaks both of and to the teacher we require more study of the lives of teachers This book provides a vital insight into the ways in which teachers backgrounds and career histories affect their teaching methods and approaches Many issues are covered ranging from the question of teacher drop out to the importance of teacher socialisation The studies employ a range of different methodologies allowing the reader to assess their varying strengths and weaknesses but throughout they reaffirm the centrality of the teacher in educational research Removing the Margins George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2000 Removing the Margins works to identify and challenge many of the cultural and systematic paradigms that perpetuate racism and other forms of oppression in mainstream schooling The authors pursue the ideal that education should not simply affirm the status quo but should produce knowledge for social action This philosophical and theoretical resource also moves beyond the study of educational failure to explore the new and creative ways schooling barriers have been confronted The focus is placed on the factors of representation family and community staff equity language integration and spirituality as fundamental to school reform Removing the Margins is the product of five years of research and writing in the search for best practices in inclusive education The authors address the philosophical and theoretical bases for inclusivity in this book while laying out the practical approach in the accompanying volume Inclusive Schooling A Teacher s Guide to Removing the Margins Understanding Children's Development Anne B. Smith, Keith Ballard, 1998 This fully revised and updated edition of a fundamental New Zealand psychology text examines how and why children develop and how they are influenced by the people and events in their lives Discussed are theories of development and learning the importance of early experience intelligence and assessment and the family The development of social behavior gender roles language and thinking are also covered The question of mainstreaming the integration of children with special educational needs into regular preschools and classrooms is also debated There is a strong emphasis on local conditions and the New Zealand historical and social context This new edition addresses the important issue of giving children themselves a voice in order to better understand their development and to involve them in decisions about their lives
