Since the 1960s overseas migration had become a major factor in the economy of the Philippines It has also profoundly influenced the sense of nationhood of both migrants and nonmigrants Migrant workers learned to view their home country as part of a plural world of nations and they shaped a new sort of Filipino identity while appropriating the modernity of the outside world where at least for a while they operated as insiders The global nomadism of Filipino workers brought about some fundamental reorientations It revolutionized Philippine society reignited a sense of nationhood imposed new demands on the state reconfigured the class structure and transnationalized class and other social relations even as it deterritorialized the state and impacted the destinations of migrant workers Philippine foreign policy now takes surprising turns in consideration of migrant workers and Filipinos living abroad Many tertiary education institutions aim deliberately at the overseas employability of local graduates And the Fil foreign offspring of unions with partners from other nationalities add a new inflection to Filipino identity Mission and Context Jione Havea,2020-06-30 Mission is contrived from and performed over lived contexts but the visions that guide and drive mission are oftentimes blinded by power position protection and plenitude This collection visits those matters with queering attention to the shadows that empires cast over the contexts of mission and to the collusion and complicity of Christians and churches with empires past as in the case of Rome and present as in the case of the United States of America In the interests of those in mission fields who survived but continue to agonize under the burdens of empires the contributors to this work dare to re vision the course and cause of mission Writing from minoritized settings in Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania the authors interweave the principles and practices of mission with the opportunities in decolonial theology and hermeneutics minoritized and migrant Christologies repatriation and the courage to get up and get out indigenous insights and wisdom mission archives stories of resistance and endurance in zones of contact and violence restless souls and returning spirits and life centered spiritual en countering In Mission and Context as with previous volumes in this series empires do not have the final word nor are they the final world
