Venus in the Afternoon Tehila Lieberman, 2012 Winner of the Katherine Anne Porter Prize in Short Fiction 2012 The short stories in this rich debut collection embody in their complexity Alice Munro's description of the short story as a world seen in a quick glancing light In chiseled and elegant prose Lieberman conjures wildly disparate worlds A middle aged window washer mourning his wife and an estranged daughter begins to grow attached to a young woman he sees through the glass a writer against his better judgment pursues a new relationship with a femme fatale who years ago broke his heart and the daughter of a Holocaust survivor struggles with the delicate decision of whether to finally ask her aging mother how it was that she survived It is all here the exigencies of love of lust the raw unlit terrain of grief Whether plumbing the darker depths or casting a humorous eye on a doomed relationship these stories never force a choice between tragedy and redemption but rather invite us into the private moments and crucibles of lives as hungry and flawed as our own Reinventing Olivia

Nancy Robards Thompson, 2004-09 In the tradition of Helen Fielding and Cathy Yardley RWA Golden Heart Award winner Nancy Robards Thompson makes her Five Star debut with this humorous wry and sometimes poignant journey of self discovery Olivia Logan has always played it safe and quiet but when her fianci calls from France to tell her he's married another woman he provides a catalyst for her to reinvent herself Knowing that her dreams are hand me downs from her mother and surrounded by well meaning friends honorable and not so honorable men and a job that's falling apart Olivia begins to recognize that living a little isn't nearly as important as living a lot Nancy Robards Thompson earned a degree in journalism only to realize reporting just the facts bored her silly Much more content to report to her muse Nancy has found nirvana doing what she loves most writing romantic fiction This two time nominee for the Romance Writers of America's Golden Heart struck gold in July 2002 when she won the coveted award Nancy lives in Florida and dreams of living the life of a bohemian writer in Paris with her husband daughter and their three cats Reinventing Olivia is her first published novel

Gibbs,2009-03-31 What if in the not too distant future the world s wealthiest and most powerful man learned that civilization was virtually certain to collapse within the next 20 years And what if that man built a great new city called Olympus as part of a mighty effort to change the course of history Yet what if the best efforts by the people of Olympus proved futile in the end What if civilization indeed fell leaving only the remnants of Olympus s own society to carry the flickering torch of a once proud civilization What then Beyond Olympus imagines the answers to those questions in a cautionary tale that is thoughtful exciting and epic in scale It is a story that might have seemed farfetched just a few years ago yet perhaps might seem uncomfortably plausible today Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten,Annika Bauer,2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition
