Reinventing The Newspaper Essays Perspectives On The News 3:

Reinventing Professionalism Silvio Waisbord, 2013-08-26 Current anxiety about the future of news makes it opportune to revisit the notion of professionalism in journalism Media expert Silvio Waisbord takes this pressing issue as his theme and argues that professional journalism is both a normative and analytical notion It refers to reporting that observes certain ethical standards as well as to collective efforts by journalists to exercise control over the news Professionalism should not be narrowly associated with the normative ideal as it historically developed in the West during the past century Instead it needs to be approached as a valuable concept to throw into sharp relief how journalists define conditions and rules of work within certain settings Professionalization is about the specialization of labor and control of occupational practice These issues are important particularly amidst the combination of political technological and economic trends that have profoundly unsettled the foundations of modern journalism By doing so they have stimulated the reinvention of professionalism This engaging and insightful book critically examines the meanings expectations and critiques of professional journalism in a global context

Japanese Documentary Film Markus Nornes, 2003 Among Asian countries where until recently documentary filmmaking was largely the domain of central governments Japan was exceptional for the vigor of its nonfiction film industry And yet for all its aesthetic historical and political interest the Japanese documentary remains little known and largely unstudied outside of Japan This is the first English language study of the subject an enlightening close look at the first fifty years of documentary film theory and practice in Japan Beginning with films made by foreigners in the nineteenth century and concluding with the first two films made after Japan's surrender in 1945 Abe Mark Nornes moves from a prehistory of the documentary through innovations of the proletarian film movement to the hardening of style and conventions that started with the Manchurian Incident films and continued through the Pacific War Nornes draws on a wide variety of archival sources including Japanese studio records secret police reports government memos letters military tribunal testimonies and more to chart shifts in documentary style against developments in the history of modern Japan The Best Books for Academic Libraries, 2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers

Blaming the Victim Jairo Lugo-Ocando, 2014-12-20 Poverty it seems is a constant in today's news usually the result of famine exclusion or conflict In Blaming the Victim Jairo Lugo-Ocando sets out to deconstruct and reconsider the variety of ways in which the global news media misrepresent and decontextualise the causes and consequences of poverty worldwide The result is that the fundamental determinant of poverty inequality is removed from their accounts The book asks many biting questions When and how does poverty become newsworthy How does ideology come into play when determining the ways in which poverty is constructed in newsrooms and how do the resulting narratives frame the issue And why do so many journalists and news editors tend to obscure the structural causes of poverty In analysing the processes of news production and presentation around the world Lugo-Ocando reveals that the news makers' agendas are often as problematic as the geopolitics they seek to represent This groundbreaking study reframes the ways in which we can think and write about the enduring global injustice of poverty Remaking the News Pablo J. Boczkowski, C. W. Anderson, 2024-05-21 Leading scholars chart the future of studies on technology and journalism in the digital age The use of digital technology has transformed the way news is produced distributed and received Just as media organizations and journalists have realized that technology is a central and indispensable part of their enterprise scholars of journalism have shifted their focus to the role of technology In Remaking the News leading scholars chart the future of studies on technology and journalism in the digital age These ongoing changes in journalism invite scholars to rethink how they approach this dynamic field of inquiry The contributors consider theoretical and methodological issues concepts from the social science canon that can help make sense of journalism the occupational culture and practice of journalism and major gaps in current scholarship on the news analyses of inequality history and failure Contributors Mike Ananny C W Anderson Rodney Benson Pablo J Boczkowski Michael X Delli Carpini Mark Deuze William H Dutton Matthew Hindman Seth C Lewis Eugenia Mitchelstein W Russell Neuman Rasmus Kleis Nielsen Zizi Papacharissi Victor Pickard Mirjam Prenger Sue Robinson Michael Schudson Jane B Singer Natalie Talia Jomini Stroud Karin Wahl Jorgensen Rodrigo Zamith
