Related Worlds - Studies in Jewish and Arab Ancient and Early Medieval History Moshe Gil, 2023-07-28 An element common to all the articles collected here is the attempt to make parallel use of sources from different cultures Biblical and Talmudic Hebrew Greek and Latin Arabic and Judaeo Arabic comparing these different but complementary sources in the investigation of topics in Jewish and Arabic history In the first studies Professor Gil deals primarily with the Roman and Byzantine periods elucidating how a Biblical term was understood the historical significance of passages from the Mishna and the origins of the Book of Enoch The next group is concerned with the history of early Islam during the years in which the Prophet Muhammad lived and worked and later traditions of this period The final studies are based specifically on sources from the Cairo Geniza and examine a term of Greek origin and questions of taxation and commerce Philosophy, Theology and Mysticism in Medieval Islam Richard M. Frank, 2020-08-26 The first volume of the collected major articles of Richard M Frank pioneering student of Islamic theology kalam contains fifteen essays It includes his early studies classic but inaccessible for many in their original publication on the text and terminology of Graeco Arabic translations De anima Themistius on the Metaphysics Plotinus in Syriac anniya and the terminology of early kalam Other articles deal with Islamic theology and its early development especially in its relation to philosophy in particular the kalam of Jahm ibn Safwan and al Ghazali and the text and translation of two short dogmatic works by the mystic al Qushayri The collection is prefaced by a fascinating autobiographical memoir which traces the intellectual development of the author and the reasoning that led him from study to study to his discovery of the way of thinking of the theologians and to an understanding of the essential core of Islamic theology The Beginnings of Islamic Law Lena Salaymeh, 2016-11-14 This is a major and innovative contribution to our understanding of the historical unfolding of Islamic law Scrutinizing its historical contexts Salaymeh proposes that Islamic law is a continuous intermingling of innovation and tradition The book s interdisciplinary approach provides accessible explanations and translations of complex materials and ideas Jews, Christians, and the Abode of Islam Jacob Lassner, 2012-02-15 One of the greatest authorities on medieval Islam sheds immensely stimulating new light on cross cultural relations in the Middle Ages Times Literary Supplement UK In Jews Christians and the Abode of Islam historian Jacob Lassner examines the relationship between the three Abrahamic faiths that defined their political and cultural interaction during the Middle Ages and continues to define them today Examining the debates taking place in modern Western scholarship on Islam Lassner sheds new light on the social and political status of medieval Jews and Christians in various Islamic lands from the seventh to the thirteenth century Using a vast array of primary sources Lassner balances the rhetoric of literary and legal texts from the Middle Ages with other newly discovered medieval sources that describe life as it was actually lived among the three faith communities Lassner demonstrates what medieval Muslims meant when they spoke of tolerance and how that abstract concept played out at different times and places in the Christian and Jewish communities

under Islamic rule Finally he considers how this new understanding of medieval Islamic civilization might affect the highly contentious global environment of today

Interpretation and Jurisprudence in Medieval Islam Norman Calder, Jawid Mojaddedi, 2022-02-13 At the time of his death in 1998 at the age of 47 Norman Calder had become the most widely discussed scholar in his field This was largely focused on his monograph Studies in Early Muslim Jurisprudence Oxford 1993 which boldly challenged existing theories about the origins of Islamic Law The present volume of twenty one of his articles and book chapters represents the full richness and diversity of Calder's oeuvre from his initial doctoral research on Shii Islam to his later more philosophical writings on Sunni hermeneutics in addition to his numerous studies on early Islamic history and jurisprudence Calder's pioneering research which was based on a sensitive reading of medieval texts fully informed by contemporary critical theory often challenged the established assumptions of the day He is known in particular for urging a reassessment of widely held prejudices which underestimated the degree of creativity in medieval Islamic scholarship Many of the articles in this volume have already become classics for the fields of Muslim jurisprudence and hermeneutics

Scripture Well Allen J. Frank,2004-06-01 The Jewish Bible commentary was created in the Islamic East during the tenth century by scholars seeking a rational systematic approach to Scripture Among its earliest champions were the Karaites scripturalists who denied rabbinic authority Seeking to restore Judaism to its biblical roots they wrote numerous commentaries in Judeo Arabic Through the investigation of key topics this book traces the contours of early Karaite biblical exegesis Subjects covered include halakhic indeterminacy dream interpretation the Song of Songs as salvation history Psalms exegesis as liturgical commentary and inter religious polemics The exegetes discussed include Ya qub al Qirqisani Salmon b Yeruhim Sahl b Masliah and above all Japheth b Eli Extensive selections from unpublished manuscripts are presented in English translation and the original Judeo Arabic The Sea in World History Stephen K. Stein,2017-04-24 This two volume set documents the essential role of the sea and maritime activity across history from travel and food production to commerce and conquest In all eras water transport has served as the cheapest and most efficient means of moving cargo and people over any significant distance Only relatively recently have railroads and aircraft provided an alternative Most of the world s bulk goods continue to travel primarily by ship over water Even today 95 percent of the cargo that enters and leaves the United States does so by ship Similarly people around the world rely on the sea for food and in recent years the sea has become an important source of oil and other resources with the longterm effects of our continuing efforts to extract resources from the sea further highlighting environmental concerns that range from pollution to the exhaustion of fish stocks This chronologically organized two volume reference addresses the history of the sea beginning with ancient civilizations 4000 to 1000 BCE and ending with the modern era 1945 to the present day Each of the eight chapters is further broken down into sections that focus on specific nations or regions offering detailed descriptions of that area of the world and shorter entries on specific topics individuals and events The book spans maritime history covering major seafaring peoples and nations famous explorers travelers and commanders events battles and wars key technologies including famous ships important processes and ongoing events such as piracy and the slave trade and more Readers will benefit from dozens of primary source documents ranging from ancient Egyptian tales of seafaring to texts by renowned travelers like Marco Polo Zheng He and Ibn Battuta that provide firsthand accounts from the age of discovery as well as accounts of battle from World War I and II and more modern accounts of the sea Bulletin of Judaeo-Greek Studies,2003 Teaching World History in the Twenty-first Century: A Resource Book Heidi Roupp,2015-02-12 This practical handbook is designed to help anyone who is preparing to teach a world history course or wants to teach it better It includes contributions by experienced teachers who are reshaping world history education and features new approaches to the subject as well as classroom tested practices that have markedly improved world history teaching Contesting Inter-Religious Conversion in the Medieval World Yosi Yisraeli,Yaniv Fox,2016-12-08 The Mediterranean and its hinterlands were the scene of intensive and transformative contact between cultures in the Middle Ages From the seventh to the seventeenth century the three civilizations into which the region came to be divided geographically the Islamic Khalifate the Byzantine Empire and the Latin West were busily redefining themselves vis vis one another Interspersed throughout the region were communities of minorities such as Christians in Muslim lands Muslims in Christian lands heterodoxical sects pagans and of course Jews One of the most potent vectors of interaction and influence between these communities in the medieval world was inter religious conversion the process whereby groups or individuals formally embraced a new religion The chapters of this book explore this dynamic what did it mean to convert to Christianity in seventh century Ireland What did it mean to embrace Islam in tenth century Egypt Are the two phenomena comparable on a social cultural and legal level The chapters of the book also ask what we are able to learn from our sources which at times provide a very culturally charged and specific conversion rhetoric Taken as a whole the compositions in this volume set out to argue that inter religious conversion was a process that was recognizable and comparable throughout its geographical and chronological purview

The Creation of History in Ancient Israel Marc Zvi Brettler, 2002-11-01 The Creation of History in Ancient Israel demonstrates how the historian can start to piece together the history of ancient Israel using the Hebrew Bible as a source

A History of Muslim Views of the Bible Martin Whittingham, 2020-11-23 This book is the first of two volumes that aim to produce something not previously attempted a synthetic history of Muslim responses to the Bible stretching from the rise of Islam to the present day It combines scholarship with a genuine narrative so as to tell the story of Muslim engagement with the Bible Covering Sunn Im m Sh and Ism l perspectives this study will offer a scholarly overview of three areas of Muslim response namely ideas of corruption use of the Biblical text and abrogation of the text For each period of history the important figures and dominant trends along with exceptions are identified The interplay between using and criticising the Bible is explored as well as how the respective emphasis on these two approaches rises and falls in different periods and locations The study critically engages with existing scholarship scrutinizing received views on the subject and shedding light on an important area of interfaith concern
