Breast Cancer Nursing Care and Management Victoria Harmer, 2011-01-25 This book is an excellent resource for nurses working in either a hospital or primary care. Breast Cancer Care News This book would be really helpful to other breast cancer nurses and students about to embark on work in this field. Journal of Community Nursing This comprehensive handbook is for nurses and other healthcare professionals involved in the care of people with breast cancer. It gives up-to-date evidence-based information and practical advice on nursing care throughout diagnosis, treatment, recovery and end-of-life care. Each chapter is written by an expert in the field. Topics include the anatomy of the breast, available treatments, complementary therapies, the psychological care of patients and their families and the role of the specialist nurse. This book provides a well-balanced approach to all aspects of managing breast malignancy. The importance of writing from a nursing perspective is underlined so that the essence of support and bedside care is maintained. This second edition includes updates on guidelines as well as references to recent trials and changes to the breast screening programme. A new chapter on survivorship issues covering the long-term consequences and effects of recovering from breast cancer. The A to Z of Loss Elizabeth Bell, 2005 In a unique approach, this book links policy, theory and research with the expertise of service providers and users to explore the major debates concerning the provision of mental health services. Many of these dilemmas revolve around questions of who makes the choices and who has control. The book examines the power and demands of the disparate groups involved in the provision and use of services before considering the different practice options and their implicit values and goals. This book will inform critical debate among all those involved in the mental health enterprise and challenge health professionals to consider their own practice. It is timely and relevant reading for practitioners and managers at every level in all disciplines and from all agencies as well as service users and carers. Loss, Bereavement and Grief Bob

Spall, Stephen Callis, 1997 Helps the reader to confront and address the personal issues of experienced and feared loss, thus enabling them as a professional carer to work more effectively with others. Presents a clear insight into the links between theoretical, personal and professional issues. Provides highly practical guidance on coping with the most difficult situations. Structured questions are designed to trigger consideration of key issues. Counselling in Health Care Settings Robert

Bor, Riva Miller, Sheila Gill, 2008-11-24 This solution-focused guide shows how to provide effective counselling with clients who are physically ill. Combining theory, real-life examples and evidence-based approaches, the authors draw on their own experience to offer invaluable advice on highly complex and sensitive issues. This book gives tried and tested advice for all busy counsellors. E-Book - Red Flags Sue Greenhalgh, James Selfe, 2019-05-04 The book's small, portable size makes it ideal for reference in any practice setting. Presents information in an accessible at-a-glance format. The unique red flag hierarchy assists with clinical reasoning Index of Suspicion highlights the most likely conditions indicated by specific red flags Discussion of 3D thinking encourages clinicians to look beyond immediate symptoms to find the underlying cause of a problem Discussion of red herrings describes how to approach indicators that may mislead a diagnosis Information on the concept of conditional probabilities helps practitioners make informed clinical decisions On the Death of a Child Celia Hindmarch,2000 New updated edition draws on the experiences of recent traumas and developments in support services
