Therapy To Go Clare Rosoman, 2008-08-15 This convenient collection of handouts provides a wide range of ready made activities for all kinds of therapists working on a professional level with adult clients The fully photocopiable activities within this book provide creative approaches to a variety of presenting problems and can be used to complement or expand upon a client's treatment

Me and We Leonard Sweet, 2014-09-16 When Christians answer the clarion call to be missional too often it is primarily to feel good or to grow in their own faith But ultimately we remain unsatisfied because in the end it's still about me my church my faith my salvation Then sometimes inspiration dries up We forget that Jesus is the head of the Church which exists at God's pleasure and disposal God is birthing a new Social Gospel meant to reclaim mission and justice ministries as prime directives for the Church and not with the naive thinking of the 19th or 20th centuries What are the characteristics of this new Social Gospel There is an expectation that mission is with and not for others There is an acknowledgement that tolerance is not a dirty word and we have to find a peaceable way to live in our intercultural world It carries the Wesleyan impulse to change the world by working to build God's kingdom in this world It offers the grace and salvation of Christ to those in need believing that none are free unless all are free It means that we feed the hungry educate to poor and equip the powerless in tangible ways

Indigenous

Food Systems Priscilla Settee, Shailesh Shukla, 2020-01-31 Indigenous Food Systems addresses the disproportionate levels of food related health disparities among First Nations, Métis and Inuit people in Canada seeking solutions to food insecurity and promoting well being for current and future generations of Indigenous people. Through research and case studies, Indigenous and non-Indigenous food scholars and community practitioners explore salient features, practices and contemporary challenges of Indigenous food systems across Canada. Highlighting Indigenous communities' voices, the contributing authors document collaborative initiatives between Indigenous communities, organizations and non-Indigenous allies to counteract the colonial and ecologically destructive monopolization of food systems. This timely and engaging collection celebrates strategies to revitalize Indigenous food systems such as achieving cultural resurgence and food sovereignty, sharing and mobilizing diverse knowledges and voices, and reviewing and reformulating existing policies, research and programs to improve the health, well being and food security of Indigenous and Canadian populations. Indigenous Food Systems is a critical resource for students in Indigenous studies, public health, anthropology and the social sciences as well as a vital reader for policymakers, researchers and community practitioners. Avoidant Attachment
