Manufacturing And Labour The Formation Of The Classical Islamic World Volume 1:

Manufacturing and Labour Michael G. Morony, 2016-12-05 This volume together with its companion volume Production and the Exploitation of Resources examines the economic basis of the early Islamic world looking at the organization of extractive and agricultural operations manufacturing processes and labour relations This volume opens with studies of artisanal production that address the issues of specialization the division of labour and the proliferation of manufacturing occupations in early Islamic times looking in particular at ceramic and textile production The section on labour expands the enquiry to cover the legal and social status of manual labourers and questions of the organization and mobility of labour wage labour and labour partnerships These studies deal with both the manufacturing and agricultural sectors and also identify the role of slave labour in commerce domestic service agriculture and herding Taken together this body of work demonstrates a high degree of commercialization in the early Islamic economy particularly in Iraq Egypt and Ifriqiya The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 1, The Formation of the Islamic World, Sixth to Eleventh Centuries Chase F. Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume One of The New Cambridge History of Islam which surveys the political and cultural history of Islam from its Late Antique origins until the eleventh century brings together contributions from leading scholars in the field The book is divided into four parts The first provides an overview of the physical and political geography of the Late Antique Middle East The second charts the rise of Islam and the emergence of the Islamic political order under the Umayyad and the Abbasid caliphs of the seventh eighth and ninth centuries followed by the dissolution of the empire in the tenth and eleventh Regionalism the overlapping histories of the empire's provinces is the focus of Part Three while Part Four provides a cutting edge discussion of the sources and controversies of early Islamic history including a survey of numismatics archaeology and material culture The Red Sea from Byzantium to the Caliphate Timothy Power, 2012-10-01 This book examines the historic process traditionally referred to as the fall of Rome and rise of Islam from the perspective of the Red Sea a strategic waterway linking the Mediterranean to the Indian Ocean and a distinct region incorporating Africa with Arabia The transition from Byzantium to the Caliphate is contextualized in the contestation of regional hegemony between Aksumite Ethiopia Sasanian Iran and the Islamic Hijaz The economic stimulus associated with Arab colonization is then considered including the foundation of ports and roads linking new metropolises and facilitating commercial expansion particularly gold mining and the slave trade Finally the economic inheritance of the Fatimids and the formation of the commercial networks glimpsed in the Cairo Geniza is contextualized in the diffusion of the Abbasid bourgeois revolution and resumption of the India trade under the Tulunids and Ziyadids Tim Power's careful analysis reveals the complex cultural and economic factors that provided a fertile ground for the origins of the Islamic civilization to take root in the Red Sea region offering a new perspective on a vital period of history Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index

Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies

Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations

Islamic Arts and Crafts Marcus Milwright, 2017-02-03 Islamic art is justly famed for its technological sophistication varied approaches to ornament and innovative employment of the written word But what do we know about the skilled artisans who spent their lives designing and creating the paintings objects and buildings that are so admired today This anthology of written sources dating from the seventh to the twentieth centuries explores numerous aspects of the crafts of the Middle East from the processing of raw materials to the manufacture of finished artefacts You will learn about the legal and ethical dimensions of the arts and crafts the organisation of labour in urban and rural contexts the everyday lives of artisans the gendered dimensions of making things and the impact of industrialisation upon traditional methods of manufacture Each chapter begins with an introduction providing a wider context for the primary sources There are also suggestions for further reading

Production and the Exploitation of Resources Michael G. Morony, 2022-04-19 This volume together with its companion Manufacturing and Labour examines the economic basis of the early Islamic world looking at the organization of extractive and agricultural operations manufacturing processes and labour relations Mining stock raising agriculture and irrigation are the themes of this volume The work is based on both literary sources and archaeology and is concerned with the extraction of raw materials and production based on natural resources and domesticated animals Some classic articles are included because they defined the issues and deserve to be available due to their continuing significance These are balanced by state of the art studies and by others translating and commenting on important texts in areas where analytic studies have yet to be carried out This body of work provides a sense of the intensity of exploitation of natural resources in early Islamic times of how labour and energy intensive mining agriculture and irrigation were and of the interrelationship of different sectors of the economy
