Many Wives Many Powers Authority And Power In Polygynous Families:

Many Wives, Many Powers Remi Clignet, 1970 The Western Case for Monogamy Over Polygamy John Witte, 2015-05-05 This volume documents the Western historical arguments for monogamy over polygamy from antiquity to the present Polygamous Families in Contemporary Society Irwin Altman, Joseph Ginat, 1996-07-26 This groundbreaking book examines marital relationships in contemporary Mormon polygamous families Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen, 2020-06-15 Forms of plural marriage or polygamy are practiced within most of the world's cultures and religions The amazing variation versatility and adaptability of polygamy underscore that it is not just an exotic non Western practice but also exists in modern Western societies Polygamy A Cross cultural Analysis provides an examination and analysis of historical and contemporary polygamy It outlines polygamy's place in anthropological theory and its rich sociocultural diversity in countries ranging from the USA and UK to Malaysia India regions of Africa and Tibet Polygamy also addresses often difficult and controversial issues facing modern polygamists such as prejudice HIV AIDS and women's emancipation Polygamy A Cross cultural Analysis offers an anthropological overview of the fascinating yet often misunderstood institution of polygamy

African Families at the Turn of the 21st Century Baffour K. Takyi, Yaw Oheneba-Sakyi, 2006-03-30 The institution of family has been central to the well being of African societies over the years African families have undergone significant transformation caused by the interplay of indigenous Arabic Islamic and European Christian cultures The juxtaposition of these three cultures in the lives of African peoples captures the triple heritage image of the continent At the same time modernization urbanization and migration have played and continue to play significant roles in the transformation of families across the continent While it is true that the traditional family has changed in many ways and that African families are continuously confronted with new challenges the renowned contributors to this volume recognize that the African family continues to adapt to emerging structural changes In the new millennium a host of issues and challenges has emerged each with the potential to weaken or threaten the survival of the traditional African family These include the HIV AIDS pandemic a growing elderly population declining governmental support and economic decay How the post colonial family reacts to these threats and challenges has the potential to either maintain or undermine the family's role as a major organizing principle in Africa The institution of family has been central to the well being of African societies over the years African families have undergone significant transformations caused by the interplay of indigenous Arabic Islamic and European Christian cultures The juxtaposition of these three cultures in the lives of African peoples captures the triple heritage image of the continent At the same time modernization urbanization and migration have played and continue to play a role in the transformation of families across the continent While it is true that the traditional family has changed in many ways and that African families are continuously confronted with new challenges the contributors to this volume recognize that the African family has adapted to the emerging structural changes In the new millennium a host of issues and challenges have the potential to weaken or threaten the survival of the traditional African family These include the HIV AIDS pandemic which seems to afflict the young and able bodied a growing elderly population declining governmental support and economic decay How the post colonial family reacts to these threats and challenges has the potential to either maintain or undermine the family s role as a major organizing principle in Africa Profound transitions have occurred in family structure and processes since the post colonial period This work points to some of the documented transformations in African family life including the changing modes of decision making due to the establishment of a cash crop economy nuptial patterns changing maternal roles an increasing age at marriage and declining fertility a growing number of households headed by women an increase in the rate of marital instability and dissolution and changing patterns of mate selection and family relations The Handbook of Marriage in the Arab World Ahmed Aref,Md Mizanur Rahman,2024-11-30 This open access handbook combines multiple theoretical and practical approaches for enabling a nuanced understanding of the phenomenon of marriage in the Arab world Adopting a holistic interdisciplinary approach it provides a framework for the contextual and macro factors surrounding and affecting marriage in the Arab countries It looks at the different types of marriage whether traditional or new to the Arab world and takes a detailed examination of the dialectic of marriage and age It considers the dynamics surrounding delayed marriages early marriages celibacy marriage costs and age gaps between spouses In addition it examines marital relations vis vis a diverse array of sub topics including marital and emotional satisfaction and violence It also looks at the relationship between work and marriage and explores how women s work affects their family relationships and intimacy Finally it offers a rich analysis of two core marriage related issues in the modern Arab world migration and its positive negative impacts on the institution of marriage and marriage in the context of war and conflict as present in several areas within the Arab region A sociological magnum opus for social science students and researchers in areas of marriage studies gender studies family studies the sociology of work peace and conflict studies human migration and economics it is also relevant to policymakers politicians social workers and human rights and migration activists working in the Arab world and beyond Women and the Family in Chinese History Patricia Ebrey,2003-09-02 This is a collection of essays by one of the leading scholars of Chinese history it explores features of the Chinese family gender and kinship systems and places them in a historical context

Elite Malay Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen,2018-09-14 Elite Malay women s polygamy narratives are multiple and varied and their sentiments regarding the practice are conflicted as they are often torn between personal and religious convictions This volume explores the ways in which this increasingly prominent practice impacts Malay gender relations As Muslims elite Malay women may be forced to accept polygamy but they mostly condemn it as women and wives as it forces them to manage their lives and loves under the threat of polygamy from a husband able to marry another woman without their knowledge or consent a husband that is married but available Cash transfers, polygamy, and intimate partner violence: Experimental evidence from Mali Heath, Rachel,Hidrobo, Melissa,Roy, Shalini,2018-12-24 Enduring Polygamy

Bruce Whitehouse, 2023-04-14 Why hasn't polygamous marriage died out in African cities as experts once expected it would? Enduring Polygamy considers this question in one of Africa's fastest growing cities, Bamako, the capital of Mali, where one in four wives is in a polygamous marriage. Using polygamy as a lens through which to survey sweeping changes in urban life, it offers ethnographic and demographic insights into the customs, gender norms, and hierarchies, kinship structures, and laws affecting marriage and situates polygamy within structures of inequality that shape marital options, especially for young Malian women. Through an approach of cultural relativism, the book offers an open-minded but unflinching perspective on a contested form of marriage. Without shying away from questions of patriarchy and women's oppression, it presents polygamy from the everyday vantage points of Bamako residents themselves, allowing readers to make informed judgments about it and to appreciate the full spectrum of human cultural diversity.
