Mapping Macedonia Idea And Identity:

Mapping Macedonia Cindy R. Jebb, 2004-06-30 Ever since its independence in 1991 Macedonia has made remarkable progress towards building a pluralistic multi ethnic civil society Yet if the international community supports the legitimacy of Macedonia as a state it has direct responsibility to anchor its future No matter what view one subscribes to one stubborn truth remains Macedonia cannot achieve success on its own This book provides observations that offer valuable lessons on this little known but remarkable part of Europe This work provides a review of the historical basis for Macedonia s identity and its emergence as a separate nation during Socialist Yugoslavia 1944 1991 It takes a detailed look at the events and personalities that lead to the outbreak of civil war in 1991 This book contains aspects of the Ohrid Framework Agreement and perspectives on the contemporary situation following the elections of September 2002 Personal interviews with the first and second presidents of the Republic of Macedonia are also included

Imagining Macedonia in the Age of Empire

Denis Š. Ljuljanović, 2023 During the tumultuous age of empire Ottoman Macedonia became a blank canvas onto which Great Powers and neighboring states projected their aspirations grievances ambitions and state building endeavors This manuscript aims to elucidate these constructs and imaginaries employing a theoretical framework encompassing entangled history post colonial theory and subaltern studies It will examine both inter state and local examples to shed light on the multifaceted nature of this complex issue

Identity Conflicts Esther Gottlieb, 2017-09-08 Social conflicts are ubiquitous and inherent in organized social life This volume examines the origins and regulation of violent identity conflicts It focuses on the regulation of conflict the constraining directing and repression of violence through institutional rules and understandings The core question the authors address is how violence is regulated and the social and political consequences of such regulation The contributors provide a multidisciplinary multi regional analysis of identity conflicts and their regulation The chapters focus on the forging and suppression of religious and ethnic identities problematic national identities the recreation of identity in post conflict peace building efforts and the forging of collective identities in the process of democratic state building The instances of violent conflict treated here range across the globe from Central and South America to Asia to the Balkans and to the Islamic world One of the key findings is that conflicts involving religious ethnic or national identity are inherently more violence prone and require distinctive methods of regulation Identity is a question both of power and of integrity This means that both material and symbolic needs must be addressed in order to constrain or regulate these conflicts Accordingly some chapters draw on a political economy approach that places primary emphasis on resources organization and interests while others develop a cultural approach focusing on how identities are constructed grievances defined blame attributed and redress articulated This volume offers new ideas about the regulation of identity conflicts at both the global and local level that engage both tradition and modernization It will be of interest to policymakers political scientists human rights activists historians and anthropologists

Historical Dictionary of North Macedonia Dimitar

Bechev,2019-09-03 Located in the middle of the Balkans North Macedonia reflects the turbulent history of the region The country emerged from former Yugoslavia in the 1990s without violence but struggled to achieve international recognition due to a dispute with neighboring Greece over its name and symbols The name issue was resolved only in 2018 with the signature of the Prespa Agreement reviving prospects for membership in NATO and the European Union EU Yet North Macedonia's story goes centuries back to the Middle Ages the period of Ottoman Rule which lasted until 1912 and the various reincarnations of Yugoslavia The historical dictionary traces the country's past and present with a wealth of articles on issues events institutions personalities shaping political economic and cultural life It looks at the majority Macedonian as well as other ethnic communities such as the Albanians Turks and the Roma There are also entries on North Macedonia's relations with neighbors in history and today as well as with global powers This second edition of Historical Dictionary of North Macedonia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about North Macedonia Republic of Macedonia Foreign Policy Dejan Marolov,2014-07-08 The Republic of Macedonia is a particularly interesting case study for analysts of international relations Its very existence has been contested by its neighbors its internal balance is delicate Potentially the country could however become a model of stability in a traditionally conflictual region Dejan Marolov presents an encompassing in depth analysis of the country's foreign policy since the break up of Yugoslavia He examines relations with neighboring countries as well as Macedonia's still incomplete integration into a transatlantic and European framework Everybody interested in the international relations of the Western Balkans should read Marolov's book Dr Matthias Waechter European Institute Nice France and Dr Tugce Varol Sevim Aydin University Istanbul Turkey The European Union's

Approach to Conflict Resolution Laurence Cooley,2018-10-09 This book investigates and explains the European Union's approach to conflict resolution in three countries of the Western Balkans Bosnia and Herzegovina Macedonia and Kosovo In doing so it critically interrogates claims that the EU acts as an agent of conflict transformation in its engagement with conflict affected states The book argues contrary to the assumptions of much of the existing literature that rather than seeking the transformation of conflicts the EU pursues a more conservative strategy based on the regulation of conflict through the promotion of institutional mechanisms such as consociational power sharing and decentralisation Drawing on discourse analysis of documents speeches and interviews conducted by the author with European Union officials and policy makers in Brussels and the case study countries the book offers a theoretically grounded methodologically rigorous and empirically detailed analysis of EU policy preferences of the ideas that underpin them and of how those preferences are legitimised This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners interested in ethnic conflict and conflict resolution the politics of the Balkans and the external and foreign policies of the EU Macedonian Foreign Policy Dejan

Marolov, Aneta Stojanovska-Stefanova, 2023-05-25 This book provides a theoretical overview and understanding of the modern Macedonian political events through its history as well as a comprehensive analysis of the events in the period of the early 1990s that led to the creation of an independent Republic of Macedonia. The analysis will also determine the role of the Macedonian political elite in the creation of an independent Republic. A special segment of this book will focus on foreign policy and diplomacy which is significant in all the events that took place in relation to the young republic. This book is conceptualized in a way that it can be used as additional material for the international law and political studies courses at universities as well as for researchers and practitioners in the field of international politics especially those interested in Balkan politics.

Contested Ethnic Identity Chris Kostov, 2010 During the twentieth century Macedonia had a very turbulent history. Essentially the region became the apple of discord among the Balkan states. Ethnic identity formation among immigrants from Macedonia to Canada followed the political developments in the Balkans. This book illustrates the late emergence of an ethnic Macedonian community in Toronto and the roots of the clash between the Macedonian Greek and Bulgarian ethnic communities. The author tackles a number of important questions: When did the Macedonian ethnic identity start in Canada? What was the ethnic affiliation of the first Macedonian immigrants? Cultural organizations and churches in Toronto: Why did they use the Bulgarian language? Why do their first churches continue to be called Macedonian Bulgarian churches? Did all immigrants have one monolithic ethnic identity? The author relies upon three different types of literature: national identity development and theories, Balkan history and ethnic studies of the Bulgarian Macedonian and Greek settlements of Toronto. Oral interviews conducted in Toronto by the author and other researchers enhance this volume. The book sheds light on a much contested subject which continues to fuel debate from Skopje, Athens and Sofia to Toronto and Melbourne. Publisher's description.

Mapping Modernities Alan Dingsdale, 2002 This text draws on research carried out since 1989-1991 to describe, interpret and explain the place and spatial order of modernities in Central and Eastern Europe since 1920 to give a theoretically underpinned regional geography of the area.

Lakes and Empires in Macedonian History James Pettifer, Miranda Vickers, 2021-08-26 Lakes and Empires in Macedonian History Contesting the Waters tells the story of Psarades, a lakeside village in Macedonian Greece on the shores of the Prespa lake. This village which is in many ways a completely typical Greek settlement and yet remains unconventional in its way of life embodies the many contradictions of modern history and in exploring its roots James Pettifer and Miranda Vickers skilfully uncover the wider social, cultural and political history of this lake region. Drawing from oral testimonies and attentive to the construction of national histories, this book considers how the development of international borders, movement of people and role of national identities within imperial borderlands shaped Macedonia today. What is more, by centering the lakes and making use of an innovative environmental historical methodology, Pettifer and Vickers offer the first environmental history of this multi-ethnic borderland region shared by Greece, North Macedonia and Albania. The result is a nuanced and sophisticated transnational account of Macedonia from prehistory to the 21st century which will be essential reading for all Balkan scholars
