Mapping Michel Serres Studies In Literature And Science:

Mapping Michel Serres Niran Abbas, 2009-12-14 Provides an extremely valuable introduction to the work of Michel Serres for an English speaking audience as well as offering useful critical approaches for those already familiar with its outlines Robert Harrison Stanford University blurb from review pending permission The work of Michel Serres including the books Hermes The Parasite The Natural Contract Genesis The Troubadour of Knowledge and Conversations on Science Culture and Time has stimulated readers for years as it challenges the boundaries of science literature culture language and epistemology The essays in Mapping Michel Serres written by the leading interpreters of his work offer perspectives from a range of disciplinary positions including literature language studies and cultural theory Contributors include Maria Assad Hanjo Berressem Stephen Clucas Steven Connor Andrew Gibson Ren Girard Paul Harris Marcel H naff William Johnsen William Paulson Marjorie Perloff Philipp Schweighauser Isabella Winkler and Julian Yates Exploring NORDIC COOL in Literary History Gunilla Hermansson, Jens Lohfert Jørgensen, 2020-11-15 How did Nordic culture become associated with the fuzzy brand cool as by default In Exploring NORDIC COOL in Literary History twenty one scholars in collaboration question the seemingly natural fit between Nordic and Cool by investigating its variegated trajectories through literary history from medieval legends to digital poetry At the same time the elasticity and polysemy of the word cool become a means to explore Nordic literary history afresh It opens up a rich diversity of theoretical and methodological approaches within a regional framework and reveals hitherto unseen links between familiar and less familiar tracks and sites Following diverse paths of Nordic cool in respect to among other things nature survival love whiteness style economics heroism and colonialism this book challenges all too recognisable narratives and underlines the sheer knowledge potential of literary historical research

Rethinking Secular Time in Victorian England Stefan Fisher-Høyrem, 2022-08-29 This open access book draws on conceptual resources ranging from medieval scholasticism to postmodern theory to propose a new understanding of secular time and its mediation in nineteenth century technological networks Untethering the concept of secularity from questions of religion and belief it offers an innovative rethinking of the history of secularisation that will appeal to students scholars and everyone interested in secularity Victorian culture the history of technology and the temporalities of modernity Mapping Complexity Kerstin Pilz, 2005 This book presents an analysis of the dialogue of literature and science that forms a central part of the work of Italo Calvino one of Italy's best known contemporary authors It provides an in depth study of Calvino's interest in scientific models and methods and the ways these have informed his narratives Research Methods in Environmental Law Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos, Victoria Brooks, 2017-11-24 This timely Handbook brings innovative free thinking and radical approaches to research methods in environmental law With a comprehensive approach it brings together key concepts such as sustainability climate change activism education and Actor Network Theory It considers how the Anthropocene subjects environmental law to critique and to the needs of the variety of bodies human and non human that require its protection This much needed book provides a theoretically informed analysis of methodological approaches in the discipline such as constitutional analysis rights based approaches spatial geographical analysis immersive methodologies and autoethnography which will aid in the practical critique and re imagining of Environmental Law Michel Serres and French Philosophy of Science Massimiliano Simons,2022-03-24 Massimiliano Simons provides the first systematic study of Serres s work in the context of 20th century French philosophy of science By proposing new readings of Serres s philosophy Simons creates a synthesis between his predecessors Gaston Bachelard Georges Canguilhem and Louis Althusser as well as contemporary Francophone philosophers of science such as Bruno Latour and Isabelle Stengers Simons situates Serres s unique contribution through his notion of the quasi object a concept he argues organizes great parts of Serres s work into a promising philosophy of science as well as a challenge to the narrower field of French epistemology to which it has often been limited Simons highlights how the concept encompasses Serres s commitment to positive relations between science and culture and his rejection of pleas to purify the scientific self from imaginative and cultural elements It helps to situate Serres between the distinct traditions of Bachelard and Latour as well as progressing the innovative aspects of Serres s philosophy for current debates in the philosophy history and sociology of science Showing how Serres s philosophy can serve as a normative approach to science and technology Michel Serres and French Philosophy of Science takes in themes of materiality religiosity modernity and ecology to advance a timely alternative to philosophy of science for contemporary life

Conversations on Science, Culture, and Time Michel Serres,Bruno Latour,1995 Although elected to the prestigious French Academy in 1990 Michel Serres has long been considered a maverick a provocative thinker whose prolific writings on culture science and philosophy have often baffled more than they have enlightened In these live lively interviews with sociologist Bruno Latour this increasingly important cultural figure sheds light on the ideas that inspire his highly original challenging and trans disciplinary essays

Performing Economic Thought Bradley Ryner,2013-12-17 This study examines the structural similarities between English mercantile treatises and drama c1600 1642 Bradley D Ryner analyses the representational conventions of plays and mercantile treatises written between the chartering of the English East India Company in 1600 and the closing of the public playhouses at the outset of the English Civil War in 1642 He shows that playwrights manipulation of specific elements of theatrical representation such as metaphor props dramatic character stage space audience interaction and genre exacerbated the tension between the aspects of the world taken into account by a particular representation and those aspects that it neglects Science-fiction Studies ,2006 The Routledge

Companion to Reinventing Management Education Chris Steyaert,Timon Beyes,Martin Parker,2016-06-17 The position and role of the business school and its educational programmes have become increasingly prominent yet also questioned and contested What management education entails and how it is enacted has become a matter of profound concern in the field of higher education and more generally for the development of the organized world Drawing upon the humanities and social sciences The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education imagines a different and better education offered to students of management entrepreneurship and organization studies It is an intervention into the debates on what is taught and how learning takes place demonstrating both the potential and the limits of what the humanities and social sciences can do for management education Divided into six sections the book traces the history and theory of management education reimagining central educational principles and outlining an emerging practice based approach With an international cast of authors The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education has been written for contemporary and future educators and for students and scholars who seek to make a difference through their practice
