Marching Bands Make Me Cry:

Chasing Montana Lori Soderlind, 2006-04-20 Lori the heroine of this rousing narrative is attempting to flee the hectic East Coast for a better life in the West. She is a child of the Seventies who feels misled by the rebellious boomer generation and disappointed with life in 1980s New Jersey. Spurred by the tale of her pioneering grandparents who immigrated to Montana and following her friend Madeleine who has all the answers, Lori quits her job, loosens her ties, and sets off into a wild frontier. Lori's story is one of love for people and for places that are more mythic than real. Her pursuit is as painfully familiar as it is impossible: she seeks meaning in life while working dead-end jobs, falls in love with uninterested partners, and plans a future that seems doomed from the start. Somehow though, she persists and ultimately finds her place as a twenty-first-century pioneer.

Difficult Women Roxane Gay, 2017-01-03 The New York Times bestselling author of Bad Feminist shares a collection of stories about hardscrabble lives, passionate loves, and vexed human connection. The women in these stories live lives of privilege and of poverty, are in marriages both loving and haunted by past crimes or emotional blackmail. A pair of sisters grown now have been inseparable ever since they were abducted together as children and must negotiate the elder sister's marriage. A woman married to a twin pretends not to realize when her husband and his brother impersonate each other. A stripper putting herself through college fends off the advances of an overzealous customer. A black engineer moves to Upper Michigan for a job and faces the malign curiosity of her colleagues and the difficulty of leaving her past behind. From a girl's fight club to a wealthy subdivision in Florida where neighbors conform, compete, and spy on each other, Roxanne Gay delivers a wry, beautiful, haunting vision of modern America with her signature wry wit and piercing psychological depth.
