My Comic Book Mind Series Gabriel Zeldis, 2014-02-10 I remember the things I felt at that bar in the mountains The music was over Some songs played on the jukebox The tears welled within me The dusty road outside I had my whole life ahead of me a vision of the indescribable future Tears fell within Mountain life was different but it fit me A ship set sail on a lonely river What was love anyway Complicated There was no one that could hurt me again I imagined just scars Scars and a desire to make something out of my life My cabin was just a shadow in the night And I was supposed to believe I didn't know Jesus I poured shots and beers that night to the locals Some who had hearts and some whose hearts had escaped them I'll never forget the songs that played on the jukebox The moon cast weary shadows and eyes met eyes in the smoky bar Smoke rising All I could think of was having a fire for myself in my shell of a cabin outside by the river A river that always ran

The War Within Tom Wells, 2016-02-02 The War Within America's Battle over Vietnam is a painfully engrossing and popularly written account of how the battle on the home front ended America's least popular war This absorbing narrative hailed by critics of every persuasion is the fruit of over a decade's worth of research the author sifted through mountains of government documents press coverage and transcripts of interviews he conducted with virtually all of the key players both inside the U S government and among the dissenters who eventually brought the war to an end In these pages the antiwar era comes to life through the words of scores of participants both the famous and the forgotten who speak with candor and passion about this tumultuous period A remarkable story of a powerful grassroots movement and its influence on officials in Washington
