On The Methodology Of Architectural History:

On the Methodology of Architectural History Demetri Porphyrios, 1981 On the Methodology of Architectural History Maurice Culot, 1981 Architectural Design Profile (AD), 1981 What is Architectural History? Andrew Leach, 2013-05-03 What is Architectural History considers the questions and problems posed by architectural historians since the rise of the discipline in the late nineteenth century How do historians of architecture organise past time and relate it to the present How does historical evidence translate into historical narrative Should architectural history be useful for practicing architects If so how Leach treats the disciplinarity of architectural history as an open question moving between three key approaches to historical knowledge of architecture within art history as an historical specialisation and most prominently within architecture He suggests that the confusions around this question have been productive ensuring a rich variety of approaches to the project of exploring architecture historically Read alongside introductory surveys of western and global architectural history this book will open up questions of perspective frame and intent for students of architecture art history and history Graduate students and established architectural historians will find much in this book to fuel discussions over the current state of the field in which they work Methodology and Method in History (RLE Accounting) Lee D. Parker, Finley O. Graves, 2013-12-04 This bibliography provides the reader with a comprehensive reference tool that will enhance understanding of methodological issues and enable the user to employ research methods appropriate to their subject of study It also provides accounting historians a comprehensive data base for the development of papers addressing methodological issues in an accounting history context Access to this type of resource is particularly crucial to the development of accounting history research since the number of papers dealing with methodological issues published in accounting history literature is very small Hence the references in this bibliography are drawn from the literature of general history economic and business history legal and social history and philosophy The scope and range of its contents are broad references are taken from texts as well as papers published in over 450 journals Art History Through the Camera's Lens Helene E. Roberts, 2013-09-13 Photography of art has served as a basis for the reconstruction of works of art and as a vehicle for the dissemination and reinterpretation of art This book provides the first definitive treatment of the subject with essays from noted authorities in the fields of art history architecture and photography The essays explore the many meanings of photography as documentation for the art historian inspiration for the artist and as a means of critical interpretation of works of art Art History Through the Camera's Lens will be important reading for students historians librarians and curators of the visual arts Methods and Theories of Art History Anne D'Alleva, 2005 This is an analysis of complex forms of art history It covers a broad range of approaches presenting individual arguments controversies and divergent perspectives The book begins by introducing the concept of theory and explains why it is important to the practice of art history Rethinking Architectural Historiography Dana Arnold, Elvan Altan Ergut, Belgin Turan Ozkaya, 2006-09-27 Rather than subscribing to a single position this collection informs the reader about the current state of the discipline looking at changes across the broad field of methodological theoretical and geographical plurality Divided into three sections Rethinking Architectural Historiography begins by renegotiating foundational and contemporary boundaries of architectural history in relation to other fields such as art history and archaeology It then goes on to critically engage with past and present histories disclosing assumptions biases and absences in architectural historiography It concludes by exploring the possibilities provided by new perspectives reframing the discipline in the light of new parameters and problematics This timely and illustrated title reflects upon the current changes in historiographical practice exploring potential openings that may contribute further transformation of the disciplines and theories on architectural historiography and addresses the current question of the disciplinary particularity of architectural history

Time, History and Architecture Gevork Hartoonian, 2017-10-12 Time History and Architecture presents a series of essays on critical historiography each addressing a different topic to elucidate the importance of two influential figures Walter Benjamin and Gottfried Semper for architectural history In a work exploring themes such as time autonomy and periodization author Gevork Hartoonian unpacks the formation of architectural history the problem of autonomy in criticism and the historiographic narrative Considering the scope of criticism informing the contemporaneity of architecture the book explores the concept of nonsimultaneity and introduces retrospective criticism the agent of critical historiography An engaging thematic dialogue for academics and upper level graduate students interested in architectural history and theory this book aims to deconstruct the certainties of historicism and to raise new questions and interpretations from established critical canons

The Study of History, 2000 History is a subject which never stands still It is always changing its philosophies its contours its leading questions its politics its conceptual status and its methodologies This bibliographical guide to the study of history is wide ranging in scope extending from the ancient world to the 20th century It deliberately concentrates on modern historians views provides a substantial section on the philosophy of history charts controversies and highlights the continual evolution and diversification of history The material is logically organized in major areas and subsections and cross references are given where appropriate An index of authors editors and compilers is also provided

The Writing of History, Notes on Historical Methodology for Indian Students ... Henry Heras, 1926

The Mental Life of the Architectural Historian Gevork Hartoonian, 2014-08-11 Starting with the question concerning the discursive formation of architectural history the chapters compiled in this book attempt to re read the historiography of early modern architecture from the point of view of the theoretical work produced since the post war era

Central to the objectives of the argument are the ways in which firstly architectural history differs from the traditions of art history and secondly that the historical narrative works its autonomy through theoretical representation the discursive flow of which is interrupted by the historian's urge to support arguments with references to buildings texts drawings and historical events The historians discussed in this volume are those regularly addressed by most critics revisiting modern architectural history Individual chapters are dedicated to N Pevsner H R Hitchcock and S Giedion an economy of selection that is formative for a critical understanding of the canon established by these historians Themes such as periodization autonomy and time are discussed and the coda of the final chapter expands on the scope of critical historiography popularised by Kenneth Frampton and Manfredo Tafuri

Adopting the Beat of Expression: An Mental Symphony within On The Methodology Of Architectural History

In a world consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instant communication, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony created by the published term usually disappear into the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of On The Methodology Of Architectural History an enchanting fictional prize filled with organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound influence resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this moving review, we shall examine the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
