Women Screenwriters Jill Nelmes, Jule Selbo, 2015-09-29 Women Screenwriters is a study of more than 300 female writers from 60 nations from the first film scenarios produced in 1986 to the present day Divided into six sections by continent the entries give an overview of the history of women screenwriters in each country as well as individual biographies of its most influential

The Undergraduate's Companion to Children's Writers and Their Web Sites Jennifer Stevens, 2004-11-30 This volume one in the Undergraduate Companion series focuses on American and British writers for children and young adults and is addressed to students in both English and Education classes It provides both print and free online sources Most undergraduates do not possess the research skills necessary to evaluate Web sites This volume will address their needs by providing pathfinders to works by about and related to key writers of children's and young adult fiction Included are entries for 185 British and American writers and writing teams most from the 20th century Young adult and adult Grades 9 and up Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975

The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma'arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void
