One Faith Many Transitions World Views In Church History:

One Faith - Many Transitions K. G. Powderly, Jr., 2002-10-06 Church history reads like a wartime romance tragedy with the promise of a happy ending For the church is called Christ's Bride in Scripture One Faith Many Transitions snapshots the pathos defeat and victory of the heroes and villains in historic Christianity It exposes world views that have both aided and distorted the faith over the centuries and how God's Spirit brings churches back into living relationship with him It explores why Christians thought and acted as they did Written in a way that takes the Bible seriously as a message system from the living God One Faith analyzes historic ideas and events from a basically Evangelical perspective It will boost the faith and historic understanding of any Christian who believes the Bible really is the word of God and the standard for church authority It also highlights many of the crucial world view issues Christians face today and how they arose

One Faith--Many Transitions K. G. Powderly, Jr., 2015-08-13 Church history reads like a wartime romance tragedy with the promise of a happy ending writ large The New Testament calls the church Christ's Bride One Faith Many Transitions Worldviews in Church History snapshots the pathos defeat and victory of the heroes and villains in historic Christianity More importantly One Faith maps many of the worldviews the church encountered during its growth It shows how the Holy Spirit redemptively used parts of these worldviews to give Christians tools they might not have otherwise had but also shows how other parts distorted the Faith when taken into the church without adequate analysis One Faith Many Transitions also models how God's Spirit brings churches back into living relationship with Him It explores why Christians of the past and present thought and acted as they did Written in a manner that takes the Bible seriously as a message system from the living God One Faith analyzes historic ideas people and events from a thoughtful worldview that takes the doctrines of historic Christianity as relevant to the real world today One Faith Many Transitions is a historical worldview apologetic for a Christianity that believes the Bible really is the word of God the best guide to the human condition and the highest standard for church authority today

Salvation in African Christianity Rodney L. Reed, David K. Ngaruiya, 2023-10-31 What must I do to be saved That question raised in the book of Acts by the Philippian jailer is a question for the ages Yet what even does it mean to be saved Is salvation for this life or the next Is it purely spiritual or does it have physical and material implications Can salvation be lost Do we determine who will be saved or does God What role does Christ play in salvation Such are the seemingly unending questions soteriology strives to answer In this eighth volume from the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology African theologians articulate their understanding of salvation and its widespread implications for life and practice in conversation with Scripture and the rich diversity of an African cultural context Salvation is examined from historical philosophical and theological lenses and scholars address topics as wide ranging as conversion ethnicity fertility poverty prosperity the Trinity exclusivism African Pentecostalism rural community eschatology wholeness and atonement It is a powerful exploration of the holistic nature of salvation as articulated in Scripture and understood by the African church segregated and pluralistic world As a mature global player Christianity was in a prime position to contribute to peaceful conflict resolution in the religious social and political fields On the other hand the darkness and utter insufficiency of the encounter between the European Christian self and the many others worldwide brought along problematic projections of different beliefs attacked in a hostile way as alien and inevitably as conquered The consequences particularly for the primal other the indigenous people were often disastrous Werner Ustorf has been a leading missiologist worldwide for thirty years This book not only analyses the interaction between mission and individual the construction of the self and the other in a mission context but also proves the analytical strength of theology in conceptualizing future Christian experiences in Europe Ustorf illustrates that apart from traditional dimension of faith a non religious interpretation and critical trust in transcendence is crucial for the formation of the new interculturalization of Christianity in Europe Thus this book demonstrates how mission history can be transformed to a research concept for a global and pluralistic Christianity Christian Register and Boston Observer... ,1886
