Horsfallian system of teaching English grammar William Horsfall, 1852 The Last Interview Eshkol

Nevo, 2020-10-13 National Jewish Book Award Finalist Wingate Literary Prize Shortlist Named a Notable Translated Book of the Year by World Literature Today From the internationally best selling author of Three Floors Up a literary page turner that delves into the deepening cracks in a carefully constructed public persona A writer tries to answer a set of interview questions sent to him by a website editor At first they stick to the standard fare Did you always know you would be a writer How autobiographical are your books Have you written any stories you would never publish Usually his answers in these situations are measured calculated cautious But this time when his heart is about to break and his life is about to crumble he finds he cannot tell anything but the truth The naked funny sad scandalous politically incorrect truth Every question the writer tackles opens a door to a hidden room of his life And each of his answers reveals that at the heart of every truth there is a lie and vice versa Surprising bold intimate and utterly engrossing The Last Interview shows just how tenuous the lines are between work and life love and hate fact and fiction And in exploring the many often contradictory facets of an Israeli author's identity Eshkol Nevo also gives us a nuanced thought provoking portrait of a country at odds with itself
