Metrical Psalmody in Print and Practice Timothy Duguid,2016-04-22 During the Reformation the Book of Psalms became one of the most well known books of the Bible This was particularly true in Britain where people of all ages social classes and educational abilities memorized and sang poetic versifications of the psalms Those written by Thomas Sternhold and John Hopkins became the most popular and the simple tunes developed and used by English and Scottish churches to accompany these texts were carried by soldiers sailors and colonists throughout the English speaking world Among these tunes were a number that are still used today including Old Hundredth Martyrs and French This book is the first to consider both English and Scottish metrical psalmody comparing the two traditions in print and practice It combines theological literary and musical analysis to reveal new and ground breaking connections between the psalm texts and their tunes which it traces in the English and Scottish psalters printed through 1640 Using this new analysis in combination with a more thorough evaluation of extant church records Duguid contends that Britain developed and maintained two distinct psalm cultures one in England and the other in Scotland Likro: To Read and To Bless Print Torah Aura Productions,2001-06 Here is a book with these pieces 1 An accelerated and advanced Hebrew primer 2 materials on spoken Hebrew vocabulary and phrases and 3 materials on Hebrew blessings Put it together and you have a perfect second year primer Lidro u Livarekh is also a quick way to get new students up to speed This is the kind of primer that gives your students a second pass at the alef bet and teaches them more at the same time Piety in Practice and Print Koen Goudriaan,2016 The late Middle Ages provide us with a fascinating religious landscape The quest for new religious ideals and intense spirituality can be observed in movements such as the Modern Devotion and the Franciscan Observance marking the late fourteenth and fifteenth century with new institutional dynamics and the formation of a variety of religious communities The dissemination of these new religious ideas and ideals profited from the advent of the printing press It is these subjects that Koen Goudriaan professor of Medieval History at VU University Amsterdam has studied for decades This volume edited by Anna Dlabová and Ad Tervooort presents a collection of eleven of his best essays It focuses on three themes the institutional parameters of late medieval religious movements the cult of remembrance and the interaction between religious movements and the early printing press Together these essays provide a representative sample of Goudriaan s substantial contribution to scholarship on late medieval history
