Prison On Wheels From Ravensbrueck To Burgau:

Prison on Wheels Eva M. Langley, 2000 The author recounts her 1945 journey between concentration camps at Ravensbruck and Burgau Prison on Wheels Eva M. Langley, 1990 Prison on Wheels - From Ravensbrück to Burgau Eva Langley-Dános, Prison on Wheels is a remarkable diary kept by a young Hungarian woman Eva Dános during sixteen horror filled days and nights of deportation by the Nazis in 1945 It is an eyewitness report of a 700 kilometer rail journey from Ravensbrück north of Berlin to Burgau near Munich one of the countless such operations that took place within Nazi Germany's vast network of labor and concentration camps What makes this account of particular interest is the fact that the author had been a member of a small underground group in Budapest led by Gitta Mallasz Talking with Angels and her fellow prisoners included some of these same comrades Their humanity helped to sustain them Prison of Wheels Eva Langley, 1990 The Jewish Women of Ravensbrück Concentration Camp Rochelle G. Saidel, 2006-03-09 Ravensbrück was the only major Nazi concentration camp for women Located about fifty miles north of Berlin the camp was the site of murder by slave labor torture starvation shooting lethal injection medical experimentation and gassing While this camp was designed to hold 5 000 women the actual figure was six times this number Between 1939 and 1945 132 000 women from twenty three countries were imprisoned in Ravensbrück including political prisoners Jehovah's Witnesses asocials including Gypsies prostitutes and lesbians criminals and Jewish women who made up about 20 percent of the population Only 15 000 survived Drawing upon more than sixty narratives and interviews of survivors in the United States Israel and Europe as well as unpublished testimonies documents and photographs from private archives Rochelle Saidel provides a vivid collective and individual portrait of Ravensbrück's Jewish women prisoners She worked for over twenty years to track down these women whose poignant testimonies deserve to be shared with a wider audience and future generations Their memoirs provide new perspectives and information about satellite camps there were about 70 slave labor sub camps Here is the story of real daily camp life with the women's thoughts about food friendships fear of rape and sexual abuse hygiene issues punishment work and resistance Saidel includes accounts of the women's treatment their daily struggles to survive their hopes and fears their friendships their survival strategies and the aftermath On April 30 1945 the Soviet Army liberated Ravensbrück They found only 3 000 extremely ill women in the camp because the Nazis had sent other remaining women on a death march The Jewish Women of Ravensbrück Concentration Camp reclaims the lost voices of the victims and restores the personal accounts of the survivors Florence 98, Destruction and Creation Personal and Cultural Transformation Mary Ann Mattoon, 1999 The Fourteenth Congress for Analytical Psychology was held August 23-28 1998 in the ancient city of Florence Italy The theme Destruction and Creation Personal and Cultural Transformations is especially appropriate to the Italian setting with that nation's history of destruction both from nature and from human activity and its tradition especially in Florence of creative individuals and institutions The theme is fitting also to the context of Jungian psychology with its emphasis on these and other pairs of opposites with their integral role in psychic wholeness Acknowledging also that destruction is indispensable to creation some Jungians prefer the term creative unconscious to the traditional collective unconscious Quest for Silence Harry A. Wilmer, 2000 What ever happened to silence Actually nothing and Harry Wilmer takes great pains to show how we have submerged it under a toxic barrage of noise Using both clinical examples of the power of silence from his case histories and cultural values of silence he uncovers a astonishing theme in the Japanese idea of MA as silence Wilmer points out how silence gives meaning to words dreams thought action and music From his long experience as a Jungian analyst he weaves his ideas into an eminently practical treatise on the phenomenology of silence With many references to literature as well as his personal life experiences and crises he offers a readable and important new story of the universal and spiritual significance of silence in a world of jackhammer noise Diaspora, Memory and Identity Vijay Agnew, 2005-01-01

Memories establish a connection between a collective and individual past between origins heritage and history Those who have left their places of birth to make homes elsewhere are familiar with the question Where do you come from and respond in innumerable well rehearsed ways Diasporas construct racialized sexualized gendered and oppositional subjectivities and shape the cosmopolitan intellectual commitment of scholars The diasporic individual often has a double consciousness a privileged knowledge and perspective that is consonant with postmodernity and globalization The essays in this volume reflect on the movements of people and cultures in the present day when physical social and mental borders and boundaries are being challenged and sometimes successfully dismantled The contributors from a variety of disciplinary perspectives discuss the diasporic experiences of ethnic and racial groups living in Canada from their perspective including the experiences of South Asians Iranians West Indians Chinese and Eritreans Diaspora Memory and Identity is an exciting and innovative collection of essays that examines the nuanced development of theories of Diaspora subjectivity double consciousness gender and class experiences and the nature of home Receiving Woman Ann Belford Ulanov, 2001

We live in a time of unparalleled opportunity for women and a time just because of that opportunity of great stress It is a time when every woman can find her own particular style to develop her skills to acknowledge her needs and failures and to claim both her satisfactions and dissatisfactions The old stereotypes are all but dead But another danger threatens of new stereotyped roles for women in the very range of choices and opportunities presented to the RECEIVING WOMAN grew out of a decade of reflections on women s experiences my own my patients and my students writes Professor Ulanov From all of them a common voice emerged speaking about each woman s struggle to receive all of herself Each was trying to find and put together different parts of herself into a whole that was personal alive and real to her and to others Death Dreams and Ghosts Aniela Jaffé, 2020 A collection of death dreams and ghost stories were gathered and presented to C G Jung and the author who approaches this fascinating material from the depths of her analytic experience among the Swiss who are commonly regarded as stolid unimaginative rationalistic and materialistic there are just as many ghost stories and suchlike

as say in England or Ireland Indeed as I know from my own experience magic as practiced in the Middle Ages has by no means died out but still flourishes today I can recommend it to all those who know how to value things that break through the monotony of daily life with salutary effects sometimes shaking our certitudes and lending wings to the imagination from the Foreword by C G Jung We are left in the overpowering presence of a great mystery The Bearskin Quiver Gregory McNamee, 2002 Once upon a time an Apache story tells us the trickster called Coyote killed a bear so that he could make a suitable quiver for his magical arrows You shouldn't have done that someone warned Coyote That skin will only bring you bad luck And so it has been for Coyote ever since chased by bears and humans alike In this charming collection of folktales from long ago we read of the creation of the world of the ways of animals of the beguiling Coyote of the world in which we live and other worlds that hide just beyond our sight Drawn from the oral literatures of some twenty Southwestern American Indian peoples these stories teach us about the constants of those dry places about how the clouds form in the sky how the heat rises from the ground how the animals move about from one shady spot to another and how the people once lived their lives All these stories show us as the great anthropologist Claude Lévi Strauss observed that folktales are not mere afterthoughts of literature just pleasant stories to tell around the campfire but rather valuable tools for reflection upon our own lives Jungian Reflections on September 11 Luigi Zoja, Donald Lee Williams, 2003 Seldom has an event in the world had such pervasive and all encompassing effect as the brutal terrorist attacks on New York and Washington in September 2001 Has our world become a different place as a result If so in what ways What might a psychotherapist of depth psychologist perceive in the eruption of shocking contents Battle of Symbols John Fraim, 2003 With a focus on the three month period following the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 marketing consultant Fraim explains how American symbols are created communicated managed and understood He discusses the emergence of symbols from their traditional residence in religion art dreams and particular cultures to a new ubiquitous global status and argues that future wars will be increasingly fought over and won through the use of symbols Distributed by Continuum Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Images, Meanings and Connections Susan R. Bach, 1999 Susan Bach was born in 1902 in Berlin where she studied crystallography before escaping to London in the wake of Nazism These essays reflect on her life and work and show how the process of connecting and finding meaning continues and advances whether through pictures objects dreams or other images and myths The Girl who Made Stars Wilhelm Heinrich Immanuel Bleek, Lucy Lloyd, 2001 These beautiful and timeless stories from the African Bush were gathered more than a century ago and have touched thousands of readers ever since The South African born author Sir Laurens van der Post revered them and helped to make them known throughout the world For this special new edition Gregory McNamee has adapted the original nineteenth century English translations to create modern versions of the stories for readers without a prior knowledge of the Bushman ways of life The stories in this book carry universal observations and truths and with their historical and ethnographic roots in the African Bushman culture they are fascinating and educational for readers and listeners of all ages They bear powerful testimony to a desert people living at one with Nature Dream Child Regina Abt,Irmgard Bosch,Vivienne MacKrell,2000 The broad scope of the dream material analyzed in this book allows the authors to touch upon many subjects associated with the nature of the psyche not only those relevant to pregnant women The careful interpretation of the amplificatory material drawn from a wide range of cultures also makes this an inspiring aid for the understanding of dreams valuable to psychologists doctors midwives or anyone else interested in this human subject Drugs, Addiction And Initiation - The Modern Search for Ritual Luigi Zoja, Luigi Zoja argues that the pervasive abuse of drugs in our society can in large part be ascribed to a resurgence of the collective need for initiation and initiatory structures a longing for something sacred underlies our culture s manic drive toward excessive consumption In a society without ritual the drug addict seeks not so much the thrill of a high as the satisfaction of an inner need for a participation mystique in the dominant religion of our times consumerism A far reaching yet incisive cultural analysis The Modern Search for Ritual is a vigorous expos drawing its methodology from history literature and anthropology as well as Analytical Psychology From its critique of drug cures based on detoxification to its discussion of the esoteric terrorist cult of the Assassins Zoja s work is a classic in the field of psycho anthropology Picturing God Ann Ulanov,2020 Ann Belford Ulanov submits that we have all painted our own pictures of God Most of them were formed in early childhood and now lie buried in our unconscious selves Even though we may be unaware of our images of God they play an active sometimes harmful role in our spiritual development Picturing God demonstrates the importance of confronting our unconscious selves and allowing our images of God both positive and negative to surface Such inner exploration reveals not only relevant insights about ourselves but also pulls us beyond our private pictures of God toward a truer view of the living God Picturing God shows us how to explore our unconscious selves and how this spiritual exercise can change the whole of our lives how we respond to God how we relate to others and how we view ourselves Comparative Central European Holocaust Studies Louise Olga Vasvári,Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek,2009 The work presented in the volume in fields of the humanities and social sciences is based on 1 the notion of the existence and the describability and analysis of a culture including e g history literature society the arts etc specific of to the region designated as Central Europe 2 the relevance of a field designated as Central European Holocaust studies and 3 the relevance in the study of culture of the comparative and contextual approach designated as comparative cultural studies Papers in the volume are by scholars working in Holocaust Studies in Australia Germany Hungary Israel Serbia the United Kingdom and the US The Wisdom of the Psyche Ann Belford Ulanov,2000 The Wisdom of the Psyche encourages clergy to help parishioners bring forth their unconscious feelings and images to join their conscious thoughts In this way the church allows its members the space to present themselves fully to God and to be fully present to the human need around them
