Prison Writing In 20th Century America:

Prison Writing in 20th-Century America H. Bruce Franklin, 1998-06-01 Harrowing in their frank detail and desperate tone the selections in this anthology pack an emotional wallop Should be required reading for anyone concerned about the violence in our society and the high rate of recidivism Publishers Weekly Includes work by Jack London Nelson Algren Chester Himes Jack Henry Abbott Robert Lowell Malcolm X Mumia Abu Jamal and Piri Thomas Prison Writings in 20th-Century America H. Bruce Franklin, 1998-06-01 This unique collection dramatizes the history of the modern American prison with more than 60 selections memoirs stories novels poems written in the last 100 years Prison Writings in 20th Century America H. Bruce Franklin, 1999-12-01 Prison Writing and the Literary World Michelle Kelly, Claire Westall, 2020-10-27 Prison Writing and the Literary World tackles international prison writing and writing about imprisonment in relation to questions of literary representation and formal aesthetics the value or values of literature textual censorship and circulation institutional networks and literary critical methodologies It offers scholarly essays exploring prison writing in relation to wartime internment political imprisonment resistance and independence creation regimes of terror and personal narratives of development and awakening that grapple with race class and gender Cutting across geospatial divides while drawing on nation and region specific expertise it asks readers to connect the questions examples and challenges arising from prison writing and writing about imprisonment within the UK and the USA but also across continental Europe Stalinist Russia the Americas Africa and the Middle East It also includes critical reflection pieces from authors editors educators and theatre practitioners with experience of the fraught testing and potentially inspiring links between prison and the literary world Prisons, Race, and Masculinity in Twentieth-century U.S. Literature and Film Peter Caster, 2008 In Prisons Race and Masculinity Peter Caster demonstrates the centrality of imprisonment in American culture illustrating how incarceration an institution inseparable from race has shaped and continues to shape U S history and literature in the starkest expression of what W E B DuBois famously termed the problem of the color line A prison official in 1888 declared that it was the freeing of slaves that actually created prisons we had to establish means for their control Hence came the penitentiary Such rampant racism contributed to the criminalization of black masculinity in the cultural imagination shaping not only the identity of prisoners collectively and individually but also America s national character Caster analyzes the representations of imprisonment in books films and performances alternating between history and fiction to describe how racism influenced imprisonment during the decline of lynching in the 1930s the political radicalism in the late 1960s and the unprecedented prison expansion through the 1980s and 1990s Offering new interpretations of familiar works by William Faulkner Eldridge Cleaver and Norman Mailer Caster also engages recent films such as American History X The Hurricane and The Farm Life Inside Angola Prison alongside prison history chronicled in the transcripts of the American Correctional Association This book offers a compelling account of how imprisonment has functioned as racial containment a matter critical to U S history and literary study      Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities Mary Bosworth,2004-12-15 The two volume Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities aims to provide a critical overview of penal institutions within a historical and contemporary framework Issues of race gender and class are fully integrated throughout in order to demonstrate the complexity of the implementation and intended results of incarceration The Encyclopedia contains biographies articles describing important legal statutes and detailed and authoritative descriptions of the major prisons in the United States Comparative data and examples are employed to analyze the American system within an international context The Encyclopedia s 400 entries are written by recognized authorities The appendix contains a comprehensive listing of every federal prison in the U S complete with facility details and service information      The Bloomsbury Handbook of Prison Education Erin S. Corbett,2024-10-03 Finalist PROSE Awards 2025 Education Theory and Practice Written by activists and scholars based in Australia Kenya Pakistan New Zealand South Africa Uganda and the USA The Bloomsbury Handbook of Prison Education offers the first global state of the field overview of research into educational practices and programs in prisons It covers the history of the field and puts forward future directions for research The range of topics covered include discussions of how gender race sexuality indigeneity age and faith impact incarceration rates around the world educational leadership STEM education creative writing programs distance learning abolition education after prison and education for correctional staff The book includes a Foreword by Donald Sawyer III Vice President of Diversity Inclusion and Belonging at Fairfield University USA      Undoing Time Jeff Evans,2001 In their own words a look inside the silent and hidden world of the men and women incarcerated in America s penitentiaries      Words Is a Powerful Thing Brian Daldorph,2021 Brian Daldorph first entered the Douglas County Jail classroom in Lawrence Kansas to teach a writing class on Christmas Eve 2001 His last class at the jail for the foreseeable future was mid March 2020 right before the COVID 19 lockdown the virus is taking a heavy toll in confined communities like nursing homes and prisons Words Is a Powerful Thing is Daldorph s record of teaching at the jail for the two decades between 2001 and 2020 showing how the lives of everyone involved in the class but especially the inmates who came to class week after week benefited from what happened every Thursday afternoon in that jail classroom where for two hours inmates and instructor became a circle of ink and blood writing together reciting their poems telling stories and having a few good laughs Words Is a Powerful Thing brings into the light the works of fifty talented inmate writers whose work deserves attention Their poetry speaks of what really matters to all of us and gives the reader sustained insight into the role that creativity plays in aiding survival and bringing positive change for inmates and in turn for all of us Daldorph s account of his teaching experience not only takes the reader inside the daily life at a county jail but also sets the work done in the writing class within the larger context of inmate education is the US corrections system where education is often one of the few lifelines available to inmates Words Is a Powerful Thing provides a teaching guide for instructors working with incarcerated writers offering an extensive examination of both the challenges and benefits When Brian Daldorph decided the story of his classroom experiences and the great writing produced by the inmates deserved to be told to wider audiences he struggled with how to bring it all together Not long after an inmate wrote a poem titled Words Is a Powerful Thing offering Daldorph a title concept and purpose to show that the poetry of inmates speaks not just to other inmates but to all of us Working for Justice Stephen John Hartnett, Eleanor Novek, Jennifer K. Wood, 2013-06-01 This collection documents the efforts of the Prison Communication Activism Research and Education collective PCARE to put democracy into practice by merging prison education and activism Through life changing programs in a dozen states Arizona Colorado Illinois Indiana Massachusetts Michigan New Jersey Ohio Pennsylvania Texas Virginia and Wisconsin PCARE works with prisoners in prisons and in communities to reclaim justice from the prison industrial complex Based on years of pragmatic activism and engaged teaching the materials in this volume present a sweeping inventory of how communities and individuals both within and outside of prisons are marshaling the arts education and activism to reduce crime and enhance citizenship Documenting hands on case studies that emphasize educational initiatives successful prison based programs and activist oriented analysis Working for Justice provides readers with real world answers based on years of pragmatic activism and engaged teaching Contributors are David Coogan Craig Lee Engstrom Jeralyn Faris Stephen John Hartnett Edward A Hinck Shelly Schaefer Hinck Bryan J McCann Nikki H Nichols Eleanor Novek Brittany L Peterson Jonathan Shailor Rachel A Smith Derrick L Williams Lesley A Withers Jennifer K Wood and Bill Yousman Challenging the Prison-Industrial Complex Stephen J. Hartnett, 2011 Boldly and eloquently contributing to the argument against the prison system in the United States these provocative essays offer an ideological and practical framework for empowering prisoners instead of incarcerating them Experts and activists who have worked within and against the prison system join forces here to call attention to the debilitating effects of a punishment driven society and offer clear eyed alternatives that emphasize working directly with prisoners and their communities Edited by Stephen John Hartnett the volume offers rhetorical and political analyses of police culture the so called drug war media coverage of crime stories and the public school to prison pipeline The collection also includes case studies of successful prison arts and education programs in Michigan California Missouri Wisconsin and Pennsylvania that provide creative and intellectual resources typically denied to citizens living behind bars Writings and artwork created by prisoners in such programs richly enhance the volume Contributors are Buzz Alexander Rose Braz Travis L Dixon Garrett Albert Duncan Stephen John Hartnett Julilly Kohler Hausmann Daniel Mark Larson Erica R Meiners Janie Paul Lori Pompa Jonathan Shailor Robin Sohnen and Myesha Williams Prisons of Creativity John R. Whitman, 2024-11-19 Sparking a discussion of the importance of creativity for the well being of society this book highlights and argues for the potential of those in prison to learn and exercise the skills of writing visual arts and music to protect their intellectual property and to distribute their works to the public and the consequent benefits of their creative contribution to wider society Focused on the premise that a nation s well being and competitive advantage in innovation are advanced by promoting the creative efforts of all its citizens without exclusion including those residing in prisons this book uses the United States as a case study to illuminate the potential among any nation s prison population to contribute to its store of creative works Arguing that creativity should be encouraged for the benefit of all it offers a framework for how incarcerated individuals globally could be permitted to engage in learning and undertaking skills in the expressive arts to produce works for public dissemination Supporting this argument it explores and analyses the Intellectual Property clause of the Constitution of the United States Emphasizing not just the internal but also the external value of creativity in prison Prisons of Creativity widens and elevates the discourse concerning the institution of prison in society and its social goals It will be of great value to anyone with an interest in arts in corrections including educators and practitioners professionals and policy makers within the criminal justice system and students and scholars of criminology criminal justice and related areas

Corrigan,2016-11-04 Winner of the 2017 Diamond Anniversary Book Award and the African American Communication and Culture Division s 2017 Outstanding Book Award both from the National Communication Association In the Black liberation movement imprisonment emerged as a key rhetorical theoretical and media resource Imprisoned activists developed tactics and ideology to counter white supremacy Lisa M Corrigan underscores how imprisonment a site for both political and personal transformation shaped movement leaders by influencing their political analysis and organizational strategies Prison became the critical space for the transformation from civil rights to Black Power especially as southern civil rights activists faced setbacks Black Power activists produced autobiographical writings essays and letters about and from prison beginning with the early sit in movement Examining the iconic prison autobiographies of H Rap Brown Mumia Abu Jamal and Assata Shakur Corrigan conducts rhetorical analyses of these extremely popular though understudied accounts of the Black Power movement She introduces the notion of the Black Power vernacular as a term for the prison memoirists rhetorical innovations to explain how the movement adapted to an increasingly hostile environment in both the Johnson and Nixon administrations Through prison writings these activists deployed narrative features supporting certain tenets of Black Power pride in Blackness disavowal of nonviolence identification with the Third World and identity strategies focused on Black masculinity Corrigan fills gaps between Black Power historiography and prison studies by scrutinizing the rhetorical forms and strategies of the Black Power ideology that arose from prison politics These discourses demonstrate how Black Power activism shifted its tactics to regenerate even after the FBI sought to disrupt discredit and destroy the movement Inside Knowledge Doran Larson,2024-01-09 In Inside Knowledge incarcerated people step forth as the primary witnesses and documentarians of the American prison s historical and ongoing defeat of the four cardinal rationales for the legal caging of human beings rehabilitations deterrence containment and retribution Prison Work William Richard Wilkinson,2005 What do we know first hand about prisons We have accounts from many top administrators There is a large literature of convict reports and memoirs But we have almost no personal accounts written by the people who were engaged in the day to day work of guarding and keeping prison inmates In Prison Work former California prisons corrections officer William Richard Wilkinson candidly tells what it was like to try to handle problems that can arise in prison from furnishing three meals a day to quelling a riot Constructed around a series of interviews with Wilkinson this book recounts his extensive experience with discipline problems wrong headed administrators contraband and escapes Wilkinson s story presents a blunt unabashed view of daily life in prison including fascinating discussions of racial and religious conflict gangs and prison violence as well as the institutional culture and more human side of life as experienced by a prison employee The duration of Wilkinson s career 1951 1981 saw the greatest change in the American prison system He was responsible for implementing change on the level of the prison block At the California Institution for Men in Chino he started out under the inspiring leadership of one of the most famous reform figures in penology At the California Medical Facility in Vacaville he participated in one of the great prison experiments when medical officials ran a maximum security prison And at Soledad he experienced the reaction to earlier liberal policies Over the years he accumulated much wisdom concerning how to handle convicts wisdom that still has importance for corrections workers Book jacket
