Raw Faith Nurturing The Believer In All Of Us:

Raw Faith John Kirvan, 2000 This companion of God Hunger explores the faith that is needed to live with an unknowable God Offering fifty meditations rooted in the wisdom of mystics such as Henri J M Nouwen and others Journey into Newness Patrick C. Heston, 2022-08-23 Wilderness periods of our lives those dry and desperate seasons when God seems distant and detached perhaps even indifferent or impotent can seem an abnormal and painful part of our lives that simply must be painfully plodded through and somehow endured Yet far from being something abnormal and life threatening like a cancer invading our bodies wilderness periods represent a fundamental element of our life in the Spirit and part of God's well orchestrated plan to guarantee that we become and possess everything he desires for us Outcomes of Faith During Hospitalization

Reverend Dr. Hiltrude Nusser-Telfer, 2011-03-23 Chapter III presents eight case studies that identify and support the need for Professional Spiritual Care to undergird the work and healing methods of physicians and allied health professionals The case study method was the result of the encouragement of many patients and medical professionals over the course of fifteen years of ministry We are spiritual beings in a human body The spiritual assessment looks at a patient's medical condition social support system and religious affiliation including spiritual commitment to a belief in God In dealing with a devastating illness it is possible for patients to submit in trust and faith to believe in the God of Jesus Christ Prayer and faith are our protection from evil Due to our inherent insecurity we open ourselves up to fear which projects the wrong issues into our lives and encourages us to cop out from our intentions of protecting our soul and submitting to the will of God

Bubbers, 2013-09-12 This study examines the scriptural justification for believers to expect the Eucharist to be a place where God will come and bless them with freedom and formation Bubbers focus is not on liturgy but rather on the biblical message of the benefits of participation in the Eucharist Why keep this Feast Why is Eucharist important Bubbers interpretive approach is a synthesis of historical literary aspects of Biblical Theology and canonical creedal aspects of the Theological Reading of Scripture taking into account the biblical historical place of Eucharist as well as its ongoing presence within the Church Bubbers begins by displaying the Last Supper as a Passover meal which bridges between Old Testament motifs and the New Testament Feast

She then shows that the Exodus context reveals a paradigm which links blessing with remembrance and suggests that the remembrance motif describes these blessings Finally Bubbers gathers a catalogue of specific blessings summarized by freedom and formation Her conclusion is that the Feast is a divinely designed paradigm for worship which is accompanied by a promise of transformational encounters

Thinking the Faith Douglas John Hall, 1991-01-01 As the Christian movement nears the end of its second millennium it faces a crisis that could not have been anticipated at the close of the first thousand years or indeed by most of our own great grandparents Since the most conspicuous dimensions of the waning of Christendom have to do with material decline the decline in church membership and active attendance of Sunday services the decline in financial and physical prosperity the decline of influence in high places such analyses as there are usually belabor the obvious something drastic is happening to the churches Throughout most of its long history Christianity has not required of its adherents that they should think the faith The historical accident of its political and cultural establishment 15 centuries ago ensured that a thinking faith would be purely optional for members of the church But thought less faith which has always been a contradiction in terms is today a stage on the road to the extinction not only of Christianity itself but of whatever the architects of our civilization meant by Humanity Only a thinking faith can survive Only a thinking faith can help the world survive From the Preface
