Perspectives on Radio and Television F. Leslie Smith, David H. Ostroff, John W. Wright, 2023-05-31 This textbook describes the field of radio and television in the United States presents the material in a manner the reader can grasp and enjoy and makes the book useful for the classroom teacher Written for adaptation to individual teaching situations the book is divided by subject matter into logical chapter divisions that can be assigned in the order appropriate for specific course students Each chapter stands by itself but the book is also an integrated whole It is easy to understand at first reading by beginning radio television majors or nonmajor elective students alike To give readers a complete picture of the field subjects such as ethics careers and rivals to U S commercial radio and television are included Mediated Images of the South Alison Slade, Dedria Givens-Carroll, Amber J. Narro, 2012-01-01 Mediated Images of the South The Portrayal of Dixie in Popular Culture edited by Slade Givens Carroll and Narro seeks to explore and understand the impact of the image of the Southerner within mass communication and popular culture by looking at images in politics film television public relations advertising sports and social media Cop Shows Roger Sabin, Ronald Wilson, Linda Speidel, 2015-03-07 From cops who are paragons of virtue to cops who are as bad as the bad guys from surly loners to upbeat partners from detectives who pursue painstaking investigation to loose cannons who just want to kick down the door the heroes and anti heroes of TV police dramas are part of who we are They enter our living rooms and tell us tall tales about the social contract that exists between the citizen and the police Love them or loathe them according to the ratings we love them they serve a function They've entertained informed and sometimes infuriated audiences for more than 60 years This book examines Dragnet Highway Patrol Naked City The Untouchables The F B I Columbo Hawaii Five O Kojak Starsky Hutch Hill Street Blues Cagney Lacey Miami Vice Law Order Homicide Life on the Street NYPD Blue CSI The Shield The Wire and Justified It's time to take another look at the perps the vics and the boys and girls in blue and ask how their representation intersects with questions of class gender sexuality and race What is their socio cultural agenda What is their relation to genre and televisuality And why is it that when a TV cop gives a witness his card and says call me that witness always ends up on a slab Rock Brands Elizabeth Barfoot Christian, 2010-12-22 Rock Brands Selling Sound in a Media Saturated Culture edited by Elizabeth Barfoot Christian is an edited collection that explores how different genres of popular music are branded and marketed today The book's core objectives are addressed over three sections In the first part of Rock Brands the authors examine how established mainstream artists bands are continuing to market themselves in an ever changing technological world and how bands can use integrated marketing communication to effectively brand themselves This branding is intended as a protection so that technology and delivery changes don't stifle the bands success KISS AC/DC Ozzy Osbourne Phish and Miley Cyrus are all popular musical influences considered in this part of the analysis In the second section the authors explore how some musicians effectively use attention grabbing issues such as politics for example Kanye West and countless country musicians and religion such as with Christian heavy metal bands and Bon Jovi in their lyrics and also how imagery is utilized by artists

such as Marilyn Manson to gain a fan base Finally the book will explore specific changes in the media available to market music today see M I A and her use of new media and similarly how these resources can benefit music icons even after they are long gone as with Elvis and Michael Jackson Rock Brands further examines gaming reality television and social networking sites as new outlets for marketing and otherwise experiencing popular music What makes some bands stand out and succeed when so many fail How does one find a niche that isn't just kitsch and can stand the test of time allowing the musician to grow as an artist as well as grow a substantial fan base Elizabeth Barfoot Christian and the book's contributors expertly navigate these questions and more in Rock Brands Selling Sound in a Media Saturated Culture Real-World Media Ethics Philippe Perebinosoff, 2016-07-15 Is it ethical to pass yourself off as black if you are Caucasian as Rachel Dolezal the president of a local chapter of the NAACP did in 2015 Was it ethical for Donald Sterling the former owner of the NBA team to use racially inflammatory language Is it ethical to exaggerate or fabricate the importance of one's role as Brian Williams apparently did when he anchored the NBC nightly news Is it ethical for a journalist to pay a source for a story tips and photos as TMZ Gawker and others do regularly The above questions as well as other questions definitely illustrate the need for studying ethics Real World Media Ethics provides a wide showcase of real ethical issues faced by professionals in the media field Numerous case studies allow readers to explore multiple perspectives while using realistic ethical principles This book includes the basics in ethical journalism as well as the tools to navigate through the landscape of mass media such as public relations entertainment and other forms of visual communication The second edition has been updated to encompass globalization new media platforms current copyright issues net neutrality sports ethics and more An accompanying companion website provides additional interviews demonstrating ethical principles in practice Being a former ABC executive author Philippe Perebinosoff gives readers an inside look at circumstances with an ethical experienced eye

Simons, 2017-04-07 Persuasion in Society Third Edition introduces readers to the rich tapestry of persuasive technique and scholarship interweaving rhetorical critical theory and social science traditions This text examines current and classical theory through the lens of contemporary culture encouraging readers to explore the nature of persuasion and to understand its impact in their lives Employing a contemporary approach authors Jean G Jones and Herbert W Simons draw from popular culture mass media and social media to help readers become informed creators and consumers of persuasive messages This introductory persuasion text offers A broad based approach to the scope of persuasion expanding students understanding of what persuasion is and how it is effected Insights on the diversity of persuasion in action through such contexts as advertising marketing political campaigns activism and social movements and negotiation in social conflicts The inclusion of sender and receiver perspectives enhancing understanding of persuasion in practice Extended treatment of the ethics of persuasion featuring opposing views on handling controversial issues in the college classroom for enhanced instruction Case studies showing how and why people fall for persuasive messages demonstrating how persuasion works at a cognitive level Discussion questions exercises and key terms for very nearly every chapter The core of this book is that persuasion is about winning beliefs and not arguments and that communicators who want to win that belief need to communicate with their audiences This new edition of Persuasion in Society continues to bring this core message to readers with updated case studies examples and sources

Creating Reality in Factual Television Manfred W. Becker, 2020-10-07 Creating Reality in Factual Television analyzes the uneasy interaction between economics culture and professional ethics in reality and documentary television storytelling Through the frankenbite an editorial tool that extracts and re orders the salient elements or single words of a statement interview or exchange into a revealing confession or argument the book explores how and why editors manipulate truth in factual television The author considers how the editing of documentary television is increasingly following reality television s dictate to entertain instead of inform how the real and the truth fall victim to the demand to tell entertaining stories and how editors must compromise their professional ethics as a result Drawing on interviews with 75 North American and European editors that explore their experiences and opinions of reality and documentary television practices and their views on their responsibilities and loyalties in the field Creating Reality in Factual Television illuminates the real and potential ethical dilemmas of editorial decision making the context in which decisions are made and how editors themselves validate the editing choices to themselves and others Addressing a dramatic development in contemporary media ecology the age of alternative facts this book is a useful research tool for scholars and students of documentary film media literacy genre studies media ethics affect theory and audience perception

The Digital Glocalization of Entertainment Paolo Sigismondi, 2011-08-31 In this volume Paolo Sigismondi explores the dynamics of global media and entertainment specifically analyzing the implications of the global rise of non scripted entertainment as reality TV programs and the impact and consequences of the Information and Communication Technology ICT revolution on the content delivery platforms and overall business models of the media and entertainment landscape This work aims at bridging the gap between media theories and industry practices in a rapidly evolving global mediascape building on scholarship in the field and enriched by case studies and insights from business practice This work demonstrates that the paradigms of the landscape are shifting introducing the digital glocalization of entertainment through which successful media crossing national and cultural borders incorporate both global and local features Key questions raised include Is the ICT revolution an example of disruptive technology for the global media and entertainment industry Is the existing status quo challenged and in particular Hollywood s global leadership What are the global entities emerging as Hollywood s main competitors in this technologically evolving landscape Sigismondi argues that as new players are entering the field new threats to Hollywood s dominance are emerging The global leaders in non scripted entertainment for example are European based global entities operating outside the Hollywood system Meanwhile the ICT revolution is modifying the contours and boundaries of the global mediascape Sigismondi s approach provides unique insight into how the forces of technology and globalization are transforming television cinema and online entertainment
