Reading for Our Lives Maya Payne Smart, 2022-08-02 An award winning journalist and literacy advocate provides a clear step by step guide to helping your child thrive as a reader and a learner. When her child went off to school, Maya Smart was shocked to discover that a good education in America is a long shot in ways that few parents fully appreciate. Our current approach to literacy offers too little, too late, and attempting to play catch up when our kids get to kindergarten can no longer be our default strategy. We have to start at the top. The brain architecture for reading develops rapidly during infancy and early language experiences are critical to building it. That means parents work as children's first teachers begins from day one, too, and we need deeper knowledge to play our positions. Reading for Our Lives challenges the bath book, bed mantra and the idea that reading aloud to our kids is enough to ensure school readiness. Instead, it gives parents easy, immediate and accessible ways to nurture language and literacy development from the start. Through personal stories, historical accounts, scholarly research and practical tips, this book presents the life and death urgency of literacy, investigates inequity in reading achievement, and illuminates a path to a true transformative education for all. A Time to Read Mary Ruth Wilkinson, Heidi Wilkinson Teel, 2000-06 In a Time to Read, Mary Ruth K. Wilkinson and her daughter Heidi Wilkinson Teel have compiled a helpful guide to children's books. More than bibliography, A TIME TO READ also includes essays on the nature of children's families, literature and story, and how these hold together in a Christian life, reflecting Mary Ruth's 30 years' experience teaching a literary and Christian approach to children's books.
