Read Write Edit Grammar For College Writers:

Read, Write, Edit Patricia Porter, Deborah VanDommelen, 2004-08 Read Write Edit focuses on grammar structure and editing strategies to help students learn the necessary skills to express themselves accurately and effectively in college writing Readings from a variety of academic genres and disciplines expose students to writing and grammar concepts as they appear in context Teaching U.S.-Educated Multilingual Writers Mark Roberge, Kay M. Losey, Margi Wald, 2015-06-04

This volume was born to address the lack of classroom oriented scholarship regarding U S educated multilingual writers Unlike prior volumes about U S educated multilinguals this book focuses solely on pedagogy from classroom activities and writing assignments to course curricula and pedagogical support programs outside the immediate classroom Unlike many pedagogical volumes that are written in the voice of an expert researcher theorist this volume is based on the notion of teachers sharing practices with teachers All of the contributors are teachers who are writing about and reflecting on their own experiences and outcomes and interweaving those experiences and outcomes with current theory and research in the field The volume thus portrays teachers as active reflective participants engaged in critical inquiry Contributors represent community college college and university contexts academic ESL developmental writing and first year composition classes and face to face hybrid and online contexts This book was developed primarily to meet the needs of practicing writing teachers in college level ESL basic writing and college composition classrooms but will also be useful to pre service teachers in TESOL Composition and Education graduate programs Generation 1.5 in College Composition Mark Roberge, Meryl Siegal, Linda Harklau, 2009-02-12 A well organized volume with a strong emphasis on pedagogy Trudy Smoke Hunter College City University of New York USA Generation 1 5 is the most interesting topic of concern in ESL today yet publications are few and far between The editors clearly know what they re doing They know the field know the subject matter and understand the problems This volume contributes to the thinking in the field Linda Lonon Blanton University of New Orleans USA Building on the work that has been done over the past decade this volume provides theoretical frameworks for understanding debates about immigrant students studies of students schooling paths and language and literacy experiences and pedagogical approaches for working with Generation 1 5 students Generation 1 5 in College Composition is designed to help both scholars and practitioners reconceptualize the fields of College Composition and TESOL and create a space for research theory and pedagogy focusing on postsecondary immigrant ESL students provides both important new theoretical work which lays the underpinnings for serious pedagogical innovation and important new pedagogical approaches Because of their varied and complex language and literacy profiles Generation 1 5 students are found in developmental English courses college ESL courses and mainstream college writing courses This volume is directed to preservice and inservice teachers teacher educators and researchers involved with educating Generation 1 5 students in these and other contexts
