She chronicles the role of television as a focus for evolving debates on issues ranging from the ideal of the perfect family and changes in women s role within the household to new uses of domestic space The arrival of television did more than turn the living room into a private theater it offered a national stage on which to play out and resolve conflicts about the way Americans should live Spigel chronicles this lively and contentious debate as it took place in the popular media Of particular interest is her treatment of the way in which the phenomenon of television itself was constantly deliberated from how programs should be watched to where the set was placed to whether Mom Dad or kids should control the dial Make Room for TV combines a powerful analysis of the growth of electronic culture with a nuanced social history of family life in postwar America offering a provocative glimpse of the way television became the mirror of so many of America's hopes and fears and dreams Are You Still Mad? Level 2 Ellen Weiss, 2011-09-13 What do you do when you have a disagreement with your best friend Anna and Sonya are best friends and love to play together but after they have a disagreement about how to play Anna says she never wants to play with Sonya again Anna tried to play dolls by herself but her doll's best friend is at Sonya's house Anna goes to the park by herself but it's not all that fun with out someone to see saw with When Anna sees Sonya riding her bike alone she asks her if she wants to jump rope together After playing together again Anna realizes it's more fun to play together than to stay mad Great for sparking conversations about friendship and conflict resolution Includes a note to parents with tips on how to encourage reading and on how to help your child learn to read Also included is a list of words to point and read to help young readers learn new words As each word is read by a narrator words are highlighted on the screen Sounds effects are also included
