Reluctant Modernists Aldous Huxley And Some Contemporaries:

Reluctant Modernists Peter Edgerly Firchow, 2002 The essays collected here deal with modernist writers who on the whole felt reluctant about their modernist status because they believed that it was just as important to look backward as it was to look forward Indeed for most of them looking backward was more important because it was only through the past that one could understand one's proper place in the present and in the future That is why in Huxley's Brave New World it is the rejection of the past in the future and by implication in the present that makes its satire so penetrating Modernism in other words means for these writers not a radical break with the past but a continuing search for what still connects them and us vitally with it Peter Firchow Professor of English at the University of Minnesota is the author of several books on modern and modernist literary subjects including books on Huxley Conrad and Auden The publication of some of his hitherto uncollected essays in this volume is intended to honor

Aldous Huxley Annual Bernfried Nugel, Jerome Meckier, 2006-02-28 Aldous Huxley Annual is the official organ of the Aldous Huxley Society at the Centre for Aldous Huxley Studies in Munster Germany It publishes essays on the life times and interests of Aldous Huxley and his circle It aspires to be the sort of periodical that Huxley would have wanted to read and to which he might have contributed This issue features Aldous Huxley's and Beth Wendel's dramatization of The Genius and the Goddess never before published It also includes several rather unknown travel essays by Aldous Huxley as well as Peter E Firchow's opening lecture at the Third International Aldous Huxley Symposium held in Riga in July 2004

The EmBodyment of American Culture Heinz Tschachler, Maureen Devine, Michael Draxlbauer, 2003 American culture has literally become fixated on the body at the same time that the body has emerged as a key term within critical and cultural theory Contributions thus address the body as a site of the cultural construction of various identities which are themselves enacted negotiated or subverted through bodily practices Contributions come from literary and cultural studies film and media studies history and sociology and women studies and are representative of many theoretical positions hermeneutic historical structuralist feminist postmodernist They deal with representations and discursifications of the body in a broad array of texts in literature the visual arts theater the performing arts film and mass media science and technology as well as in various cultural practices

Aldous Huxley and Self-Realization Dana Sawyer, Julian Piras, Uwe Rasch, 2019 Throughout his writing career and especially in the last thirty years of his life Aldous Huxley exhibited a deep interest in human potentialities which he often described as our greatest unused natural resource The present volume is the first book to focus on this Huxleyan core concern It is based on presentations given at the Sixth International Aldous Huxley Symposium held in 2017 at the University of Almer a Spain This volume collects essays by eleven scholars from eight countries that discuss Huxley's concept of human potentialities from an interdisciplinary perspective This is another innovative feature of this book since today Huxley is mainly remembered as a novelist although only eleven of his fifty published works belong to that genre The topics of this volume span Huxley's mature philosophy including his theories relating to the expansion of consciousness the development of nonverbal humanities the need to improve bio ethics the role of nature the role of beliefs and prejudice and other subjects These essays review Huxley s various positions shedding light on their possible significance for today Huxley marshalled his remarkable intellect to the project of improving the human condition and here we find an up to date report card of his theories and their efficacy Aldous Huxley Annual Bernfried Nugel, Jerome Meckier, 2023-08-24 Volume 22 opens with two little known Huxley writings A Lunndon Mountaineering Essay 1914 edited by Gerhard Wagner and Huxley s contributions in French at the Paris 1933 congress on the future of the European spirit edited and translated into English by James Sexton This section is followed by a further selection of papers from the Seventh International Aldous Huxley Symposium held at Toulon in October 2021 many of them devoted to a variety of neglected Huxley issues or to the second part of the Huxley Forum entitled Aldous Huxley s Controversial Philosophical Theories An overview of the conference program can be consulted on the Internet via <https://sites.univ-tln.fr/huxley-toulon-en-program> The volume closes with further articles on Huxley s concept of the ultimate revolution on an aficionado s life long personal experience with Huxley s works and on Huxley s many sided response to Charles Dickens The Novel After Film Jonathan Foltz, 2018 In this provocative and original study Jonathan Foltz charts the institutional stylistic and conceptual relays that linked literary and cinematic cultures and that fundamentally changed the nature and status of storytelling in the early twentieth century Machines for Living Victoria Rosner, 2020-02-04 Changes in the routines of domestic life were among the most striking social phenomena of the period between the two World Wars when the home came into focus as a problem to be solved re imagined streamlined electrified and generally cleaned up Modernist writers understood themselves to be living in an epochal moment when the design and meaning of home life were reconceived Moving among literature architecture design science and technology Machines for Living shows how the modernization of the home led to profound changes in domestic life and relied on a set of emergent concepts including standardization scientific method functionalism efficiency science and others that form the basis of literary modernism and stand at the confluence of modernism and modernity Even as modernist writers criticized the expanding reach of modernization into the home they drew on its conceptual vocabulary to develop both the thematic and formal commitments of literary modernism Rosner s work develops a new methodology for interdisciplinary modernist studies and shows how the reinvention of domestic life is central to modernist literature Moonlighting Nathan Waddell, 2019-06-27 How and why did the life and music of Ludwig van Beethoven 1770 1827 matter to experimental writers in the early twentieth century Previous answers to this question have tended to focus on structural analogies between musical works and literary texts charting the many different ways in which poetry and prose resemble Beethoven s compositions This book takes a different approach It focuses on how early twentieth century writers chief among them E M Forster Aldous Huxley Wyndham Lewis Dorothy Richardson Rebecca West and Virginia Woolf profited from the representational conventions associated in the nineteenth century and beyond with Beethovenian culture The emphasis of Moonlighting falls for the most part on how modernist writers made use of Beethovenian legend It is concerned neither with formal similarities between Beethoven s music and modernist writing nor with the music of Beethoven per se but with certain ways of understanding Beethoven s music which had long before 1900 taken shape as habit myth clich and fantasy and with the influence they had on experimental writing up to 1930 Moonlighting suggests that the modernists drew knowingly and creatively on the conventional It proposes that many of the most experimental works of modernist literature were shaped by a knowing reliance on Beethovenian consensus in short that the literary modernists knew Beethovenian legend when they saw it and that they were eager to use it Aldous Huxley 2009
