Crossing Out the Emperor Michael Black, 2011-06-01 Description Crossing Out The Emperor is an exploration into the states of mind of Beethoven in various states of love and deafness and Napoleon during his invasion of Russia in 1812 Are these states of mind romantic and military or are they in modern parlance possibly psychiatric as discussed in the Foreword About the Author Michael Black was born in England in 1962 He studied literature and history at York University before completing a doctorate at Cambridge University in South African studies and has spent his adult life fascinated with exploring the territory at which history ends and literature begins or vice versa His stage plays performed in Edinburgh York Cardiff Manchester and London as well as in eastern Europe frequently give witness to this as does Crossing Out The Emperor his first novel Of this he is convinced the real territory of creation is myth Pivoting Ann L. Clancy, Jacqueline Binkert, 2016-12-19 Change is a necessary though sometimes challenging part of staying relevant being engaged and seeking ways to flourish in one's life Coaching helps individuals develop coherent strategies for their life and work and to tap into their strengths and inspiration Often our clients find themselves having to shift or transform their limiting belief systems or habits of mind and behavior to move them toward greater self direction How does such meaningful change occur What role can coaches play to effectively lead our clients to new insights To answer these questions the authors set off on a scholar practitioner journey of research study and first hand experience to better comprehend the mystery and wonder of how clients actually make meaningful transitions Their path of inquiry describes a new science of change about how pivotal moments in coaching occur and what coaches can do to help ignite substantial change This book interweaves master coach stories examples tools strategies and research to inform and enlighten readers of the profound awakening human beings are experiencing to the power of individual choice No longer constrained by the outdated Newtonian concepts of linear change and external control individuals are now capable of self organization by shifting their perceptions and choosing to leave patterns of limited thought and action From their research the authors found that coaches play a key facilitative role in helping unleash the capacities and power of these pivots Readers are invited to reflect on their own experiences of insight and those of their clients and to focus on priming strategies they can use to inspire and support pivotal moments for others The authors share a dynamic model for igniting substantial change which shows the interrelationship of three core processes that contribute to a person's readiness for a shift beliefs inner knowing and memory
