later became clear that this forecast was too pessimistic and in Horse Power and Magic Faber 1979 Ewart Evans describes in fascinating detail some important farms where horses continued to be beneficially used more than thirty years later He discovered that the traditions of the older horsemen had not died out but had been passed on in only slightly attenuated form to a younger generation keen to farm with horses proving that the day of the heavy horse was by no means over He also describes vividly the ways of horse tamers whose skills had a touch of magic about them Taking his works a whole there is no doubt that George Ewart Evans will survive as a fascinating pioneer of the extra academic recording of human history he has found a dimension all his own This is indeed the very stuff of history Sunday Times Self-Working Paper Magic Karl
