Shrinking Forests:

Shrinking Forests Jenny E. Tesar, Bernard S. Cayne, 1991 Explores the crucial role of the forest ecosystem and how its invaluable resources are endangered by pollution development and lack of careful conservation Sustainable Goat

Production in the Changing Climate Veerasamy Sejian, M.V. Silpa, D. Thirunavukkarasu, 2025-06-01 Sustainable Goat Production in the Changing Climate aims to make the global scientific and academic communities aware of the potential of goats as a livestock of the future When compared to more popular meat sources like cattle and swine goats have a lower carbon footprint and can aid in mitigating the effects of climate change as well as improving food production poverty and equity issues This book will discuss the implications of climate change on goat production systems and emphasize the physiological potential of goats to adapt to erratically changing climatic conditions Furthermore the book includes chapters on strategies to mitigate the effects of climate change on goat production and highlights novel technologies used to assess the impact of heat stress in goats Technology transfer strategies and policy related issues will also be covered Written and edited by an international team of experts on goats livestock animal agriculture and climate smart food systems Sustainable Goat Production in the Changing Climate will appeal to a broad audience from researchers to livestock specialists veterinarians and policymakers in food and sustainability Explores the potential of goats as future livestock species for animal origin foods Summarizes the impact of climate change on goats and goat production systems Proposes technological interventions ranging from management to bio technological solutions Identifies gaps in technology transfer activities and policymaking and provides solutions Emerging Threats to Tropical Forests William F. Laurance, Carlos A.

Peres, 2006-10 Publisher Description Rain Forests Adele Richardson, 2001-09 Discusses the plants animals and climate of a rain forest ecosystem A Political Ecology of Forest Conservation in India Amrita Sen, 2021-11-25 This book critically explores the political ecology of human marginalization wildlife conservation and the role of the state in politicizing conservation frameworks drawing on examples from forests in India The book specifically demonstrates the nuances within human environmental linkages by showing how environmental concerns are not only ecological in content but also political In India a large part of the forests and their surrounding areas were inhabited far before they were designated as protected areas and inviolate zones with the local population reliant on forests for their survival and livelihoods Thus socioecological conflicts between the forest dependents and official state bodies have been widespread This book uses a political ecology lens to explore the complex interplay between current norms of forest conservation and environmental subjectivities illustrating contemporary articulation of forest rights and the complex mediations between forest dependents and different state and non state bodies in designing and implementing regulatory standards for wildlife and forest protection It foregrounds the issues of identity migration and cultural politics while discussing the politics of conservation Through a political ecology approach the book not only is human centric but also makes significant use of the role of non humans in foregrounding the conservation discourse with a particular focus on tigers The book will be of great interest to students and academics studying forest conservation human wildlife interactions and political ecology Plants and the Environment

General Accounting Office,1989 The Saturday Evening Post ,1923 SCC Library has 1974-89 plus scattered issues The Fifth International Symposium on Society and Resource Management ,1994 Climate Change and Capitalism in Australia Hans A. Baer,2021-09-30 Recognizing that climate politics has been an increasingly contentious and heated topic in Australia over the past two decades this book examines Australian capitalism as a driver of climate change and the nexus between the corporations and Coalition and Australian Labor parties As a highly developed country Australia is punching above its weight in terms of contributing to greenhouse gas emissions despite rising temperatures droughts water shortages and raging bushfires storm surges and flooding and the bleaching of the Great Barrier Reef Drawing upon both archival and ethnographic research Hans Baer examines Australian climate politics at the margins namely the Greens the labour union the environmental NGOs and the grass roots climate movement Adopting a climate justice perspective which calls for system change not climate change as opposed to the conventional approach of seeking to mitigate emissions through market mechanisms and techno fixes particularly renewable energy sources this book posits system challenging transitional steps to shift Australia toward an eco socialist vision in keeping with a burgeoning global socio ecological revolution Accessibly written and including an interview with renowned comedian and climate activist Rod Quantock OAM this book is essential reading for academics students and general readers with an interest in climate change and climate activism

The Geobiology and Ecology of Metasequoia Ben A. LePage, Christopher J. Williams, Hong Yang, 2005-03-30 The plant fossil record indicates that the genus Metasequoia was widely distributed throughout the Northern Hemisphere from the early Late Cretaceous to the Pliocene Today the genus has shrunk to one species with approximately 5 000 mature individuals in southeastern China's Xiaohou Valley This book distills the current understanding of the biology ecology and physiology of fossil and living Metasequoia current research directions and problems that remain unresolved
