Manual Of Ritual:

A Manual of Ritual Fire Offerings, 1987 Maṇḍalas in the Making Michelle C. Wang, 2017-12-18 The first scholarly monograph on Buddhist maṇḍalas in China this book examines the Maṇḍala of Eight Great Bodhisattvas This iconographic template in which a central Buddha is flanked by eight attendants flourished during the Tibetan 786-848 and post-Tibetan Guiyijun 848-1036 periods at Dunhuang A rare motif that appears in only four cave shrines at the Mogao and Yulin sites the maṇḍala bore associations with political authority and received patronage from local rulers Attending to the historical and cultural contexts surrounding this iconography this book demonstrates that transcultural communication over the Silk Routes during this period and the religious dialogue between the Chinese and Tibetan communities were defining characteristics of the visual language of Buddhist maṇḍalas at Dunhuang A Manual of Rites and Ritual John Jay Elmendorf, 1868 Ritual and the Moral Life David Solomon, Ruiping Fan, Ping-cheung Lo, 2012-03-23 In the twentieth century in both China and the West ritual became marginalized in the face of the growth of secularism and individualism In China Confucianism and its essentially ritualistic comportment to the world were vigorously suppressed during the Cultural Revolution 1966-1976 under Mao Zedong But de-ritualization already took place as a result of the Chinese Revolution of 1911 under Sun Yat Sen In the West while the process of de-ritualization has been generally more gradual it has been nonetheless drastic In contrast to this situation this volume investigates the crucial role ritual plays in constituting the human understanding of their place in the cosmos the purpose of their lives and imbues human existence with a more complete sense of meaningfulness This volume presents the work of philosophers from both China and the West as they reflect upon the constitutive role that ritual plays in human life They reflect not only on ritual in general but also on specific Confucian and Christian appreciations of ritual This provocative volume is a beacon of warning to Western philosophers who think they have graduated from the trappings of ritual and a beacon of hope for Eastern thinkers who wish to avoid cultural fragmentation The Editors both Eastern and Western have together created a seamless work that not only introduces ritual but advances an argument for the contribution that ritual makes to cultural renewal This volume is a work of philosophical thinking about ritual doing but challenges those who think to realize that the salvation of philosophical thinking rests in the particularity and contingency of ritual doing Let us hope this volume is widely read for it points to that which might renew the West Jeffrey P Bishop Saint Louis University The Making of a Savior Bodhisattva Shi Zhiru, 2007-08-14 In modern Chinese Buddhism Dizang is especially popular as the sovereign of the underworld Often represented as a monk wearing a royal crown Dizang helps the deceased faithful navigate the complex underworld bureaucracy avert the punitive terrors of hell and arrive at the happy realm of rebirth The author is concerned with the formative period of this important Buddhist deity before his underworldly aspect eclipses his connections to other religious expressions and at a time when the art mythology practices and texts of his cult were still replete with possibilities She begins by problematizing the reigning model of Dizang one that proposes an evolution of gradual sinicization and increasing vulgarization of a relatively unknown Indian bodhisattva Ksitigarbha into a Chinese deity of the underworld. Such a model the author argues obscures the many faceted personality and iconography of Dizang. Rejecting it she deploys a broad array of materials: art, epigraphy, ritual texts, scripture and narrative literature to recomplexify Dizang and restore as much as possible from the fragmented historical sources what this figure meant to Chinese Buddhists from the sixth to tenth centuries. Rather than privilege any one genre of evidence the author treats both material artifacts and literary works as canonical and noncanonical sources. Adopting an archaeological approach she excavates motifs from and finds resonances across disparate genres to paint a vibrant, detailed picture of the medieval Dizang cult. Through her analysis the cult far from being an isolated phenomenon is revealed as integrally woven into the entire fabric of Chinese Buddhism, functioning as a kaleidoscopic lens encompassing a multivalent religious-cultural assimilation that resists the usual bifurcation of doctrine and practice or elite and popular religion.

The Making of a Savior Bodhisattva presents a fascinating wealth of material on the personality, iconography and lore associated with the medieval Dizang. It elucidates the complex cultural, religious and social forces shaping the florescence of this savior cult in Tang China while simultaneously addressing several broader theoretical issues that have preoccupied the field. Zhiru not only questions the use of sinicization as a lens through which to view Chinese Buddhist history she also brings both canonical and noncanonical literature into dialogue with a body of archaeological remains that has been ignored in the study of East Asian Buddhism.

Religion, Ritual and Ritualistic Objects Albertina (Tineke) Nugteren, 2019-04-23 This is a volume about the life and power of ritual objects in their religious ritual settings. In this Special Issue we see a wide range of contributions on material culture and ritual practices across religions. By focusing on the dynamic interrelations between objects, ritual and belief it explores how religion happens through symbolic materiality. The ritual objects presented in this volume include masks worn in the Dogon dance, antique ecclesiastical silver objects carried around in festive processions and shown in shrines in the southern Andes, funerary photographs and films functioning as mnemonic objects for grieving children, a dented rock surface perceived to be the god's footprint in the archaic place of pilgrimage Gaya, India, a recovered manual of rituals from Xiapu county for Mani, the founder of Manichaeism, juxtaposed to a Manichaean painting from southern China, sacred stories and related sacred stones in the Alor Pantar archipelago, Indonesia, lotus symbolism indicating immortalizing plants in the mythic traditions of Egypt, the Levant and Mesopotamia, lavishly illustrated variations of portrayals of Ravana, a Sinhalese god-king, demon figurines made of cow dung sculptured by rural women in Rajasthan, India, and mythical artifacts called Apples of Eden in a well-known interactive game series.
