Pickering, Susan Powell, 2007-08 This is the first Index of Middle English Prose handlist explicitly devoted to a geographical area rather than to specific repositories or collections though G A Lester dealt with two Manchester libraries in Handlist II The manuscripts we index belong to nine different libraries archives or record offices as follows Ampleforth Ampleforth Abbey Leeds Brotherton Collection Leeds University Leeds Leeds Diocesan Archives Northallerton North Yorkshire County Record Office Ripon Archives of the Dean and Chapter of Ripon Ripon Ripon Cathedral Library Sheffield Sheffield Record Office York Borthwick Institute of Historical Research York York Minster Library from introduction Catalogue of Sources for a Linguistic Atlas of Early Medieval English Margaret Laing, 1993 This catalogue is a state of knowledge list of the English written between c 1150 and 1300 whether later versions of Old English texts or original early Middle English With over 500 entries relating to manuscripts containing writing in English it describes in detail literary material both prose and verse documentary texts and glosses The catalogue draws together an extensive body of information only available up to now from widely scattered sources As well as being listed by their repositories the manuscripts are also separately indexed by text Information is provided on dates hands manuscript associations and language Also given are references to editions and secondary literature The Index of Middle English Prose: Handlist XXV Niamh Pattwell, 2024 Handlist to manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin covering all 79 Middle English prose manuscripts and indexing more than 539 separate items The manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin are predominantly from the library of Archbishop James Ussher 1581-1656 A well known bibliophile of the sixteenth century he was also primate of All Ireland and fellow and professor of Trinity College Following some movement of the collection it was eventually returned to Trinity College after the Restoration at the behest of Charles II It is a significant collection both in national and international terms with over 600 manuscripts 79 of which contain Middle English prose Among the manuscripts in the collection are several Wycliffite Bibles and collections of sermons and tracts some of them unique copies The collection also contains writings by Richard Rolle Walter Hilton and William Flete and copies of Thomas Kempis's Imitation of Christ as well as the Pore Caitif and The Cloud of Unknowing both of which are anonymous. There are several copies of the Brut chronicle two of which MSS 489 and 505 are illuminated translations of Giraldus Cambrensis's Expugnatio Hibernica and a copy of Robert Bale's Chronicle of London 1189-1461. Also of note are the various collections of recipes, medical, culinary and alchemical. Dictionary style items demonstrate the trilingual nature of the Medieval period with single words being offered in English alongside Anglo-Norman and/or Latin words or as marginal glosses. Fifteenth-century instructions for the coronation of a King or Queen hidden among some later material as well as other unidentified heraldic pieces suggest that some of the manuscripts may be associated with the office of the Ulster King of Arms. The current handlist covers 79 manuscripts and indexes more than 539 separate items offering a significant contribution to the understanding of the cultural world of the Medieval period.

Middle English Prose A. S. G. Edwards, Derek Pearsall, 2019-08-15. Originally published in 1981. Middle English Prose is an edited collection providing an index of research and scholarship on Middle English prose. The book is split into specific thematic areas of scholarship covering such areas as editorial technique and middle English mystical prose as well as focusing more in detail on specific prose such as Nicholas Love's Myrrour of the Blessed Lyf of Jesu Christ. Each chapter contains a collection of useful sources and an editorial analysis and description on each source. Even today this will provide a useful and valuable resource for researchers of the medieval period.

Manuscripts in the National Library of Wales (Llyfrgell Genedlaethol Cymru), Aberystwyth National Library of Wales, C. William Marx, 1999. The National Library of Wales was founded to preserve the material of the literary culture and history of Wales; hence the number of medieval English language manuscripts is relatively small and the manuscript context for some English texts is one in which Welsh is the main language. The best known of the Middle English manuscripts in the NLW are Brogyntyn II 1, Porkington 10 and the Hengwrt manuscript for Chaucer's Canterbury Tales; however, the collection has been little explored for its Middle English holdings and of the manuscripts listed here fewer than half are included in the Index of Printed Middle English Prose. They contain a wealth of materials, most notably in historical writings, scientific texts and prophecies among the texts not previously recorded are the Davies Chronicle and a version of the Elucidarius.
