Maos Crusade Politics And Policy Implementation In Chinas Great Leap Forward:

Mao's Crusade Alfred L. Chan, 2001-06-07 During 1957 and 1958 Mao was seized by a vision that the Chinese economy could develop rapidly in leaps and bounds by relying on intuition and mass spontaneity As a consequence he single handedly launched a colossal mobilization campaign called the Great Leap Forward which featured many radical policy innovations including the people s communes This book is the first in depth and original study of policy formulation and implementation during the Leap to link the roles of Mao the central leaders the ministries and the province of Guangdong Rejecting the theory that the Leap was an outcome of bureaucratic politics and competition the study establishes beyond doubt the supreme and dominant position of Mao in initiating and commanding the Leap Alfred L Chan goes further than propounding a Mao dominant model by documenting the strategic and tactical moves made by Mao in order to neutralize all opposition and to carry the day He also discusses in detail the policy roles and input of other top leaders on whom the improvising Mao relied to feed his imagination and to flesh out his policies In the chapters on the implementation of the Leap Dr Chan explores how the ministries of Metallurgy and Agriculture were transformed from bureaucratic agencies into agents of mobilization and how impossible targets forced them to keep up appearances by focussing on the rituals of mass mobilization Similarly other chapters on Guangdong show the simultaneously fervent ritualistic and desperate attempts to implement every hunch and intuition emanating from the centre Exhaustive research using new material made available in the post Mao era as well as archives from the 1950s and 1960s has yielded novel and original insights into the leader Mao central decision making and policy implementation in the communist hierarchy

The Party Family Kimberley Ens Manning, 2023-08-15 Co winner of the Canadian Political Science Association Prize in Comparative Politics of the Canadian Political Science Association The Party Family explores the formation and consolidation of the state in revolutionary China through the crucial role that social ties specifically family ties played in the state s capacity to respond to crisis before and after the foundation of the People s Republic of China Central to these ties Kimberley Ens Manning finds were women as both the subjects and leaders of reform Drawing on interviews with 163 participants in the provinces of Henan and Jiangsu as well as government documents and elite memoirs biographies speeches and reports Manning offers a new theoretical lens attachment politics to underscore how family and ideology intertwined to create an important building block of state capacity and governance As The Party Family details infant mortality in China dropped by more than half within a decade of the PRC s foundation a policy achievement produced to a large extent through the personal and family ties of the maternalist policy coalition that led the reform movement However these achievements were undermined or reversed in the complex policy struggles over the family during Mao s Great Leap Forward 1958 60
