Mapping Christian Education:

Mapping Christian Education Jack Lee Seymour, 1997 In Mapping Christian Education Approaches to Congregational Learning Jack L Seymour provides the most up to date insights about the various aspects of Christian education Ecumenical in scope and unified in process his work includes chapters on schooling faith communications human development social transformation and future agenda Contributors include Elizabeth Caldwell Margaret Ann Crain Maria Harris Donald E Miller Gabriel Moran Robert O Gorman Daniel Schipani and Jack Seymour By reading Mapping Christian Education Seminarians will learn the fundamentals of educational theory Professors will discover a reliable textbook to be included in their curriculum Directors of Christian Education will enjoy a refresher course in recent developments and advances in the field

Mapping Christian education : approaches to congregational learning Jack L. Seymour (ed), 1997 Mapping Out Curriculum in Your Church James R. Estep, 2012 Taking into account biblical theological and historical perspectives leading ministry and education professionals identify the best approach to curriculum formation for the local church using the metaphor of mapmaking throughout Planning for Christian Education Formation Israel Galindo, Marty

Canaday, 2010-03-01 This book was written to help congregational leaders clergy staff and laypersons plan and organize a Christian education ministry from the approach of Christian formation in a community of faith context This book provides a model for organizing the Christian education leadership committee or team of the church demonstrates how to use the church year as a framework for planning the Christian education ministry of the church and gives a model for assessing the effectiveness of the educational ministry of the church and a process to help congregations move toward the Christian Education Formation approach Learning in the Way Jeff Astley, 2000 Adult Christian learning is central to the life of the Christian church and is essential for its health outreach and very survival Leading Christian educators here apply the principles of Christian education to adult learning in the churches and present the results and methods of empirical research relevant to the church's ministry of adult Christian education This book will be of interest to all who are concerned for the ways in which adults learn to be Christian The editor Jeff Astley is Director of the North of England Institute for Christian Education and Honorary Professorial Fellow in Practical Theology and Christian Education in the University of Durham

Mapping Christian Rhetorics Michael-John DePalma, Jeffrey M. Ringer, 2014-10-10 The continued importance of Christian rhetorics in political social pedagogical and civic affairs suggests that such rhetorics not only belong on the map of rhetorical studies but are indeed essential to the geography of rhetorical studies in the twenty first century This collection argues that concerning ourselves with religious rhetorics in general and Christian rhetorics in particular tells us something about rhetoric itself its boundaries its characteristics its functionings In assembling original research on the intersections of rhetoric and Christianity from prominent and emerging scholars Mapping Christian Rhetorics seeks to locate religion more centrally within the geography of rhetorical studies in the twenty first century It does so by acknowledging work on Christian rhetorics that has been overlooked or ignored connecting domains of knowledge and research areas pertaining to Christian rhetorics that may remain disconnected or under connected and charting new avenues of inquiry about Christian rhetorics that might invigorate theory building teaching research and civic engagement In dividing the terrain of Christian rhetorics into four categories theory education methodology and civic engagement Mapping Christian Rhetorics aims to foster connections among these areas of inquiry and spur future future collaboration between scholars of religious rhetoric in a range of research areas Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian,Mark A. Lampert,2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors TheEncyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian educationBiblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Basics of Christian Education Karen Tye,2000-01-01 Congregations are always struggling with what quality Christian education is and how to build and maintain it In this concise and easy to use guide Karen Tye offers practical help addressing the vital areas that need attention when planning for and building a Christian education program Questions and exercises at the end of each chapter help pastors Christian educators seminary students and laity apply the information to their own unique setting building on the basics to renew and transform Christian education Foundations for Christian Education Eleanor Ann Daniel,John William Wade,1999 Here is an excellent resource for your Christian Education program Daniel and Wade discuss the foundations of an effective Christian Education program and tackle organizational and administrative issues involved with such a program You will also find age specific information for all ages of learners If you are a Christian Ed Director or a teacher who wants to better understand the elements of a C E program that will make a difference in the lives of the teachers and the students this is the book for you Christian Education and the Emerging Church Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church. The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education. This significant movement in today's church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine. In her examination of postmodern faith formation, Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education. Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready-to-use teaching and learning matrix, and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos.
