The Feminism of Uncertainty Ann Snitow, 2015-08-27 The Feminism of Uncertainty brings together Ann Snitow's passionate provocative dispatches from forty years on the front lines of feminist activism and thought In such celebrated pieces as A Gender Diary which confronts feminism's need to embrace while dismantling the category of woman Snitow is a virtuoso of paradox Freely mixing genres in vibrant prose she considers Angela Carter Doris Lessing and Dorothy Dinnerstein and offers self-reflexive accounts of her own organizing writing and teaching Her pieces on international activism sexuality motherhood and the waywardness of political memory all engage feminism's impossible contradictions and its utopian hopes

Colonial and Postcolonial Fiction in English

Robert Ross, 2013-04-11 Fiction from the old British Commonwealth once took second place to the literature of England and the United States but this is no longer the case. Writers from around the globe—Africa, Canada, Australia, Pakistan, New Zealand and the Caribbean—have recorded their encounters with colonialism from its beginnings to its collapse and aftermath to produce an impressive body of work that internationalizes literature in English. Colonial and Postcolonial Fiction in English draws from this great commonwealth of writing and offers 35 selections by major writers from both indigenous and settler cultures from the nineteenth century through the contemporary era. The anthology is organized into sets of short stories and stand-alone selections from significant novels. Colonial, postcolonial, immigrant and personal encounters are represented. Each section includes a general introduction to help readers place the works in historical and cultural perspective. Biographical and critical material is provided for each writer along with commentary on each selection. This anthology is an appropriate textbook for courses in Colonial and Postcolonial Studies and in Literature and Cultural Studies. It will also interest general readers.

Beach Lena Lencek, Gideon Bosker, 2009-07-21 J.D. Salinger's A Perfect Day for Bananafish, John Cheever's Goodbye My Brother, Doris Lessing's Through the Tunnel. These and dozens of other beloved stories share the beach as their setting. In fact, it is remarkable how many of the finest writers have set stories and novels in whole or in part at the beach and how often they use this locale to explore the great themes of love, loss, death, family and redemption. Beach brings together for the first time the very best of this literary tradition, including stories, novel excerpts and narrative nonfiction.

Memory, Voice, and Identity Feroza Jussawalla, Doaa Omran, 2021-03-30 Muslim women have been stereotyped by Western academia as oppressed and voiceless. This volume problematizes this Western academic representation. Muslim Women Writers from the Middle East: from Out al Kouloub al Dimerdashiyyah (1899-1968) and Latifa al Zayat (1923-1996) from Egypt to current diasporic writers such as Tamara Chalabi from Iraq, Mohja Kahf from Syria and even trendy writers such as Alexandra Chreiteh challenge the received notion of Middle Eastern women as subjugated and secluded. The younger, largely Muslim women scholars collected in this book present cutting-edge theoretical perspectives on these Muslim women writers. This book includes essays from the conflict-ridden countries such as Iran, Iraq, Palestine, Syria and the resultant diaspora. The strengths of Muslim women writers are captured by the scholars included herein. The approach is feminist, postcolonial and disruptive of Western stereotypical academic tropes.

A History of British, Irish and American Literature Hans-Peter Wagner, 2021-10-04 The third revised and enlarged edition contains discussions of British, Irish and American literary works up to 2020. Focussing on outstanding writings in prose, poetry, drama and non-fiction, the book covers the time from the Anglo-Saxon period to the 21st century. Law, Fiction and Activism in a Time of Climate Change Nicole Rogers, 2019-08-14 The book examines the narratives of climate change which have developed and which are currently evolving in three areas law fiction and activism Narratives of climate change generated by litigants judges writers of fiction and activists are having and will have a profound effect on the way we respond to the climate change crisis Acknowledging the prevalence of unreliable narrators this book explores the reliability and significance of different forms of climate narrative The author analyses overlapping themes and points of intersection considering the recurrent motif of the trickster the prominence of the child the significance and ongoing viability of the rights discourse and the increasingly prevalent emergency framing with its multiple implications for law s empire She asks how law fiction and activism measure up as textual and performative fora for telling the story of climate change and anticipating a climate changed future And in addition how can they help foster transformative narratives which empower us to confront the climate change crisis This highly topical cross disciplinary work will be of interest to anyone concerned about the growing climate emergency and makes a valuable contribution to climate law environmental law the environmental humanities and ecocriticism
