Marbling A History And A Bibliography:

Marbling Phoebe Jane Easton, 1983 Esdaile's Manual of Bibliography Roy Stokes, Romano Stephen Almagno, 2001
Designed for the literary student the student librarian and the beginning book collector this manual assumes nothing but interest at the outset In clear language it serves to take readers to the point at which they are prepared to turn to advanced texts to develop specialized interests Marbled Paper Richard J. Wolfe, 1990 For 250 years after its introduction to Europe around 1600 the method of decorating paper known as marbling reigned supreme as the chief means of embellishing the fine work of hand bookbinders Richard J Wolfe reconstructs the rise and fall of the craft and offers the most comprehensive account available of its history techniques and patterns A publication of the A S W Rosenbach Fellowship in Bibliography Series A Bibliographic History of the Book Joseph Rosenblum, 1995 skillfully compiled should be useful to anyone interested in placing his or her studies in the context of printed and bound literature ENGLISH LITERATURE IN TRANSITION 1880 1920 Tulipmania Anne Goldgar, 2008-09-15 In the 1630s the Netherlands was gripped by tulipmania a speculative fever unprecedented in scale and as popular history would have it folly We all know the outline of the story how otherwise sensible merchants nobles and artisans spent all they had and much that they didn't on tulip bulbs We have heard how these bulbs changed hands hundreds of times in a single day and how some bulbs sold and resold for thousands of guilders never even existed Tulipmania is seen as an example of the gullibility of crowds and the dangers of financial speculation But it wasn't like that As Anne Goldgar reveals in Tulipmania not one of these stories is true Making use of extensive archival research she lays waste to the legends revealing that while the 1630s did see a speculative bubble in tulip prices neither the height of the bubble nor its bursting were anywhere near as dramatic as we tend to think By clearing away the accumulated myths Goldgar is able to show us instead the far more interesting reality the ways in which tulipmania reflected deep anxieties about the transformation of Dutch society in the Golden Age Goldgar tells us at the start of her excellent debunking book Most of what we have heard of tulipmania is not true She tells a new story Simon Kuper Financial Times 1979-1990 Henryk Sawoniak, 2012-02-14 No detailed description available for 1979 1990 Works relating to bibliography, history of printing, bookbinding, & c., Catalogues of public and private libraries, sale and booksellers' catalogues, on sale by W. H. Gee W. H. Gee, 1880 The British Library Guide to Bookbinding P. J. M. Marks, 1998-01-01 An introduction to the history and techniques of bookbinding that offers a thorough and accessible historical overview of techniques and processes illustrated with examples diagrams and photographs of craftspeople at work A History of English Craft Bookbinding Technique Bernard C. Middleton, 1996 The sheer breadth of Bernard Middleton's classic study of the history of English bookbinding and its skill demanding techniques has established this book as an essential work of reference for all practitioners and students of the subject Mr Middleton a celebrated bookbinder and teacher has updated and considerably expanded this new edition and has added many illustrations A revised Supplement traces the evolution of English craft bookbinding since 1945 and for the first time the index amended for this edition by Dr Marianne Tidcombe is comprehensive This is a definitive study that belongs on the reference shelf of every bibliophile librarian book conservator collector and binder interested in the book arts Merchants and Marvels Pamela Smith,Paula Findlen,2013-10-18 The beginning of global commerce in the early modern period had an enormous impact on European culture changing the very way people perceived the world around them Merchants and Marvels assembles essays by leading scholars of cultural history art history and the history of science and technology to show how ideas about the representation of nature in both art and science underwent a profound transformation between the age of the Renaissance and the early 1700s
