Emergence of Neuroscience and the German Novel Sonja Boos, 2021-09-29 The Emergence of Neuroscience and the German Novel Poetics of the Brain revises the dominant narrative about the distinctive psychological inwardness and introspective depth of the German novel by reinterpreting the novel's development from the perspective of the nascent discipline of neuroscience the emergence of which is coterminous with the rise of the novel form In particular it asks how the novel's formal properties stylistic narrative rhetorical and figurative correlate with the formation of a neuroscientific discourse and how the former may have assisted disrupted and or intensified the medical articulation of neurological concepts This study poses the question how does this rapidly evolving field emerge in the context of nineteenth century cultural practices and what were the conditions for its emergence in the German speaking world specifically Where did neuroscience begin and how did it broaden in scope And most crucially to what degree does it owe its existence to literature

McGillen, 2019-07-25 Winner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Awarded by the MLA With an innovative approach that combines material media history media theory and literary poetics this book reconstructs the great German writer Theodor Fontane's creative process Petra McGillen follows Fontane into the engine room of his text production Analyzing a wealth of unexplored archival evidence which includes a collection of the author's 67 extant notebooks along with an array of other paper tools such as cardboard boxes envelopes and slips McGillen demonstrates how Fontane compiled his realist prose works That is he assembled them from premediated sources literally with scissors and glue in an extraordinarily inorganic and radically intertextual manner that turned writing into a process of ongoing remix By exploring the far reaching implications of Fontane's creative practices for our understanding of his authorship originality and poetics this book opens up a completely new way to think about his works and by extension 19th century literary realism This conceptualization of authors notebooks as creative tools makes a substantial contribution to scholarship on the history of writing media in several disciplines from German studies and literary studies to media history and to our understanding of the relationship between mass media and literary creativity in the late 19th century

Fontane in the Twenty-first Century John B. Lyon, Brian Tucker, 2019 Assesses the relevance of the works of Fontane perhaps the foremost German novelist between Goethe and Mann for the twenty first century Theodor Fontane remains a canonical figure in German literature the most important representative of poetic realism and likely the best German language novelist between Goethe and Mann yet scholarly attention to his works often lags behind his stature at least in the English speaking academy This volume coinciding with Fontane's 200th birthday in 2019 assesses the relevance of his works for us today and also draws attention to the most current English language research Much has changed in the last two decades in critical theory and the volume highlights how new methodological approaches and new archival research can update our understanding of Fontane s works Although his novels are famously rooted in the details of quotidian life in nineteenth century Germany they also reflect larger historical transformations that resonate with our world today e g financial crisis class conflict changing gender roles and migration and so speak to contemporary critical interests The volume s contributors draw on literary and cultural studies approaches including gender and sexuality studies emotion studies transnationalism and globalization media and visual studies rhetorical criticism paratextual criticism and digital humanities Their contributions survey a wide range of Fontane s literary production in order to speak to both German and non German audiences in the twenty first century Contributors James N Bade Russell A Berman Katharina Adeline Engler Coldren Todd Kontje John B Lyon Ervin Malakaj Nicolas von Passavant Lynne Tatlock Christian Thomas Brian Tucker Michael J White Holly A Yanacek John B Lyon is Professor of German at the University of Pittsburgh Brian Tucker is Associate Professor of German at Wabash College

Mathilde Möhring Theodor Fontane, 2023 The first English translation of Fontane s late posthumously published novel featuring the eponymous complex heroine and confronting issues regarding gender roles and marriage that still resonate today Theodor Fontane hesitated to publish his late novel Mathilde Möhring because he believed it was too modern for his readership Published posthumously in 1906 its themes corrosive economic precarity the ambivalence of marriage for women and the burden of work expectations for men resonate uncannily with readers today The heroine Mathilde and her mother cling to the underside of the lower middle class by renting out a room in their small Berlin apartment Their new tenant seems to offer a path to middle class security so although marriage is not her first choice Mathilde applies her shrewd yet limited understanding of class mores to pursue it with results both triumphant and catastrophic The last among Fontane s powerfully drawn female protagonists Mathilde is unlike any previous heroine of a German novel intelligent and energetic but plain and deeply pragmatic We follow the flawed but fearless Mathilde from the bustling metropolis of Berlin to Woldenstein a sleepy backwater town she single handedly transforms and back Unknown in the English speaking world this compact work has the humor and pathos familiar to readers of Fontane and is powerfully evocative of the politics of class gender and religion in late 19th century Germany Also included are an introduction an afterword and extensive endnotes that richly contextualize the work for both general readers and students of literature history gender studies and German studies
